MR. WM. BEER and Mrs. Beer leave this morning for Nelson, B. C., where they will make their future home. Their departure is a distinct loss to the city and will be regretted by a host of friends. The GUARDIAN extends best wishes for their continued health and prosperity.

THE Ladies' of the W. C. T. U. at Kensington held an ice cream social and entertainment last night in Kensington Hall. A special feature of the entertainment was the music furnished by the Kensington band assisted by Mr. Pridham of Amherst. The proceeds will be devoted to the purchase of campaign literature. In this respect the W. C. T. U. of Kensington bid fair to bring a blush to most of our temperance societies.

THE Leadville, Col. Herald says:—The funeral of Mr. John McKenzie took place yesterday from the residence of Mr Samuel D. Nicholson. Rev. A Grant Evans officiating, and was very largely attended. Among others the Messrs. McKenzie from Victor and Mr. Murt Nicholson from Lake City were present. For some time previous to his death Mr. McKenzie had noticed various premonitory symptoms of heart weakness, but without experiencing any serious suffering or entertaining any fears of fatal results. On the day of his death he went to work as usual, but early in the afternoon quit work complaining of a pain in the chest. He went to his house after seeing a neighbor and arranging with the latter to go to work in his place. In the evening the mine foreman and engineer called to see him, but getting no reply on knocking at the door, they concluded he had gone to his nephews (Mr. Nicholson) or down town. Not having seen him in the meantime they became uneasy on the following evening and called the matter to Mr. Nicholson's attention, who at once proceeded to Mr. McKenzie's house and having effected an entrance found that he had passed peacefully away, no doubt shortly after retiring on his return from work Saturday afternoon. The deceased lived for many years in Rose Valley, P. E. I., which he left about years ago. He leaves a large family in Rose Valley. Coroner Price of Leadville was summoned and took charge of the remains. The deceased was about 52 years of age and leaves a large number of friends and relatives in P. E. Island to mourn the loss of a kind and generous father and friend.

Made to Fit You

There are two kinds of cutters in our business and it's a toss up which is the most important. One cuts the cloth to fit the man, and the other cuts the price to fit the purse. Our $14.00 suits are out from the $16.00 price. S. A. McDONALD, Leading Fashionable Tailor.

THERE is no more healthy, cool and pleasant outing than by the S. S. Jacques Cartier to Crapaud this afternoon. Just think of a sixty mile sail for but forty cents. The steamship leaves Navigation Wharf at 2 p. m., returning about 8.30. Escape the heat and dust of the city and a part of a day's work, by enjoying this delightful excursion. Ask your friends to go with you. They will enjoy it even more than you do.

MR. AND MRS. G. D. LONGWORTH gave a very enjoyable At Home to the guests and their friends of the Hotel Acadia last Tuesday evening. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. Alex. MacDonald and house party of sixteen, Mrs. MacDonald and the Misses MacDonald of Glenaladale and their friends also a number from the city. The ball-room and supper table were decorated under Mr. J. Davies' artistic taste. The walls of the ball room were one mass of ferns and flowers, relieved by the flags of Old England and the United States side by side. Refreshments were served in the large card-room under the direction of Miss Hall. The decorations of supper table were in pale blue, Indian red and yellow silks tied to the ends of the table with large bows, the centre piece being one mass of flowers. The programmes were made of birch bark with pretty Island scenes painted on the corners by Mr. W. McDonald and Miss Clyde of New York. It is needless to say that the genial host and hostess made every one feel at home. This was one of the most pleasant entertainments ever given at the popular Hotel Acadia.
