Soviet Trawler Has Near Brush With N.S. Vessel

CLARK'S HARBOR, N.S. (CP)—The skipper of a Nova Scotia fishing vessel said here a Russian trawler came so close to his boat he warned his crew to be prepared for a ramming attempt.

Capt. Herbert Penny of the longliner Sky King said the Soviet trawler "came right up to us" on fishing grounds off the Nova Scotia south coast last week. The Russian ship ran through dragging gear trailing behind the Sky King and damaged it, Capt. Penny said.

"He came within 100 yards of us," Capt. Penny said in an interview Wednesday. "Then he hauled across our stern. I told our fellows to watch him—he might come right into us."

DRAMATIC RESCUE OFF B.C. COAST

This was the scene in the Gulf of Georgia near Vancouver just after a rescue lifeboat from the ferry Princess of Vancouver took two men and a women off a sinking fishboat. The fishboat, the Georgia, was swamped by high seas and can be seen going down. The three clung to the singing boat for 1 1-2 hours before being picked up. A dog was lost in the sinking.
