

She Coughed Night and Day Could Not Sleep

Mrs. Leonard Hayward, Victoria, B.C., writes: "Last fall I had an awful cold which I caught while driving in an open car on a cold day. I coughed night and day, could not sleep at night, and my eyes ran so that I could hardly see a thing. My husband got me a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup before I had taken the whole of my cold had disappeared. 'Dr. Wood's' has been on the market for the past 39 years; price, a bottle, large family size 60c.; it is up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENT.—Rev. H. B. Kilgour of Toronto, Sec. of the "All Canada Movement" of the Churches of Christ in Canada, will speak in the Church of Christ at Bradabate, Sunday 29th.

STARTING ON TIME.—Many favorable comments are being heard throughout the city, by theatre goers and lovers of myth and music in general, with regard to the punctuality of those in charge of Burns' Concert. Even those who arrived at the proverbial "five or ten minutes grace," although missing part of the first scene, were naturally surprised, but heard to remark, "go, but don't those people start on time! Eight o'clock sharp was the advertised time of starting, and at exactly eight o'clock the curtain rose. Starting on time not only reflects great credit on any entertainment, but tends to educate the audience to be punctual as well.

CROSS ROADS. LOT 40. NOTES.—The young people of Cross Roads are certainly having a most wonderful time skating; it takes the Cross Roads boys for sport. Preston Wood was a recent visitor to Powell and reports things booming in that locality. Parker Wood visited friends at Brackley quite recently, and reports good roads. Karl and Earle Balderson have been recent visitors to Charlottetown. Mrs. M. W. Wood entertained quite a number of her friends at a goose supper some few evenings ago. Mrs. Jane Ballen was visiting Hazel Brook last week, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Lawson Wood. Miss May Prowse, Miss Sellick and Miss Lilla Wood spent the week-end the guest of Miss Myra Wood. Mr. and Mrs. Earle Ballen have been recent visitors to Alexandra. The many friends of Mrs. Jimmie McPhee will be glad to know she is again restored to her usual good health.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, Jan. 18th, 1928, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Crosby, Cornwall, when their daughter, Marie Helena, was united in marriage to Mr. John Gordon MacLean of Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. E. Aitken, B.A., of Cornwall. The bride wore a gown of ivory crepe-de-chene and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Persis Crosby, who was dressed in pink chiffon taffeta and carried pink carnations. The wedding march was played by Miss Bessie MacLean of North Wiltshire, sister of the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a platinum and diamond brooch, to the bridesmaid and accompanist silver compact, and to the best man a diamond scarf pin. Mr. and Mrs. MacLean left Charlottetown Thursday morning on a trip to Montreal, New York and Boston. On their return they will live at 55 Upper Prince Street, where they will be at home to their friends after the Rev. Mr. Gabriel said a few words of praise and encouragement to the members and closed the meeting with prayer and the Benediction.

Sage Tea Dandy to Darken Hair

By DOROTHY LANG
You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. It costs only 75 cents. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful. This is the age of you. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance.

CONCERT IN AFTON HALL.
Despite the inclemency of the weather and the poor condition of the roads, quite a large number of people assembled at Afton Hall on the evening of Dec. 21, for the purpose of hearing the Christmas concert staged thereby the school children and young people of Rice Point and Nine Mile Creek. The hall was very artistically decorated for the occasion in the season's colors of red and green. Mr. Samuel McNeill acted as chairman in a very capable manner, while an unusually well-rendered program was carried out. The excellent order which prevailed throughout the evening, was ample proof that the audience was most favorably impressed with each number, and many comments on the excellency of the program were heard from during the time among those present. During the program there was a sale of Christmas Plots, by 6 pupils of Rice Point from which a considerable sum was realized. At the close of the program the single of sleigh bells was heard and song Santa Claus appeared on the scene. From the beautiful and heavily-laden Christmas tree which occupied a prominent place in the hall, he distributed many pleasing gifts to the pupils and teachers of both schools. The sentiments of all present were expressed by the chairman, who declared that much credit was due all the young folks, who participated in this concert, particularly to the Misses Margaret Smallwood and Marguerite Currie, teachers of Rice Point, and Nine Mile Creek schools, under whose management the concert was so successfully staged. Following is the program: Welcome recitation by Thelma Taylor; chorus, Kiss Kringle, by the pupils; recitation, "Changed to time among those present, During Times," by Jimmie Taylor; dialogue, an intermission there was a sale of Christmas Plots, by 6 pupils of Rice Point from which a considerable sum was realized. Harlow and Marjorie Taylor; recitation, A Puzzle in Names, by Pearl Campbell; motion song, We're Just as Happy, by 16 pupils; recitation, A Christmas Birthday, by Jean McEachern; recitation, Christmas Is, by 3 girls; recitation, No Stockings to Wear, by Roy Campbell; mouth-organ selections, by Lee Taylor (encored); recitation, A Shoe or Stocking, by Milton McLaine; dialogue, Mind Your Own Business, by five girls and four boys. Intermission and sale of candy. A "Star" drill by ten girls; recitation, Just Before Christmas, by Billy Taylor; recitation, Dolly, by Jean Taylor; dialogue, A Rose and a Thorn, by four pupils of Nine Mile Creek school; recitation, My Speech, by Alfred McDougall; step-dancing, by Malcolm McEachern (encored); chorus, If You Can't Make An Love, by eight "darkies" (encored); motion song, Hush-a-Bye, by eight little girls; closing chorus, Christmas Bells, by the young people. Special mention may be made of numbers fifteen and twenty-two. Number fifteen consisted of an elaborate drill, the music for which was furnished by Miss Bessie McEwen, two songs, "Star of the East" and "Merry Christmas," and two recitations. The ten young ladies, each dressed all in white and carrying a brilliant star, executed the drill in a very pleasing manner. Number twenty-two provoked a great deal of laughter among the hearers. The encore was responded to by a "sheep dance," by two of the "darkies." The singing of the National Anthem brought a very enjoyable evening to a close. Thriftiest Man Dead (British United Press) LONDON, Jan. 25.—The world's greatest act of economy is recalled by the death of Withnell, a village on the moorland road between Bolton and Preston, of Henry Hoyle, aged eighty. Mr. Hoyle qualified for the title of "England's thriftiest man" a few years ago. He had been for a long walk to the Blackburn side of the village, two stations away and had bought two ounces of cheese. He ate half of it, and decided to treat himself to a train ride home. He accidentally dropped the rest of the cheese between the train and the platform. When he arrived at his home station he asked the officials to telephone for the cheese to be sent along! It was retrieved, placed in an envelope, sealed and despatched by the next passenger train. The careful man met the train and received his precious morsel! It weighed less than an ounce.
