On August 18, 1964 death removed from the community of Parkdale, Donald Stirling MacKinnon, who although a comparatively new member of the district had become known to a wide circle of friends.

Born at Desable on July 27, 1906, he early moved with his parents to North River where he resided on the family homestead until seven years ago. Possessed with a quiet disposition, he was always ready to lend his talents to any worthwhile community cause. His home was a centre of hospitality to a large number of people who found in him a gracious host.

Following a period of indifferent health he sold his farm in North River and after a years residence in Hamilton Ontario, returned to Prince Edward where he took up residence at 1 Second Street in Parkdale.

He was a faithful member of the Orange order and was a past master of Boyne L.O.L. in Charlottetown. He was a member of the committee of Stewards of Park Royal United Church and an ardent member of the Church AOTS Men's club.

His fatal illness struck early in March and following a period of hospitalization in Halifax he returned home only to be confined to hospital here.

During his illness he was visited by his pastor, Rev. Henry Tye, also by Rev. Isaac Walls and Rev. John Ball, all of whom brought comfort and solace both to the sick and his dear ones.

Mr. MacKinnon was twice married. His first wife, Clara Masters predeceased him in 1942. Surviving are his widow, the former Dorothy Weatherbie, a son George from the first marriage and two daughters, Sandra and Jean from the second marriage. Also two grandsons Richard and Jeffrey in Hamilton.

Surviving brothers and sisters are Everett, Hamilton, Ont. Ray, Peabody, Mass.; Allison, Charlottetown; Priscilla (Mrs. Carl Eseke), Spokane and Annabelle (Mrs. Dr. Norman Betzner) Moose Jaw, Sask.

Funeral services were held on August 20 from Park Royal United Church. Rev. Henry Tye brought words of hope and solace to the family and a large congregation present for the occasion. He was assisted by Rev. Isaac Walls of Cornwall who also took part in the committal service at Cornwall cemetery. During the funeral service, Mr. Harley Ings sang the solo, "Does Jesus Care".

Pall bearers were Fred Jewell, George MacMillan, Aubrey MacPhail, Eddie Yeo, Leslie MacKay and Jack MacPhail.

Canadian Firm Disappointed Over U.S. Ruling On Tariff

VANCOUVER (CP) — G. H. D. Hobbs, president of Western Canada Steel Limited, said here his firm is disappointed by a ruling of the United States tariff commission his company has been harming American companies by selling certain types of steel at less than fair value.

However, Mr. Hobbs said his company is not directly concerned with the ruling because the company itself does not ship steel to the United States.

He said all company steel sold in the United States is purchased from the company in Vancouver by a distributor and the distributor is responsible for United Staies sales.

Mr. Hobbs said the Aitkins Kroll Company of San Francisco was the distributor for his company's steel sold in the U.S.

When the U.S. tariff commission study of his firm's products began, the company diverted its steel to other markets and was able to continue at full production.

The tariff commission report, approved in Washington by a three-to-two decision, has gone to the treasury department where the difference will be calculated between the Western Canada's price and what is regarded as a fair-value price.

The difference will be applied as a higher duty on the Canadian steel imported in a certain period dating from the time the Canadian company was given notice that it was being examined.

Mr. Hobbs is also head of Vancouver Rolling Mills Limited, a subsidiary of Western Canada. Vancouver Rolling Mills was also mentioned in the U.S tariff commission ruling.

The decision covered carbon steel bars, bar shapes under three inches and structural shapes of three inches or more.

The treasury department estimated that $824,000 worth of the steel has been imported in a recent three - month period. However, Tariff Commission Secretary Donn N. Bent said the back duty might not cover that much depending on just what period was involved.

WASHINGTON (CP) — The United States tariff commission ruled in a majority decision a Canadian firm has been harming American companies by selling certain types of steel at less than fair value.

Fluoridation of water supplies is in effect in 29 countries, and soon will be in several more.

$250,000 SMILE

New York City fireman Richard Gregory Shaw, 34, learned he is the heir to $25,000 when he read the story in the issue of the New York Daily News he is holding. The money was left to Shaw by Bushnell Dimond, a New York writer who died June 6. Shaw, who is married and has two children last saw Dimond in 1951. An attorney had been trying to locate Shaw and the Daily News ran a story Thursday in the form of an open letter to him. (AP Wirephoto)
