

COMPLETELY BROKEN DOWN

Another Lady Thinks "Fruit-a-tives" Greatest Tonic in The World.

HAGERSVILLE, ONT., Aug. 26th, 1913. I can highly recommend "Fruit-a-tives" because they did me an awful lot of good. About four years ago, I commenced taking "Fruit-a-tives" for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth, but they did all that your advertising claims for them, and as I said before, I cannot speak too highly for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other medicines, that I am glad to say so and I trust that some other woman may start taking "Fruit-a-tives" for I know the results will be all that you claim.

Mrs. W. N. KELLY.

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

B284

An excellent model for a separate skirt is shown in No. 8284. It is in three pieces, has a slightly raised waistline and may be made with or without the circular tunic section. This section, however, applied as it is, just below the waistline, gives the new flared hip, which is a feature of many of the new gowns and suits.

Gaberline is one of the new materials for suits, skirts and coats; it shows a fine twill, on the order of a whipcord, is dressy looking, and to all appearances should wear very well. Taffeta is very much favored for separate skirts. Among the other silks for this purpose are moire, crepe de chine, faille and silk poplin. This design is one that is especially suited to general or business wear combined with a plain tailored blouse of crepe de chine, silk poplin or linen.

It may be copied in size 24 with four yards of 36 inch material or 3 3/4 of 42 inch material. Patterns cut in five sizes, 22 to 30.

This is a Perfect Pattern. Be sure to give right size, passing the tape tightly around the smallest part of the waist and loosely around the widest part of the hips. It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin, to the Pattern Department of this paper.

Lame Back Strengthened Stiffness Taken Right Out

WAS RELIEVED IN AN HOUR AND CURED OVER NIGHT

A lame back? Quite unnecessary. All you have to do is to rub on Nerviline. It's simply a wonder for backache—relieves after one rubbing. "Nothing possibly could cure an aching back faster than Nerviline," writes Mrs. Arthur Kobar, of Lower Chelsea, N. B. "I caught cold and was so prostrated with pain I could not bend over. We always have Nerviline at home, and I had the painful region rubbed thoroughly with this grand liniment. At once the pain departed. The lameness was rapidly reduced and in an hour I was able to be about my household. I was rubbed again just before retiring, and awoke as usual in the morning without a sign of my back trouble."

There is no sort of muscular pain that Nerviline won't cure quickly. Thousands swear by it for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica and lumbago. It sinks to the core of the pain—right through muscle, tissue and nerve—it penetrates where no oily, greasy liniment can go and invariably cures quickly. If you have an ache or a pain anywhere—use Nerviline—it will cure you. Family size bottle, very large 50c.; trial size 25c. at all dealers.

PRACTICAL GOWNS MAY BE SMART

Because a dress is made for practical use is no reason why it should not be pretty and modern. There is sometimes a tendency to make the dress that is intended for practical wear plain and unattractive, when a touch here and there or a little dash of style would take but little more time and would give the dress an air of attractiveness that would permit of its being worn many times where it could not be otherwise. It is an item of economy to make the dress which is intended for real usefulness in as attractive a way as possible, for, if the lines are good and some pretty little touches are given, it may frequently be worn to church on a stormy day or to other places when a dainty gown is not required, and in this way be a saving of the more expensive dresses.

The busy housewife, to whom every moment is valuable, may feel that she cannot spend the extra time which she thinks is required for making the dress pretty, but it really requires but very little time to make a dainty collar, a stylish girder or other accessory which will give a certain air of style that the plain dress could never have. A girder draped about the hips or waist in a bewitching manner requires but little time and the cost is small if it is to be purchased, for it is not necessary to use an expensive silk or satin; a comparatively cheap quality will be just as satisfactory and will fully repay one for the extra thought put into the dress, as it is quite marvelous what a smart appearance may

Labor Charge Made

(Canadian Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Charges by Samuel Gompers the president of the American Federation of Labor are that the Western Federation of Miners was not fairly treated in the Calumet copper strike. Criticisms of the principles of compulsory arbitration of labor disputes by representatives of both employers and employees today marked the close of the first series of hearings by the United States Industrial Relations Committee on collective bargaining.

When colors and trimmings are so much in favor, a collar, a piping or a vest of different color may be added and give a brightness which is effective and charming, without any smartness which is pleasing.

When Sunday morning came the question was repeated, and the aunt replied: "Yes, my darling, this is God's even the plainest dress may be made attractive, but as fashion decrees that accessories are important, will added touch may finish a charm that all admire."

Effective Sping Tonic Overcame Weakness

System was All Run-Down—Could Not Attend to Work—Lasting Cure Effected by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The cold, changeable Canadian winter is a severe strain on all who are not in robust health. This is not in favor of the many leathis, particularly of aged people, which occur about March, and the very many people who find themselves weak and run down in the spring.

The overeating of heavy food and living in stuffy rooms, where the air is laden with poison, leave the blood impure in the spring. "You must have something to restore vigor, and, is stated in this letter, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the most effective to be purchased, for it is not necessary to use an expensive silk or satin; a comparatively cheap quality will be just as satisfactory and will fully repay one for the extra thought put into the dress, as it is quite marvelous what a smart appearance may

Director Resigned

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, April 11.—Robert Lovett, chairman of the Union Pacific Railroad Company has resigned to become director of the Baltimore, Ohio Railroad. W. Averil Harriman, son of the late E. H. Harriman, has been elected to succeed him.

SUNDAY ATTRACTION

Little Louis was a solemn eyed, spiritual looking child. One morning he came to his aunt, who was visiting the family, and asked: "Aunt, is this God's day?" "No, dearie," replied the aunt; "this is not Sunday. It is Wednesday."

"I'm sorry," said the boy, sadly as he went back to his play. Each succeeding day he asked the same question of the aunt in his serious manner, and she said to his mother: "Really, I don't think that child will live long. He is too good for this world."

When Sunday morning came the question was repeated, and the aunt replied: "Yes, my darling, this is God's even the plainest dress may be made attractive, but as fashion decrees that accessories are important, will added touch may finish a charm that all admire."
