MRS. HENRY R. CAVALIERI

There passed away in Winthrop, Mass on Sunday April the 9th Mrs. Henry R. Cavalieri in her Thirty-Fourth Year.

Mrs. Cavalieri was the former Florence B. MacWilliams and was born in Eldon Belfast, P. E. I. on May 6th, 1915 and was the daughter of Alexander and Isabelle MacWilliams. She was educated in the public school in Eldon and lived there until coming to the United States in 1937 and lived in Waltham, Mass., until her marriage in 1947. Since that time she resided in Winthrop, Mass., until her passing away.

The remains rested at the P. J. Cox funeral home in Woburn, Mass., from which they wre forwarded to the home of her father. Funeral Services took place from the Saint John's Presbyterian Church on Friday April 14th. The services were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. R S. Quigley. Sleep on beloved.
Sleep and take thy rest
We loved thee well
But Jesus loved thee best.

Card Of Thanks

It is with heartfelt gratitude that we wish to express our sincere thanks to all for their kind expressions of sympathy during our recent bereavement. Also for the many beautiful cards and floral tributes from friends, relatives and neighbors.—Family of the late Mrs. H. R. Cavalieri.

IN MEMORIAM

There passed peacefully away to her eternal rest, on April 18, 1950, Florance Marvin, beloved wife of Alexander Marvin of 18 Parkvale Avenue, Allston, Mass. After only a week's severe illness the Angel of Death claimed for its own one of the esteemed residents of Allston, Mass.

In her youth Florence MacDonald trained for a nurse at the MacLean Hospital, Waverley, Mass. and did post graduate work at Massachusetts General Hospital receiving her degree of Registered Nurse. For many years she practiced with mingled tenderness and skill her chosen profession in Boston, Mass.

She leaves to mourn a grief-stricken husband and an only daughter, Mrs. Clarence Prescott, Demarest, New Jersey, and two grandchildren Jean and Phillip; also three sorrowing sisters, Mrs. Norman MacSwain of St. Peter's, P. E. Island, Sarah Harriet MacDonald, L. N. and Mary Macdonald, R. N. of Allston, Mass. A brother, Allan J. died in 1938. A dearly beloved niece, Flora, wife of Professor W. M.
