

YESTERDAY'S STOCK AND BOND QUOTATIONS

Market Reports By STEWART JONES & CO., Charlottetown

Table with columns for Montreal and New York stock and bond prices, including various companies like Bell Telephone, Canadian Bank of Commerce, and Dominion of Canada Bonds.

Table titled 'The Montreal Curb Market' listing various commodities and their prices, such as sugar, flour, and other goods.

Two conditions are necessary for a revival of business for Canada Steamship Lines in connection with the grain trade this Spring—a large volume of cargo and a free movement for export.

EFFORT MADE TO SAVE ALEXANDRA PALACE (Canadian Press) LONDON, March 21—One million dollars are needed to save the Alexandra Palace from complete decay.

RECOVERING ACTIVITY IN THE COMMON STOCK OF CANADA CEMENT COMPANY. Limited, the apparently stabilized price for the time being around 17 to 18.

Advertisement for Stewart Jones & Co., Correspondents of Greenshields & Co., Members of the Montreal Stock Exchange, 88 Great George St., Charlottetown.

The Montreal Stock Exchange

Table of Montreal Stock Exchange transactions, listing various stocks and their prices, including Wheat, Flour, and other commodities.

New York Exchange

Table of New York Exchange transactions, listing various stocks and their prices, including Wheat, Flour, and other commodities.

PLAN RUBBER TIRED TRAINS PARIS, March 25—France may ride on rubber wheeled railroad trains if the experiments on the line between Issoudun and Saint Florent prove satisfactory.

BEAUTY QUEEN IN TROUBLE AMSTERDAM March 25—Disciplinary action is threatened against the Amsterdam girl who recently was elected "Miss Holland" in a beauty contest because she has been playing truant from school.

CHARLOTTETOWN VISITORS TO SOURIS were the week end included Messrs Dudley Wright and W. Brehaut, who were guests of friends.

Mr. Garfield Stewart of East Baitic, spent a day in the Eastern Metropolis last week on business.

Mr. Reginald Sterns of Charlottetown, recently spent a few days in Souris visiting his father, Mr. J. G. Sterns.

Grain Exchange TIGNISH

The feast of St. Patrick was, in former years, duly celebrated in Tignish where an active branch of the A. O. H. with its auxiliary are doing excellent work.

At 9 a. m. the celebrating societies paraded to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude where a high mass was celebrated by the Rev. Fr. F. McKenna after which a very instructive and forceful sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. McLellan.

The comedy drama "Six Months to Go" in three acts was presented in the B. I. S. Hall, Souris, on Tuesday the seventeenth instant.

James Brewster, another of Sanford's successful merchants, Ambrose MacIntyre.

Mr. Amos Hubley spent the week end in Tignish.

Mr. J. B. Cunningham and Mrs. Jas. Murphy, Alberton, spent Tuesday night on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Creamer of Souris left last week on a trip to Boston to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. Reginald Sterns of Charlottetown, recently spent a few days in Souris visiting his father, Mr. J. G. Sterns.

Morning Stock Letter Wall Street Mirror Says: Special to Johnston & Ward

The performance of the market yesterday was again encouraging. The Dow Jones industrial averages reached a low of about 181.60 compared with approximately 200.00 shares were exchanged during the fourth period with some pick up in the late rally.

Important dividend meetings are scheduled to take place tomorrow and today. Westinghouse Elec. directors are scheduled to meet today.

At any rate R. and O. stock has been discounting a reduction. The stock is a purchase on any weakness.

BUCHAREST, March 24—The first official census since the war, just completed, shows a total population for "Greater Rumania" of 17,820,000.

Mr. Amos Hubley spent the week end in Tignish.

Mr. J. B. Cunningham and Mrs. Jas. Murphy, Alberton, spent Tuesday night on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Creamer of Souris left last week on a trip to Boston to visit relatives and friends.

Advertisement for Allis-Chalmers' "United" A Sensational New Farm Tractor, Greater Power—Modern Design—Lighter Weight.