REPORTER TRAINEES

Two excellent opportunities for careful training and rapid advancement in the field of newspapering are available on The Guardian and The Evening Patriot. Only young people with a decided interest in newspapering and other forms of writing, and a definite flair for it, will be considered.

One young woman and one young man are sought for these openings. Both must have inquiring minds, keen interest in the human activities going on around them, and the beginnings of skill in the use of language.

At the outset work for those chosen will be pretty much at the apprenticeship level, but every help in swiftly achieving satisfying career opportunities will be given those who qualify.

Minimum of grade 11 education required. In first instance apply only by letter, including telephone number, to: Wallace Ward, Managing Editor, Guardian/Evening Patriot.
