IN MEMORIAM

DOIRON — In loving remembrance of our dear son Thomas (Dodo) Doiron, who died October 9th, 1954.

His life was earnest, his actions kind,
A generous hand and active mind.
Anxious to please loathe to offend,
A loving son and faithful friend.
Always remembered by Mother and Father.

JENKINS — In loving memory of our darling baby Edgar George Jenkins, who passed away Oct. 9th., 1948.

Into sweet rest he has entered
No more to suffer or weep
But safe in the arms of Jesus
Our baby is fast asleep.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by mother, father, sisters Sadie and Ruby, and brother David.

MCCAUGHEY — In loving memory of our dear father, Michael McCaughey, who died Oct. 9, 1941.

Someone remembers, some one cares
Your name is whispered in our prayers
A smile, a tear, a thought sincere,
How often we wish you were here.
God chose to take you from us,
No one can take your place
Today brings back sad memories
That time does not erase.
Sadly missed by sons and daughters.

Anti-Partnership Strife Fatal To Br., Turks, Greek

NICOSIA (Reuters)—Two British soldiers and a Turkish-Cypriot were killed and seven soldiers were wounded in four ambushes in Cyprus Tuesday—seventh day of the British partnership plan for the island.

One Greek-Cypriot was killed when a bomb exploded in his hand.

In the first week of the British plan—accepted by Turkey but rejected by Greece — 15 persons have died and 300 have been injured, 250 of them in the roundup of suspects in Famagusta last Friday following the slaying of a British soldier's wife.

Under the seven-year plan introduced Oct. 1, Britain has invited Greek and Turkish officials to participate as advisers to the colonial authorities pending establishment of separate legislatures for the two groups.

Greece maintains the plan would lead to partition, sought by the Turkish-Cypriot minority of 100,000. The island's 400,000 Greeks demand self - determination.

Meanwhile, the Greek - Cypriot mayor of Famagusta, Andreas Pouyiouros, continued to protest what he termed a "night of horror" in Famagusta when troops searched for the killers of the serviceman's wife.

An official government statement admitted over 250 Famagusta Greek - Cypriots received hospital treatment, two died and 17 still are in hospital.

The Famagusta Greek-Cypriot lawyers human rights committee Tuesday cabled a protest to the NATO human rights commission, asking for its immediate intervention and examination of "mass ill - treatment of about 1,000" innocent citizens of Famagusta.

The complete house curfew imposed in Famagusta after Friday's shooting was lifted and replaced by one on all Greek-Cypriots between 15 and 26 years of age.

Similar curfews are in force in all main towns.

Suspension Of Tests Is Now Up To The Soviet Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States called on Russia Tuesday night to say whether she really wants a suspension of nuclear tests starting Oct. 31.

'It is up to the Soviet Union now as to whether tests will be suspended Oct. 31 or whether they are to continue," the state department said.

The department's statement was issued with unusual promptness as a comment on Soviet Ambassador Gromyko's statements Tuesday at the United Nations.

Gromyko's words puzzled the state department. But he generally was interpreted to have threatened further Soviet nuclear tests in a number equal to the tests held by the United States and Britain since March 31.

SUSPEND TESTS

Russia announced March 31, after completing an extensive series of tests, that it was suspending nuclear weapons blasts. It called on the United States and Britain to do likewise. But the two Western countries went ahead with their scheduled tests in late summer and fall.

President Eisenhower announced Aug. 22 that U.S. weapons tests would be suspended after Oct. 31 provided Russia agreed to meet with the United States and Britain on possible ways to reach a general agreement on controlled suspension of tests. Eisenhower's other condition was that Russia forego any testing after the Oct. 31 conference got under way.

The president said U.S. tests would be halted for at least one year starting Oct. 31. Britain agreed. Russia, after consenting to attend the meeting at Geneva, resumed testing last week.

The state department Tuesday night showed puzzlement about the meaning of Gromyko's words. Its statement said:

"We hope that what Mr. Gromyko said does not mean that he is seeking justification for a U.S.S.R. policy or continued unrestricted nuclear testing now that some progress has been made toward an agreement on suspension of testing, and that his government is not trying to evade acceptance of the offer of the United States made on Aug. 22."

Iraq Revolt Is Quelled

BAGHDAD, Iraq — (AP) — Premier Abdel Kerim Kassem, the Iraqi strong man, has smashed a revolt by soldiers supporting his chief rival, Cal. Abdul Salam Aref, it was reported Tuesday.

A regiment was disarmed. Aref himself was placed under house arrest, according to reliable informants.

Kassem took over the government July 14 after a coup overthrowing King Faisal and Premier Nuro said, both slain.

Tight official secrecy made it hard to get the facts. A wide range of informants — including left-wing politicians and European diplomats — pieced the story together.

NO HAIR, BUT NO DISCOUNT

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The Phoenix barbers union local rejected a proposed discount for balding customers.

"There isn't so much to cut," explained a union official, "but it takes longer to find it."
