WAR LOAN.—The North British & Mercantile Insurance Co., represented by Hyndman & Co., Ltd., has subscribed for two and a half million dollars of the new British War loan and for five and a half million dollars of the two war loans.

ROSEBANK NOTES.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coughlin have arrived home from Portland, Me., where they were visiting their son Jesse who was seriously injured some weeks ago. They were apparently delighted with the place and contemplate buying a beautiful home there. Mr. and Mrs. Matthew were visiting friends in Waterford, on Tuesday. Miss Annie Cross, of Halifax is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hardy. Miss Edna Fitzjerald is visiting friends in Rosebank. Miss Annie Hennessey and Mrs. Lemuel Coughlin of Portland, Me. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coughlin. The trustees of Rosebank School are to be congratulated on the able way they conducted the affairs of that institution of learning and on their good luck in securing the services of an excellent teacher.

WEDDING BELLS.—A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Isaac Corbett, Broughton street, on Wednesday, June 30, when her youngest daughter, Miss Margaret Grace Graham, was united in marriage to Mr. Vernon Hastings Shaw, of the legal firm of Shaw, Shaw and Haviland. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. Leslie Pidgeon in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride party entered the drawing room to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by the bride's sister, Mrs. T. Gadd. The bride, who was given away by her brother, wore a gown of ivory satin trimmed with lace and embroidered in seed pearls, the veil falling from a crown cap adorned with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern. Her going away costume was of Belgian blue cloth with hat to match. The honeymoon will be spent in Seattle and other coast cities, and on their return Mr. and Mrs. Shaw will reside in their new home at Dunderave, taken from the Vancouver Paper.

EXAMINATION.—The semi annual examination of Upton School took place in the afternoon of June 30th. Before the opening of the examination proper a short programme was carried out by the scholars under the able supervision of Mr. Wm. Ward. Probably the most interesting feature in this was the raising, for the first time of the Union Jack, by Miss Susan McPherson and Miss Enid Morrison. Other numbers were marching and patriotic recitations by the children. On the conclusion of this programme the pupils were examined in the different subjects by their teacher and acquitted themselves quite admirably. In conclusion prizes were distributed to deserving ones after which the pupils and the large number of visitors were treated to some excellent candy by one of the thoughtful ladies of the district. Much credit is due Misses Morrison and McPherson who gave up their holiday to collect from the ratepayers enough money to purchase one of the Guardian's Union Jacks to Mr. Ward who took such an interest in raising the flag and pole, and also to all those who contributed their time or money to this simple yet patriotic way of beautifying the Upton school grounds.

EARNESCLIFFE NOTES.—Mr. Alex. McPherson, one of Cardigan's most popular and enterprising young men, returned to his home Saturday evening from a pleasing visit with Earncliffe friends.—Mr. Weldon Tweedy, who spent last week with Mr. Francis Mutch and family, is enjoying the remainder of his holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tweedy.—Our people greatly appreciate the weekly visits of our meat dealer, Mr. Eddie Fraser, whose reputation for being a good butcher is second to none in P. E. I.—Mr. and Mrs. Orman Pool, and Miss Winnie Poole, Lower Montague, were visitors last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tweedy.—A nice new railing has been built on the bridge below our cheese factory. It supplies a long felt want. Railings on the bridges at Huggin's and Judsons' are badly needed, and we trust the efficient roadmaster, Mr. Cyrus Ings, will have them put up in the near future.—Miss Hazel Mutch is spending her holidays at her old home here.

WOODVALE SCHOOL CLOSING.—A most successful and interesting examination was held in Woodvale School, on Tuesday, the 29th June. The large attendance of ratepayers and others evidenced the interest taken in education and the popularity of the teacher, Miss Emma Cahill. The various classes were examined, but might be said tested by Miss Josie Gaudet, teacher of Alma and Miss Addie Gillis, teacher of Greenmount and showed by their ready answering careful training and most gratifying success. In all the different classes correctness was a most notable feature. Throughout the exercises a pleasing programme of songs, recitations and dialogues was carried out which won many smiles and much applause from the visitors. A most pleasing feature of the programme was a recitation "The Union Jack" by Master Russel Crockett, which was worthy of the highest praise and a dialogue "The Sick Dolly," by three little "tots," the Misses Mae Vincent, Francis Crockett and Master Willie Crockett. At the close of the programme speeches were made by Mr. Patrick McGrath, Mr. Michael Gavin, Mrs. Robert Hardy and the teachers, all of whom expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the results of the year's work. A vote of thanks was tendered to Miss Cahill for the satisfactory way in which she had conducted their school and all hoped she would decide to remain another year among them. Prizes were then distributed to the pupils for class standing, attendance, deportment, etc. After the closing of the school were presented to the teacher by the pupils as tokens of gratitude to her for the many kindnesses shown to them. The singing of the National Anthem brought an enjoyable afternoon to a close.—Com.
