445 Candidates Lost Deposits

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Election candidates who failed to poll at least half as many votes as the winners in their ridings Monday contributed $89,000 to the treasury of Canada.

A Canadian Press compilation of election returns indicated 445 candidates lost the $300 deposits they made when they filed nomination papers. They represented about 43 per cent of the country's total of 1,012 candidates—roughly the same proportion as in 1958.

The record was 462 candidates in 1945 in a field of 952 entrants.

The compilation showed that 171 Social Credit candidates—68 in Ontario—lost deposits. The New Democratic Party had 159 deposit-losers, 54 in Ontario.

Thirty - seven Conservatives, a large number of them incumbent Quebec MPs, lost their money. Liberal deposit - losers numbered 40.

The forfeitures also were made by 12 Communist candidates, 11 Independents, seven Independent - Liberals, three Independent - Conservatives, and a sprinkling of aspirants running under unusual labels.

Following is a breakdown of the deposit - losers by provinces and parties:

Red Ambassador Explains Note

TORONTO (CP) — Amasasp Aroutunian, Soviet ambassador to Canada, says the note sent to Canada last week urging her to stayout of the nuclear club, was not an attempt to meddle in the federal election.

"It was just an attempt to let Canadians know the Soviet attitude towards Canada accepting nuclear weapons," he said.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker rejected the note as uncalled-for interference in Canadian affairs.

Mr. Aroutunian was in Toronto to attend a reception for 15 Russians on a two-week cultural tour of Canada and the United States.

EARLY SUNDAY PARTY BLASTED

BATH, England (CP)—The Lord's Day Observance Society says an early-Sunday party at the home of Canadian-born Sir Ted Leether is "typical of the spiritual sickness that is attacking both church and state in Britain."

The party was attended by Princess Margaret and her husband, the Earl of Snowdon.

Another guest of the Toronto-born, Hamilton - raised Conservative MP was Rev. Edward Henderson, bishop of Bath and Wells. The bishop tapped out rhythms on the tom-tom at one point during a jazz session with British entertainers Johnny Dankworth and Chris Barber.

"We are disgusted at a member of the Royal Family and a member of the Bench of Bishops spending the Lords Day in this fashion," the society spokesman said.

"They should have set a better example."

Sir Ted, who was knighted by Queen Elizabeth at Windsor Castle Monday, called the society's attitude "pretty silly."

"It was just a small private party where we got together and played a bit of Jazz," he said.

At a later party Sunday, Princess Margaret is reported to have danced the twist.

No Plans Appear For Douglas Seat

OTTAWA (CP) —Murdo Martin, re-elected Monday as new Democratic Party MP for Timmins, said Wednesday there "has been no discussion whatsoever" about him resigning his seat to let NDP leader T. C. Douglas run there in a byelection.

In a telephone interview from his home in Timmins, the 45-year-old fireman said he does not plan to offer the seat to Mr. Douglas, who was defeated in Regina riding.

Mr. Douglas himself has said that he has no arrangements at the moment for seeking another seat.

"Personally, I don't think Tommy should try for one of our present seats," Mr. Martin said. "There could be another election in a year or so and we have no assurance that the Prime Minister would call a by-election even if one of us did step aside."

He said Mr. Douglas could do a much more effective job "barnstorming the country to get ready for the next election." The NDP chief could organize a better campaign by not being tied down in the Commons.

Mr. Martin has represented Timmins riding since 1957 when he took it from the Liberals.

Marine Gangsters Said At Lakes

OTTAWA (CP) - The federal government was urged again Wednesday to launch a judicial enquiry into "gangsterism and organized criminal activity" among marine workers on the Great Lakes.

The request was made by Vice - President Eriov Robson of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway, Transport and General Workers (CLC) in telegrams sent Wednesday to Prime Minister Diefenbaker, Labor Minister Starr and Immigration Minister Fairclough.

Mr. Robson made the appeal for federal action after a union officer at St. Catharines, Ont., was beaten up by two unknown assailants outside his home Tuesday night.

The officer, John McNamara, president of the Welland Canal Employees Local of the Canadian Brotherhood, was to have presided Wednesday over a meeting of canal workers, called to discuss ways of supporting the Canadian Maritime Union (CLC) in its bitter battle against the Independent Seafarers International Union of Canada.

In mid-May, the Canadian Labor Congress asked for an immediate investigation of the inter-union war being fought on the lakes.

Paper Reports Senator Picked

WINNIPEG (CP)—The Free Press says Campbell Haig, son of Senator John T. Haig, has been chosen by Prime Minister Diefenbaker to fill the Senate vacancy left by his father who retired earlier this year.

The newspaper says senior Conservative sources confirmed reports that the Winnipeg lawyer has been chosen to serve as the sixth Manitoba representative in the Upper House.

The Free Press says other party sources said that the appointment will not be announced for several days.

The younger Mr Haig is a member of the board of directors of Trans - Canada Airlines and former national president of the Canadian Council for Crippled Children and Adults.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
4♥	Pass	Pass	Dble.
Pass	5♦	Dble

Opening lead—three of hearts.

This hand occurred in a team of four match. It demonstrates the advantage that is sometimes gained by preemptive bidding.

At the first table, East opened with four hearts. South assed, somewhat conservatively, and North doubled. South, convinced that his side has a game and possibly a slam, bid five diamonds, was doubled by West, and was defeated one trick — 200 points.

It can be seen that South was twice put on the spot by his preemptive bid. He had to guess each time what to do, and, not unusually when a preemptive bid takes place, came up with the wrong answer. Among other things he could have passed four hearts doubled and collected 500 points for a three-trick set.

Contrast this result with what happened at the second table. There the bidding went:

East	South	West	North
1♥	2♦	Pass	2♠
3♥	4♦	Pass	5♣
Pass	6♦	Dble.

East's low level heart bid gave the opposition plenty of time to get together. South made the normal overcall of two diamonds and North bid two spades. Belatedly, East revealed his heat length by rebigging the suit, but South was by now hot on the trail of a slam.

The hour heart cuebid induced North, holding three aces, to co-operate with the slam try by showing the ace of clubs. This was just what the doctor ordered, as far as South was concerned, and he contracted for six spades.

The king of clubs was opened, but North had no trouble making the slam. He won the club with the ace, drew two rounds of trumps, cashed the A-K-Q of diamonds, discarding two clubs from his hand, and then ruffed a diamond to establish the suit. All he lost was a spade trick.

So North scored 1,660 points for making the doubled contract, which, with his teammate's plus 200, gave them a net gain on the deal of 1,860 points. Apparently, it pays to preempt!
