REMANDED FOR SENTENCE— Michael Drain and Wilfred Bradley, both of Charlottetown were found guilty Saturday of theft of a cash register from a Chinese Restaurant on Queen Street when they appeared before His Honour Judge C. Gavan Duffy in criminal court. The men were remanded until Friday of this week for sentence. They were committed to Supreme Court for trial by Stipendiary Magistrate K. M. Martin when charges were laid last winter. Last week they asked the Speedy Trials Act. Evidence intimated the two men had been in the Union Cafe in an intoxicated condition and had refused to leave. The proprietor went out of the shop to telephone for the police and a girl clerk, afraid of the two men went into the rear of the restaurant. When the proprietor returned he found the two men gone and later noticed the small cash register missing. Shortly after it was found rifled not far away. Six witnesses, including Constable Lawrence McInnis of the City Police force gave evidence Saturday. Mr. J. O. C. Campbell appeared for the prisoners while assistant Crown prosecutor F. A. Large represented the Crown.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Whitlock popular newlyweds were tendered a miscellaneous shower on Friday evening, June 23rd at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. William Champion, Kensington. The popularity of the young couple was truly evinced by the many good wishes and beautiful presents they received from both old and young who attended, as well as the large number who were unable to be present at the happy gathering. Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock were sedately escorted to the place of honour in a room which was attractively decorated in yellow and white for the special occasion, by Miss Carrie Woodside. Mrs. Ray Hamilton, assisted by Miss Ruby Moase opened the many presents and Miss Lucy Brown read the accompanying verses, she in turn passing them on to Mrs. Elmer Bernard who presented them to the bride and groom. After the opening of the presents all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Mr. Whitlock then in his most capable manner, on behalf of himself and bride, in a few well chosen words thanked them most graciously for their thoughtfulness and many beautiful gifts. After an evening of music and singing by the happy throng a dainty lunch was served and enjoyed by all. Mr. Roscoe Walker then on behalf of those gathered, sincerely wished the happy couple many years of happy wedded life, and then thanked the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. William Champion for their help and support in making the shower such a wonderful success. The happy evening was then brought to a close with the singing of "Good Night Ladies", and "God Save the King." —H.

INVITED TO VISIT KING— While Major D. A. MacDonald of Charlottetown, who is about completing his contract on the Radio Beam Station at Fredericton Junction, N. B., was in Sussex on the 13th, lined up with other war veterans to greet Their Majesties, he was spoken to by the King, who chatted with him a little while. When in the course of the conversation His Majesty discovered that once during the Great War Major MacDonald had dined with King George V., he called the Queen and introduced her. Their Majesties' last word to the Major was an invitation to come and see them the next time he should be in the Mother Country.

BURGLARS ENTER STORE— Lawlor's Store on the corner of Great George and Sydney streets was entered by burglars Saturday night or early Sunday morning and a small quantity of goods taken. Principal loot was said to be cigarettes. Value of the goods taken including some cash was said to be $13.00. Entrance was gained through a cellar hatch in a vacant house adjoining, police said. Saturday morning the store of Joseph Shama on the corner of Hillsboro and Euston Streets was reported burglarized and goods valued at $35.00 taken. Here, also, cigarettes formed major portion of the loot. Some coppers in the till were taken. Entry was gained through a hatchway in the rear of the building leading to the cellar. The hatch was left unlocked.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC— The annual picnic of St. James Church Sunday School was held Saturday afternoon at the summer cottage of Mr. J. R. Burnett on "Balgownie" the farm of Mr. Robert Rhynes, Dunstaffange. Parents teachers and friends including the Minister, the Rev. R. Moorhead Legate, joined with the children in making the event one of the most successful in years. Bathing, softball and racing constituted a program which completed a day all too short for the picnickers. Toward evening supper was served by ladies of the church. Ice cream and cake topped off the refreshments. At the close of the day prizes to successful competitors were presented by Mr. Ian A. Burnett, Sunday School Superintendent. The children are indebted to Mr. Frank Clarke for transportation.

The Oddfellows of this province had a gala night at the regular meeting of Wildey Lodge No. 27, I. O. O. F., held in this city on Friday evening last. There was a large attendance composed of a delegation of visitors from Summerside and Montague, together with a goodly number of local members who took part in the interesting services in connection with the work of the Order.

In addition to regular business of the lodge, Bro. A. O. F. Gill, Grand Master of the jurisdiction in which the lodge is situated, presented a forty five year jewel to Bro. James T. MacKee on behalf of Eastern Star Lodge No. one of Pictou, N. S., and offered some appropriate remarks on this auspicious occasion. Bro. MacKee made a suitable reply, and expressed his thanks for this high tribute from the members of the Order.

200 CHICKENS BURNED—City firemen answered three calls Saturday, the first two for slight fires but the third, about 10 o'clock at night destroyed a small barn, 200 small chickens and a dog, all owned by Mr. Harry Redmond, 215 Sydney Street. In addition the rear of his dwelling was considerably damaged as well as a portion of a private garage owned by Mr. Neil Robinson, Richmond Street adjoining the blazing barn. Fire had made great headway when discovered and nothing could be done to save the barn which was levelled to the ground. The fire was believed to have originated in a brooder used to keep the baby chicks warm. Damage was unofficially estimated at several hundred dollars. First call for firemen Saturday got many of them out of bed at 4.45 a.m. when a acetylene torch in Horne's Garage set fire to a gasoline tank of a truck. Damage was slight. The second call was at 9.30 Saturday morning for a slight blaze at Mill's Meat Market on Hillsboro Street. Damage here, too, was slight.

The newly ordained priest, Reverend Edward Baldwin, C. Ss R. celebrated his first Solemn High Mass in St. Teresa's Church on Sunday, June 25th. He was attended by Rev. L. Howard, C. Ss. R. Holy Redeemer Church, Charlottetown as deacon and by Rev. Raymond MacKenzie, St. Dunstan's College as sub-deacon. The pastor, Rev. Basil Croken was Master of Ceremonies.

A very able sermon apropriate to the occasion was preached by Father Howard, C. Ss. R. In his discourse he eloquently impressed upon the congregation why the day was a day of joy. He congratulated the young priest for co-operating with God's grace and accepting a life of service in the Lord's Vineyard. He also congratulated his parents, the pastor and the people of the parish in giving the new priest to the church.

Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson preached his farewell sermons on Sunday to his congregations at North Bedeque and Freetown. The churches were filled to the doors at both services and expressions of regret were heard on every side at the departure of their beloved pastor.

On Sunday morning the United Church at Bedeque joined the North Bedeque congregation in a joint communion service when 270 members took communion. Rev. Mr. Nicholson presided at this service, the elders of both churches assisting him with the communion.

Rev. Ralph Barker of the Bedeque United Church was present. His father, Mr. Barker of Fredericton, N. B., an old friend of Rev. J. W. A. Nicholson, sang a special number in his honour; he was acompanied on the organ by his son.

NICHOLSON MEMORIAL PROPOSED—The following item which speaks for itself has been received from George M. Nicholson, formerly of Charlottetown, but now residing at five Sherbrooke Place, Lynn, Mass. A memorial is to be erected on the site of Scorrybreck House, Isle of Skye, Scotland; home of the Nicholson Chief and headquarters of the clan for over eight centuries. Any Nicolson or Nicholson, according to the spelling of the name, descendants of the Skye Nicolsons by birth or marriage, if interested can help by sending donations, no matter how small, to Dr. Ian Nicholson, 74 Trinity Road, Edinburgh 5, Scotland. Doctor Nicholson served in the medical department as surgeon, in the battleship fleet of the British Navy during the World War. At present he is Assistant Professor of Anatomy at the University of Edinburgh, and is cataloguing and re-arranging the University anatomical museum. It is hoped all members of the clan will rally to the support of the memorial, as our ancestors rallied to the support of the clan in the historical past.

"If we would eliminate waste in the poultry industry we could pay the producer more and at the same time charge the consumer less per pound of food value than we are doing today," Mr. John I. Brown, Ottawa, Chairman of the Egg and Poultry section of the Canadian Produce Association declared at a meeting of provincial poultrymen in the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday. Profit by past mistakes, the speaker advised, and went on to stress the possibilities in proper development of the poultry industry. In the drouth areas in western Canada, over which he travelled, he had not found one family on relief where fifty laying hens were to be found on the farm.

Mr. Brown was introduced by Mr. W. R. Shaw, deputy minister of agriculture for the Province. At the speakers' table were Hon. Senator John E. Sinclair, Mr. Lester Douglas, M.P., Mr. A. E. MacLean, M.P., Hon. W. H. Dennis, provincial minister of agriculture. Senator Sinclair and Hon. Mr. Dennis spoke briefly.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, June 21st at 8 A. M., in Hope River Church, Rev. Father Dalton officiating at the Nuptial Mass, when Miss Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gallant, of Hope River, became the bride of Mr. Cornelius Fleming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Fleming, of Rustico.

The bride looked very charming in an ankle length dress of white lace, made in bouffant style, with an off the face hat in white, and white accessories. She carried an Ivory Prayer Book. Her sister, Miss Melina, was bridsemaid, and wore an ankle length dress of pale pink silk crepe, with blue trim and white accessories. She also carried an Ivory Prayer Book. Mr. Thomas Doyle was groomsman.

During the service, Miss Lorraine Arsenault of Summerside, sang "Just For Today" and other hymns, while Mrs. (Dr.) Fleming played the wedding march.

After the service a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, and the following out of town guests attended:

Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop, Mrs. Jessie Bowman, and Miss Lorraine Arsenault.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming left on a short honeymoon, the bride wearing a fuschia crepe dress with matching hat, with white accessories. The young couple will make their home in Rustico where the best wishes of their friends follow them.

RECEIVES APPOINTMENT— Mr. J. Ernest H. Worth, Druggist, Charlottetown, has recently been appointed a Commissioner in Queen's County for taking affidavits in the Supreme Court.

Roy L. McClure, manager of the New Method Cleaners here died at his home last night after a short illness. A native of Lethbridge, Alberta, Mr. McClure came to Charlottetown a number of years ago and made a name for himself as a successful business man. Shortly after his arrival here he was made a member of the Charlottetown Board of Trade, serving capably on various committees. He was president of the Board of Trade in 1935-36 and following that continued an active member of the organization.

Mr McClure's early death will be greatly regretted by a large circle of friends and business acquaintances in this Province. His death came after an illness of three weeks and was said due to heart disease.

Mr. McClure is survived by two children, a son James McClure and a daughter, Jean McClure, both of Charlottetown. His wife predeceased him some twenty years ago.

Interment will be in Lethbridge, Alberta, beside his wife. Funeral arrangements were not announced last night.

PROWSE BROS. STORE ENTERED—Nathan Jenkins was arrested by City Police early yesterday morning and later charged with having stolen goods in his possession. He was arrested acording to police when he was found on Prince Street near the C. N. R. roundhouse carrying an armful of clothing. The goods bore Prowse Bros. labels Investigation by Mr. T. W. L. Prowse and Police revealed the store had been entered and men's clothing taken. Value of the missing goods $100, it was said. Entrance was made by breaking a window on the lower floor of the store occupied by Sherwin-Williams Paint Co., in the Prowse building. The intruder went to the top floor of this store and breaking the skylight reached the roof, going to the adjoining skylight, which was also smashed, allowing entrance into the ladies' ready-to-wear department of Prowse Bros. Coming down from this top floor a locked door leading to the second floor was smashed making it an easy matter to continue to the ground floor. Jenkins appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate Martin yesterday morning charged with having stolen goods in his possession. He was remanded for one week.

The Nurses' Parlor of the City Hospital formed the setting for a very delightful social event on Wednesday afternoon, June 28th when the members of the Charlottetown Sub-Division, Catholic Women's League held their annual afternoon tea. The charming rooms were prettily decorated with pansies and snowballs, while the tea table with its delectable dainties, lovely lace cloth, gleaming silver service and candelabra holding blue tapers, was the object of admiring comments from the many delighted guests, who pleasantly crowded the rooms during the tea hour. The tapers and floral decorations of English Buttercups and fern carried out very effectively the color scheme of the League—blue and gold.

The President Mrs. Murray was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. T. Coady, Convenor of the Tea, while Mrs. P. J. Ready and Mrs R. J. McDonald ushered.

Pouring during the first period were Mrs. F. J. Casey and Miss Mae King and during the second period Mrs. W. O. Davey and Mrs. J. B. Fleming. The young ladies serving were: Mrs. C. St. Clair Trainor and the Misses Hilda Gillis, Louise Blanchard, Evelyn Fleming, Rita McDonald and Marion Brown. The following ladies assisted: Mrs. E. Paquet, Mrs. J. E. Cullen, Mrs. I. E. Croken, Mrs. J. D. MacGuigan, Mrs. J. H. Blanchard, Mrs. K. Creamer, Mrs. J. McLean, Mrs. J. Brown, Mrs. M. Sampel and Mrs. S. Trainor.

An orchestra composed of Miss W. Gaudet, piano, and the Misses N. Hermans and C. Kenny, violins, dispensed delightful melody during the tea hour, adding in no small measure to the pleasure of the guests.

A wedding of interest to many people both in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island took place in the United Church at Fortune Bridge, P. E. I., on Monday evening, June 26th. The principals were Mr. Garnet John Godfrey, of Moncton, N. B., and Miss Thelma Joy Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, of Fortune Bridge.

The Church beautifully decorated for the occasion was crowded to capacity for the service. The Rev. H. L. Denton of the Charlottetown Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Elby Howlett played the wedding march and Mrs. Roy Howlett sang "O Promise Me" during the signing of the register. The Maid of Honor was Miss Ruth Puncher, of Charlottetown, and Mr. Bernard Mooney, of Elmira, P. E. I. acted as groomsman. Ushers were Mr. Fred Aitkens and Mr. Wallace Francis. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. George Jackson.

Dressed in a white "shark skin" suit, with accessories to match, and carrying a bouquet of pink roses, the bride looked very beautiful. The maid of honor wore a dress of wine and blue sheer chiffon and carried a bouquet of carnations. The bride's mother was dressed in flowered chiffon, with white accessories.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents and was attended by some seventy-five guests. A delicious buffet luncheon was served, with Miss Beatrice Johnston pouring the tea. Those assisting in the serving were Miss Daisy Johnston, Mrs. Roy Howlett, Miss Evelyn Johnston, Mrs. George Dingwell, Miss Martha Reid, Miss Dorothy Johnston.

For travelling, the bride was dressed in a powder blue coat and white hat, with other white accessories.

The happy couple left by plane on Tuesday for Moncton. They will reside in Saint John, N. B., where the groom has a position with the Canadian Airways.

Among the many beautiful gifts received by the popular couple was a handsome chest of silver presented by the staff of the Charlottetown branch of the Canadian Airways.
