DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Among the visitors to Charlottetown for Confederation Week and particularly the harness horse racing, was Dr. D. A. McIsaac, Glace Bay, who is part owner of Aaron L. 2.10¼ and Direct L. 2.09½.

We note by the Moncton papers that there is a little war on between the Moncton horsemen and Port Elgin track officials, also rivalry between Buctouche and Moncton. We hope this will peter out as cooperation is better than conflict. Scrapping gets one nowhere in harness racing or any other sport or business.

Jimmie Milligan's entry list for next Wednesday's races published yesterday, shows that he has lined up a bunch of the best trotters and pacers in the Maritimes. Stables are coming from Halifax, Saint John, Moncton and other parts, with some of this Spring's importations including Buck Hanover 2.04¼ and Barney Hanover 2.07. Everything points to a big day's sport at Northam, where track and grounds are among the best. A paved road to within two or three miles of the track makes it easy of access. We look to see fast time and great racing at Northam.

The horse races at Port Elgin which were to have taken place last Saturday, were postponed until Monday due to rain. A good crowd attended and everyone enjoyed the sport. Barney Hanover 2.07, brought to the Maritimes by C. M. Alexander, Saint John, early this Spring, won the Free for All, stepping the first heat in 2.16 and the second in 2.14. The third heat was won by Volo Ray 2.05, time 2.15. Bedford Grattan 2.06½, that was expected to win, placed 2-3-3 in the summary. Walter Brown 2.08½ did not start. The Classified Trot and Pace was won by Martindell 2.11, in straight heats. Crusader was 2-3-3, Elsie Louise 3-5-2, Sunshine Express 5-4-4 and Nancy Carroll 6-4-dr. Time, 2.15, 2.16, 2.15¼. The 2.26 Trot and Pace was won by T. C. Collette's good trotter Protestor in straight heats, with Lucky Miss 2-2-2, Bill Bailey 3-3-3; time, 2.17¼, 2.22, 2.21.

It is not every day that you hear of a horseman buying a horse and selling him for more than he paid, but Benny Franks, who purchased Countess Hanover as a yearling at the Old Glory Auction last fall is one of the lucky ones. He paid $900; last week he sold her for $9,000.

For the first time, as far as we know, they are handicapping horses by a system similar to that used for the runners. As our readers are aware there are classes for different weights, jockey and saddle. If the jockey is not the required weight for the class it is made up by lead placed in the pockets of the saddle. Today at Old Orchard, Maine, kite track, the horses in the handicap races will start together, but the faster ones will be penalized by additional weight placed on their backs.

Greyhound 1.56¼, world's champion trotter, trained a mile last week over Old Orchard track in 1.58¼, with the last half in 56¼ seconds.

Little Alma Sheppard, who drove Dean Hanover to his world's record as a four-year-old—1.58½—is spending part of the summer on her father's ranch in Texas and is having a lovely time riding cow ponies. She will return in September and expects to drive Dean Hanover another fast mile.

Last week Miss Budlong, by Calumet Budlong 2.02¾, Frank McKay's good sire, won the 2.12 pace at Anderson, Indiana, lowering the track record to 2.04, which is also a new record for Miss Budlong.

Mayor H. M. Sweeney and a party of Bridgewater's prominent citizens came over especially for the races on Thursday. They are building a track at Bridgewater and hope to have it in operation at fair time this fall. Mayor Sweeney wanted his confreres to see the Provincial Exhibition layout as he thinks it is just about okay. He reports that John Dean 2.08¼, that injured a tendon at Truro, July 1st, is sound now and will be a starter in the Free for All Trot at the Provincial Exhibition, Charlottetown. He sold Dudey Patch 2.10, to parties during the Truro races and is now down to two horses, John Dean and part ownership in Jeanne Truax 2.06¼.

The summaries of the 2.16 Trot and Pace and 2.21 Trot and Pace Thursday afternoon at the Exhibition grounds show that the average speed in the 2.21 class was faster than the average speed in the 2.16 class. Happy L., winner of the 2.21 Trot and Pace, averaged 2.12 1-3 for the three heats and had the honor of stepping the fastest heat of the afternoon—2.11½. The three heats in the 2.16 Trot and Pace averaged 2.12¾. Dude Potempkin won the first heat in 2.12½, which was the fastest heat trotted during the afternoon. Direct L. won the second heat in 2.12¼ and the third in 2.13¾. This does not take in the exhibition mile paced by Jane Azoff 1.59½, owned by C. H. Horton, Murray River. Jane's mile was in 2.08¾.

A great many people were puzzled as to the identity of George Washington, a chestnut horse by San Francisco which was a starter in the 2.26 Trot and Pace. This horse raced in 1934 and took a time record of 2.09¾. He raced a little in 1935. Two years ago he was brought to this country by James MacDonald, Charlottetown, who has put him in fine shape. Thursday he was well driven by Teddy Weir, making his debut in a race.

It is very seldom that an attempt is made to "ring" a horse, that is to change his identity and start him out as a slow class trotter or pacer. However, Frank Goodwin of Indianapolis thought he could do the trick and bought the pacer Chandu 2.02½, changed his name to Peter Stokes and sent him on his way. When he reached Shelby, North Carolina, he sold him to George Cabaniss, who started him under the name of Peter Stokes.

Last week the Board of Directors of the United States Trotting Association had the matter before them and they dealt out the following fines: Frank Goodwin, fined $1,455.54 and expelled for life; Homer Walton, charged with fraudulent particulars and fined $500; Carl Hatchell, who drove the horse on tracks in North and South Carolina, was fined $441.54 and suspended; George Cabaniss was fined $615.54 and suspended. A total of $956.54 were assessed against the horse itself and he will remain suspended until the fines are paid.

A week from today entries close for the twelve classes in connection with the Provincial Exhibition races, which reminds us that it is only a little over three weeks until the great big Fair starts humming. All indications are for a grand entry list this year with a lot of newcomers to the Maritimes adding to the uncertainty of the sport of kings.

James Arbing has purchased the brood mare Tramp Across (2) 2.26½ and will breed her to Calumet Budlong 2.02¾.

The trotter Kelley 2.02½ that won so many races over the best half-mile tracks last season with owner Pat O'Connell, who wears long whiskers, driving, will make an attempt to lower the high-wheeled sulky record of 2.08¾ made by Maud S. in 1888. It is predicted that he will do the trick over a good mile track.

They have been starting under the European barrier system in Indiana and it appears to have won the approval of the horsemen, trainers and public at large. If so it will do away with what is known as the scoring nuisance that has hurt harness racing so much.

Walter Bird of Revere, Mass., who always has one or two fast horses in his stable and who campaigned Walter Brown 2.06, now owned in Moncton, recently purchased the western pacer The Law 2.05¾. We note where he started him in the 2.17 class at Old Orchard, Maine, Tuesday, and he won, lowering his record to 2.04½.

Calumet Coburn winner of the 2.17 Trot at the Provincial Exhibition last August, has been changed to the pace and we note where trainer Barnett won at Houlton, Maine, July 4th, best time 2.11½. The same day Dr. H. 159½, driven by Billie Keyes, won the Free For All with a summary of 2-1-1; Calumet Calling was 1-2-2; Ray Henley 4-3-3; Harkaway 5-4-4; Laurel Hanover 3-4-dr. Time 2.05¼ (a new track record), 2.06½, 2.08½. On the same day Earle Avery was 2-2-1 with Miss America in the 2.16 mixed, best time 2.08¾.

Little Pat 1.56¾, had his colors lowered for the first time this season at Old Orchard, Maine. Lone Ace 2.01 did the trick. Little Pat had scored six wins prior to his defeat, but his victories were all over half-mile tracks and the change to the long stretches of the mile kite track may have discouraged him a bit.

Another brother, Buzz L., of the fast pacing trio Aaron L. 2.10¼, Direct L. 2.09½ and Happy L. 2.09½, is on the Island and is entered in the races at Northam. It is understood that he has passed into the ownership of parties here.

It is reported that an offer of $15000 was refused for the two-year-old trotting filly Princess Margaret (2) 2.12¼, sister to Protector (3) 1.59¼, The Marchioness (3) 1.59¾ and others. She is heavily staked and if she keeps on improving would be a bargain at the price named.

Racing seems to be going over big in the U. S. A., most of the tracks report larger attendances and better racing than last year.

Simmerings Around The Sport Front

By VINCENT HONAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, July 21—Mike Jacobs is outshining his old master, Tex Rickard, as a fight promoter ....Uncle Mike just required two days to sign Joe Louis and Bob Pastor for a Detroit September heavyweight championship battle and Tony Galento and Lou Nova for an elimination bout leading to another championship bout next spring.

Rickard's record was never better than three major fights a year.

In addition Jacobs has Henry Armstrong and Lou Ambers scheduled for a lightweight title fight Aug. 22 at the Yankee Stadium... On the side he may have Billy Conn defend his newly-won light-heavy crown in a September fight at Pittsburgh.

Here's a natural for the Dodgers ....chasing a long hit, outfielder Elza Kuhlman of Falls City Legion team, lost his balance, cap and ball at the same time...While the batter galloped home he searched feverishly for the ball...He found it under his cap.

Two Chicago softball teams, Windsor Park and Cheltenham Boosters, played 105 innings of continuous play yesterday....The game took eight hours and the score was 157-135 in favor of Windsor Park....As agreed before the marathon the losers were thrown into Lake Michigan...John Dwyer of the Windsors clouted 15 home runs during the day.

With the death of Louis Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, the ranks of baseball's old guard have thinned down to just Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics and Clark Griffith of Washington Senators.

Gloucestershire Trails Yorkshire For League Lead

(Canadian Press Cable)

LONDON, July 21—Victorious by five wickets over Hampshire, Gloucestershire moved into second place behind Yorkshire in the English County cricket championship today. The Yorkists consolidated their lead with a 10-wickets verdict over Sussex.

Somerset took first-innings points from Nottinghamshire in the only other match to count in the standings. Contending teams in four matches on the schedule failed to complete one innings each, rain preventing more than a few hours' play. The navy-army contest at Lord's was also washed out.

Tom Goddard, veteran Gloucestershire spin bowler, played havoc with Hampshire batsmen on a damp wicket and during the match dismissed 12 men for 22 runs.

P.E.I. Highlanders High Point Winners In Annual Camp Sports Yesterday

Chalking up two first places, three seconds and two thirds for a total of 14 points, and still in the running for the softball championship which is to be decided this afternoon, athletes from the Prince Edward Island Highlanders, Black Watch, now under canvas, yesterday were high point winners in the annual camp sports, their fourteen points being four better than the Signal Co.'s 10 while the Cape Breton Highlanders wound up in third place with 8; Lighthorse 5 and the Medical Corps in trailing position with four.

Witnessed by a large crowd of civilians in addition to the troops in camp, the sports were an unqualified success from start to finish and were perhaps the best ever staged between the different units. Times in the dashes were exceptionally good with "Daisy" Bell of the Signals giving three outstanding performances. He won the 100 yards from a fast field in 10 seconds, travelled over the 220 yards in 23 4-5 and then romped home with the quarter in 69 seconds. Bell personally accounted for 9 of his Corps' ten points and also kept the Signals as strong factors in the point standing.

The tug-of-war, however, stole the show both from a competitive and spectators' standpoint. With four teams entered, Cape Breton Highlanders, P. E. I. Highlanders, Medical Corps and R.C.C. Signals, those in attendance saw the teams stage six gruelling pulls before a winner was declared.

Entering the event heavy favorites the big heavy Cape Breton team went down in two straight pulls from the hands of the lightly-regarded Medical Corps team. P.E.I. Highlanders, pulled across the line by the Signals Co. in the first of their semi-final pulls, came back with a vengeance to take the Signallers two straight and go into the finals. In a sudden death pull for the title, Medicals and Highlanders staged the closest, most gruelling pull of the day with the Highlanders of the Island finally coming through after over three minutes of tug-of-war and this after they had lost an early advantage and had been threatened by the surprisingly strong and able Medical Corps squad.

The officials handling the meet are to be congratulated on the fine manner in which the sports were run off; events were run off in most cases in a quick manner and the officials capably handled the big fields that were entered in the various races.

Immediately after the meet prizes were presented to the various winners.

Tarshis Gives Canadian Team New Hope By Smart Playing In Singles Match

(By The Canadian Press)

HAVANA, July 21—After dropping the opening singles match to Cuba, hopes of Canada's young Davis Cup tennis team were buoyed tonight by the smart performance of Ellis Tarshis of Montreal in the second match of the day which was postponed in the third set because of rain.

Tarshis, who is 24, directed an aggressive array of shots at 27-year-old Jose Aguero, Cuba's second ranking singles player, and was holding a position of advantage when the deluge came.

The Canadian had taken the first set at 7-5, lost the second one by the same score and was ahead at 2-0 in the third set as play was halted.

In the opening singles match, Ricardo Morales, Cuba's No. 1 player, defeated Bruce Hall, 20-year-old divinity student at the University of Toronto, 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

Robert Forster, non-playing captain of the Canadian team, said he was well satisfied with Hall's showing against Morales, who is 32, and a veteran of international competition.

Forster added that Hall was not at his best because of the torrid sun and a slight case of grippe which sent him to hospital for two days earlier in the week.

A gallery of more than 500 people, including high Cuban officials and prominent members of the British and America colonies, gave Tarshis and Aguero enthusiastic applause as they battled each other in an evenly-matched duel.

In the first set, games followed service until the score was 3-3. Tarshis managed to crack Aguero's service to lead at 4-3, but the Cuban came right back and took the next two games to hold a 5-4 advantage.

Ties Up Score

Aguero tried to finish off the set by going to the net, but Tarshis uncorked a series of passing shots that tied the score. The Montrealer then assumed the offensive himself, going to the net at every opportunity and won the next two games and set.

The Cuban decided to fight fire with fire, and crashed up to the net himself in the opening games of the second set. Tarshis took Aguero's serve to win the first game, but the Cuban won the next two. Tarshis won the fourth and excitement reached a high pitch as both were playing sharp, fast tennis.

Aguero's forehand showed fine strength and on its performance mainly he took the next two games, but Tarshis pounded his opponent's backhand to come up even at 4-4. The games went to 5-5, then Aguero forged ahead and finished off the set, winning 7-5.

Impressive

Tarshis looked good at the start of the third set, and ran off the first two games before a cloudburst called a halt.

Hall began Canada's Davis Cup campaign in impressive style, taking the initial game on Morales' service. The Cuban's superior strategy, however, asserted itself after that and the set was over in 12 minutes.

Using plenty of spin and employing his drop-shot to good effect, Hall started a rally in the third game of the second set, which he won after losing the previous two. A shower interrupted the play and Hall appeared refreshed when he returned to the court.

Morales was in touch for the remainder of the match and played a fine, accurate game. Behind at 1-5, Hall took the seventh game, but lost the eighth after taking Morales to deuce once.

Hall showed plenty of fight in the third set. He stubbornly smashed back Morales' placements. The first game was deuced five times before the young Canadian finally made it his. Weary, he lost the second game, but with a burst of vigorous hitting took the third game at love.

At this juncture, Morales stiffened and took the next five games in succession, allowing Hall only six points and ending the match.

Tomorrow, Tarshis and Aguero will play out their singles match, after which Bill Pedlar and Bill Pearson will take on the Cuban doubles team of Morales and Lorenzo Nodarse.

Semi-finals To Be Staged This Afternoon

The Charlottetown Tennis Club championships which have been held up owing to the Confederation celebration will be resumed at 3 o'clock this afternoon when Bill Moreside and Fraser MacMillan will meet in the semi-final match for the club singles championship. Fulton Pierce meets Don MacMillan in the other semi-final bracket.

All four players have been playing consistent tennis during the tournament and close exciting matches are expected. Finals will be played the first of next week.

Johnstown Ready For Arlington

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 21—Johnstown, winner of five of the six major stakes for three-year-olds this year, goes back to work tomorrow in the $50,000 Arlington Classic.

He had no trouble in defeating his rivals in the Kentucky Derby, the Wood Memorial, Belmont, Withers and Dwyer stakes. If victorious tomorrow, the big son of Jamestown, beaten only in the muddy Preakness, will be crowned king of the three-year-olds for 1939.

The race at 1¼ miles will have a gross value of $50,100 with $37,275 going to the winning owner.

142 Entries For Canadian Golf Ch'ships; Maritime Players Start On Tuesday

MONTREAL, July 21 —(CP)—A star-studded field of 142 entrants, including defending champion Ted Adams of Chillicothe, Mo., was paired off today as the Royal Canadian Golf Association announced the draw for the Canadian Amateur golf championship starting next week over Mount Bruno golf course.

From four countries—England, India, the United States and Canada—came the entries to make up one of the most formidable casts in the history of the tourney. England and India presented an entry each, 16 came from the United States while Canada supplied 124.

Fourteen preliminary matches will be played Monday over the par-70 Mount Bruno course, a few miles outside Montreal, and competitors will swing into the first regular round Tuesday Most of the "name" players gain respite until Tuesday in the tourney which will be run by match play all the way through.

Adams, the soft-spoken youngster who won the title last year at London, Ont., by defeating C. Ross (Sandy) Somerville of London in the final, meets tough opposition in his first match. The draw pitted him against Herb Pickard of Winnipeg, a member of the Manitoba Willingdon Cup team, in a Tuesday match.

In comparison, the veteran Somerville runs into lesser-known opposition. The London shotmaker, seeking his seventh Dominion amateur title, meets Joe Atkinson of Montreal in another Tuesday scrap.

However, all the favorites do not wait till Tuesday to get underway. On Monday, Fred Haas of New Orleans, a former titleholder, meets Dr. Dudley E. Ross of Montreal while Ed Meister, Jr., of Cleveland stacks up against Jack Cameron of Montreal. England's representative, John Langley of London, is pitted the same day against Ray Getliffe of London, Ont., a professional hockeyist with Boston Bruins in the National League last year but sold recently to Montreal Canadiens.

Kelly Versus Ellis

MONTREAL, July 21 —(CP)—Twelve Maritime golfers, led by Pete Kelly of Charlottetown, were included today in the draw for the Canadian amateur golf championship which starts with preliminary matches Monday. All the easterners, however, begin Tuesday morning.

Kelly is drawn against R. A. Ellis of Montreal and is expected to take the first match easily. Jack Harris of Halifax takes on M. R. Dixon of London, Ont., while his fellow Haligonian, R. Babcock, meets Jack Fraser of Vancouver, a member of the British Columbia Willingdon cup team.

A member of the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island team, Maurice Dowling of Charlottetown plays J. H. Hoffman of Wollaston, Me., and David Doig, Jr., of Halifax compete against Bert Barnabe of Ottawa.

From Digby, A. Foshay meets Morton McCarthy of Springfield, Mass., and David Caughey of St. Andrews, N. B., plays W. E. R. McAllister of Northfield, Vt.

Play In Provincial Golf Ch'ships Opens Today

With eyes set on the Provincial golf championships a record number of golfers are expected to start out in the first stage of the annual match this afternoon. Firing will be commenced on two fronts with the ladies competing at the Belvedere Golf Links and the men firing over the rolling course of the Summerside Golf Club.

Much interest always attaches to this event but this year the largest entry list ever to start are expected to ready to tee off at the appointed starting times. Defending champions in both divisions can expect stiff battles as all are given an even chance of coming through with the titles.

In the men's division the players are divided into three groups according to their handicaps and while all are eligible to compete for the championship, additional prizes will be awarded for the best net and the best gross score in each division.

Lieut.-Col. F. B. Conrad of Belvedere won the prize for the best gross score and the prize for the best net score at the official opening of the Green Gables Golf Course at Cavendish on Wednesday of this week. J. LeRoy Holman of Summerside was runner-up in each case.

Miss Marion Morris of Charlottetown took the honors in the ladies' division.

As there is a shortage of caddies all boys desirous of caddying in the tournament are asked to report to the golf pro at the Belvedere Club today at 1 o'clock sharp.
