The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 NT	Pass	3 NT	Pass

Opening lead — three of hearts

The ideal opening notrump bid requires 16 to 18 points, notrump distribution, and stoppers in all suits.

Sometimes all three requirements are not met. Such notrump bids are said to have a defect. Stoppers may exist in only three suits. When this happens, it is generally best to open with one of a suit.

However, to complicate matters further, it may also happen that there is no biddable suit to turn to. When this coincidence occurs, the opener may have to choose among several imperfect bids.

South's selection of the notrump bid is best. Rather than bid the moth-eaten four - card heart suit, which might also deceive partner, he chose the more enlightening notrump bid despite the absence of club strength.

He fell into a barrelful of club strength in North's hand, as matters turned out. A heart was led and the queen and ten were ducked. West overtook with the jack and returned the nine of hearts to force the ace. East discarding a spade.

South could count eight sure tricks. The ninth could come from the club suit, if the adverse clubs were divided 3-3, or by means of a diamond finesse.

South first tested the clubs, only to discover East had started with four. West discarded a diamond on the third club. It thus became known West's hand originally contained four hearts and two clubs.

Rather than bank his hopes on the diamond finesse, which would have cost him the contract, South decided instead to place his faith in an endplay that was practically sure to succeed.

The ace, king and queen of spades were cashed in succession. When everybody followed there was no doubt as to the outcome. West had now been proved to have started with exactly three spades. He therefore must have been dealt four diamonds originally since nine of his cards in the other three suits had been fully accounted for.

The eight of hearts was now led. West took his king and had to lead a diamond into South's A-Q.

Sanity Hearing Granted Slayer

WISCONSIN RAPIDS, Wis. (AP)—Judge Herbert A. Bunde has set Jan. 6 for a formal sanity hearing for admitted ghoul-slayer Edward Gein.

Judge Bunde will decide at that time whether to commit Gein to the Central State Hospital for the criminal insane for the duration of his mental illness or order him to stand trial on murder charges.

Gein, 51 - year - old handyman, has admitted slaying two women, looting the graves of a dozen other women and preserving parts of their bodies in his secluded Waushara County farmhouse. He has been under observation at the Central State Hospital since his arraignment Nov. 21.

On Monday, Judge Bunde disclosed that the state hospital had reported to him that Gein was not competent to stand trial. The experts said Gein was not fully capable of realizing the consequences of any act or to act in his own behalf in consultation with his lawyer.

Under the law, however, the court must hold a formal sanity hearing.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to crack it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation
