NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—A promising late rally by steels won only passing support from key issues and the stock market ended Wednesday's session with a dubious statistical gain.

Steels, their best gains clipped by late profit-taking, remained ahead. Rails also were higher but most motors took small losses.

Sugars encountered some additional profit-taking on their recent upsurge and declined, despite rising prices in the sugar commodity market.

In the over-all stock market, more issues advanced than declined. The popular averages, however, gave a somewhat conflicting verdict.

The Dow industrials, which had been up 1.85 at 11 a.m., ended the day at 722.84, a net loss of 1.20.

Standard and Poor's 500-stock index closed unchanged at 70.14.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose .4 to another historic high of 274.9.

Steel industry leaders, gathered in New York City, spoke of increasing production and consumption of steel. These statements accompanied a vigorous spurt by the leading steel shares, but the rally simmered down as a number of blue chips eased.

Volume was 5,540,000 shares compared with 5,570,000 Tuesday.

The volume leader was U.S.X Smelting, down 4 at 65 on 97,000 shares.

U.S. Smelting sank following news that insurgents had won control of the board as a result of a proxy fight.

American Sugar, off 1½, was the most active in its group.

Dome Mines and Walker-Gooderham were ¾ lower among Canadian stocks. International Nickel was off ¼. Distillers Seagrams and Canadian Pacific were fractional gainers.

American Stock Exchange prices were irregular. Sargry Rainbow Oil finished ⅜ higher. Preston Mines gained ¼ and Brazilian Traction ⅛. Shawinigan dropped ⅜.
