CANADA'S PLACE IN THE EMPIRE

Canada is the foremost of the family of the British Empire, and, being nearest the great responsibility rests upon her, not alone to aid and succor in battle, but to lead the van in all forms of industrial life; to seize every opportunity to forward the grandeur and stability both of herself and of the Empire.—The Agricultural Gazette for January 1920.

HOCKEY

A fast game of hockey took place at the Arena Saturday night, between teams representing the C. B. C. and the U. C. C. The first half was very close and ended 3-3. The second opened into a decidedly lively game marked by more rough work than was necessary on the part of one or two players. The score at the finish was 7-3 in favor of the C. B. C. Mr. M. Diamond refereed and George Craig was judge of play. The rushes by Cronin, Crawford and Wonnocatt, for the C. B. C. and Acorn, McNevin and Blanchard for the U. C. C. were features, while T. Dewar as a promenade decorator was there with the goods, nearly all the time.

Table with hockey scores: U. C. C. vs C. B. C., Wheel vs Curtis, Acorn vs Wonnocatt, McNevin vs Point, Crawford vs Manderson, Hale, Blanchard vs L. W., Phillips, Dewar vs R. W., Cronin, Centre.
