THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

Mrs. Howard Sprague, Hartland, N. B., well known here, has been appointed Vice-President of the W. O. T. U.

In this issue, appears an advertisement for Isaac Holman's farm for sale at Little York. Full particulars given in ad.

The Methodist people of the Cornwall circuit have forwarded as their contribution the sum of $101.00 to the Campbellton Rebuilding Fund.

Rev. B. O. Hartman, Montague, received seven candidates into the fellowship of the church at the Sturgeon appointment, on Sunday, the 11th, as the fruit of ten days special services.

Last week's Wesleyan contains an obituary notice on the death of the late Thomas Godfrey, North Wiltshire, written by Rev. Hugh Miller. Rev. J. Strothard also contributes one on the death of the late Mrs. D. A. Pickering, Summerside.

Evangelist Crossley is announced to open a union campaign in St. Stephen, N. B., on Oct. 9th. Evangelist Mr. Hardy will be associated with him. It is to be deeply regretted that Mr. Hunter, who has been associated with Mr. Crossley for twenty-six years, has had to retire from the work because of shaking palsy.—Wesleyan.

The Co-operative Fruit Co., packed and shipped last week to the Sydney & Newfoundland markets in the vicinity of one hundred barrels of Duchesse apples. They expect to pack Wealthy, Alexander and W. O. River apples for the British Market about the middle of October. Anyone wishing to ship apples to the British market would do well to get full information from the Dept. of Agriculture.

A very quiet wedding took place at the Baptist parsonage, Kingsboro, on the evening of Sept. 27th, when Starbird J. Rose of North Lake and Vista C. Stewart were married by Rev. G. F. Camp, B. A. The immediate friends of the bride and groom were present. Miss Leah Ching acted as bridesmaid and Garfield Stewart brother of the bride, as groomsmen. The happy couple will reside at North Lake where the bride will be heartily welcomed. It is pleasing to note the United States was not able to claim permanently, this another of the Province's popular young ladies. The bride and groom have the best wishes of the community.

On Tuesday evening, Sept. 20th, the home of Hugh J. and Mrs. Bernard, 419 Salem St., Medford, Mass., was the scene of a very pleasant occasion, it being in the nature of a surprise party. Mr. Bernard's sister Mrs. John Profit of Spring Valley, P. E. I., who had been visiting in Somersworth, N. H., and Boston for the past four weeks. The party was a complete surprise to Mrs. Profit who had been taken away on a slight spree by Mr. Bernard and William and on returning at about 8.30 p. m., found the house filled with friends and relatives. After greetings by all present the company was called to order by Fred Dunbar who in a few well chosen remarks of welcome to Mrs. Profit, presented her on behalf of the friends with an elegant solid gold watch and pin. The watch was suitably inscribed with Mrs. Profit's monogram and the date of Sept. 20th, 1910. After the presentation to which she responded very feelingly, voicing her appreciation for the manner in which she had been treated during her stay, the party had a very enjoyable time with games, songs and music, during which a very fine lunch was served by Mrs. Bernard assisted by several of the young ladies present. The party broke up at 11.20 a. m. wishing Mrs. Profit a very pleasant journey on her return home. The following is a list of those present: George and Mrs. Molloy, Fred and Mrs. Dunbar, James and Mrs. Cousins, Hugh J. and Mrs. Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Milton, Charles and Mrs. Molloy, Miss Bessie Condon, Miss Margaret Condon, Miss Anna Hazelwood, Miss Clara B. McArthur, Miss Mary McKay, Miss Helen Shaw, Miss Johanna Palmer, Miss Bernice Armstrong, Miss Tessie Cousins, Miss Lizzie Cousins, Miss Millie Cousins, Miss Jennie Champion, Mrs. Jane Barnard, Mrs. Isabella Champion, Mrs. Nettie Shaw, Mrs. E. J. McArthur, Bruce Champion, John Champion, George Burns, Chester Champion, J. R. Barrett, Percy Bernard, W. S. Bernard, P. J. Bernard, William Crozier, Rob Cousins, Elmer Bernard, Robert Hillman, Elmer Thompson, George Scott, John Burns.

British Cough Cure is again to the front—this is the season when this remedy does its best work—it is so well known that we hardly think it necessary to tell of its virtues—no home should be without it—especially used for children—25c a bottle prepared and sold by E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

The C. G. S. Guldare leaves Quebec today for this port and is expected to arrive here next Thursday.

Rev. G. M. Young, Halifax, formerly of this Province, preached a strong sermon on Prohibition last Sunday.

Percy Sellar, son of Rev. Joseph Sellar, Yarmouth, who is well known here, has gone to Vermont to receive an appointment in connection with the M. E. Conference of that state.

George MacDonald, the proprietor of the popular livery and sale stables on Grafton Street, probably handled more horse-flesh during exhibition week than any other horseman in the province. Mr. MacDonald bought and sold in one week thirty-five horses—thirty of which were shipped to parties in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, the other five were sold here.

The following are the officers for Harvest Division, S. O. T., Canoe Cove, for the ensuing quarter:—W. P.—Sister Laura McLean; W. A.—Bro. Alen McFadyen; R. S.—Bro. Harry McDonald; A. R. S.—Bro. Richard Rogerson; F. S.—Bro. Dan McLean; Treasurer—Bro. Dan McNevin; Cond.—Bro. Arch Campbell; A. Cond.—Sister Sadie Campbell; Chap.—Bro. Frame Gardiner; I. S.—Bro. Neil McKimmon; O. S.—Bro. By the S. S. Siberian, last week seven fine young men came out from England as candidates for our ministry in the N. S. and N. B. and P. E. I. Conferences. They were met by a committee of Halifax ministers, associated with Rev. Thomas Marshall, Superintendent of missions, and Rev. W. C. Perry, who selected the young men during his recent visit to England. All the candidates were called upon to give their experience and call to the ministry. From the credentials presented, addresses and bearing of the young men, a most favorable impression was made upon the Committee. The names of the young men are:—Ernest A. Harris, Herbert Storey, Harry Cartledge, George P. Felstead, G. Stanley Helps, Hubert T. Smith and William Whitehouse. The latter three were assigned to N. B., their stations to be fixed by the President and Supt. of Missions. Messrs. Harris and Storey go to Cape Breton, Cartledge to Chester and Felstead to Brunswick St., Halifax.—Wesleyan.

Eyes fail at forty-five
No matter how good your eyes may be along about the age of forty-five reading sight begins to fail. This law is inexorable with the human race. If proper correcting glasses are promptly obtained no harm to the eye will come; if not, the overstrained effort in reading may result serious injury. But remember when getting glasses that poor ones are worse than none at all. We guarantee satisfaction. See us today

INVICTUS
The best in men's shoes
Invictus are the best shoes for men. Although they cost a little more, they wear longer, give more comfort and are more stylish than any other line of men's shoes made. They do not pinch or chafe the feet, retain their shape and combine comfortable, fit and stylish appearance with dependable wear.
They are the favorites of men who care for appearance and comfort and although higher priced than ordinary shoes are worth more than we ask on account of their long wearing qualities.
Prices $5.00, $5.50, and $6.00.
