BUDDING ARTISTS

Morgan, a 2-year-old chimp from the Franklin Park Zoo, Boston, Mass., took time out from his stint as a model to offer a few opinions on the handiwork of 6-year-old Jeff Lyons. Children at the Children's Art Center were creating likenesses of their live models using such products as knockwurst, carrots, olives and toothpicks. Judging from his expression, Morgan apparently liked the creation. (AP Wirephoto)

DAILY MARKET QUOTATIONS

SUMMARY

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Toronto: Market mixed, trading moderate.

Montreal: Market lower, trading moderate.

New York: Market higher, trading active.

CURRENCIES

MONTREAL (CP) — U.S. dollar in terms of Canadian funds up 1-32 at $1.07 11-16.

Pound sterling unchanged at $3.01 13-16.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market took its sharpest loss in two weeks Tuesday as early strength by rails and aeropace issues failed to inspire the overall list. Trading was active.

Volume was 8,760,000 shares compared with 8,360,000 Monday.

The Dow Jones industrial average declined 6.12 to 981.57.

Some wall streeters said the stock market community is getting worried over a possible increase in margin requirements from the present 70 per cent. This would be a further government step against inflation, a raising of the "down payment" required to purchase stocks.

Another factor was the drop in new car sales for the big three, auto companies in mid-February from a year ago despite record deliveries by Ford and Chrysler. This was because General Motors sales compared the latest period with one of heavy post-strike demand a year ago.

AP AVERAGE DOWN 1.3

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 1.3 to 366.8.

Of 1,416 issues traded, 741 fell and 451 rose. Highs for 1965-66 totalled 106, lows 47.

Standard and Poor's 500-stock index lost .48 at 93.17.

Eleven of the 15 most active stocks fell and four rose.

Control data was the most active stock, down 1 at 31½ on 169,500 shares.

Boeing, down 2⅛ at 161½, was buffeted by reports from Washington concerning the possible grounding of the Boeing 727 plane which has had four fatal accidents in the last seven months. Boeing was sixth most active, sinking from a high of 167⅝ to a low of 160.

GRUMMAN UP 2¼

Another aerospace stock, Grumman, rose 2¼ to 59¾ as third most active stock on a report from Washington it had been awarded a $1,100,000,000 contract to complete its work on the Apollo lunar - landing program.

Among Canadian issues, Granby Mining gained 1, Canadian Pacific ½, Hudson Bay Mining ⅜, International Nickel ¼, Distillers Seagrams ⅛. Aluminium Ltd. and McIntyre Porcupine lost ½, Dome mines ¼.

Prices declined on the American exchange. Volume was 4,060,000 shares compared with 4,080,000 Monday.

Among Canadian issues, Fargo Oil gained ⅛. Scurry Rainbow Oil closed down ½, Brazilian Traction ¼, Canadian Javelin ⅛, Molybdenite 1-16.
