NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP)—Renewed strength was given the stock market rally Monday by a bullish statement on 1967 car sales from Frederick G. Donner, board chairman of General Motors.

Volume swelled to 9,640,000 shares from Friday's 7,810,000. It was the biggest turnover since Nov. 16 when 10,360,000 shares were traded.

The Dow industrials rose 7.53 to 820.54.

Donner said that the auto industry in 1967 may be heading for one of its best years in history. Total retail sales of cars and trucks could exceed 10,250,000.

Along with the GM statement was a favorable Wall Street comment on oils which boosted some of the key stocks in that group.

The New York Stock Exchange index rose 44 cents to $44.93, the Standard and Poor's 500-stock index .86 to 83.00 and The Associated Press average of 60 stocks 2.4 to 290.3 with industrials up 4.3, rails up .9 and utilities up .8.
