

Good Lemon Pie Easy as This

SO SIMPLY... so tangy and fresh-flavored... just thick enough and never too thick... it seems scarcely possible that such perfect Lemon Pie Filling can be made so easily and so quickly! But it is, and success is sure every time, with Jell-O Lemon Pie Filling!

Made by the makers of famous Jell-O — with real lemon flavor! Not a lemon jelly. Use it for pies, tarts, cake fillings, sauce, and for such easy dessert recipes as those on the package.

Can you make good lemon pie?

You always make your own — and beautifully?

You'll never go back to the long, bothersome way!

In Memoriam

MR. JOSEPH GALLANT

There passed away at his home, 50 Spring Park Road, on Tuesday morning, April 13th, 1948, Mr. Joseph Gallant, in his 68th year. Although he had been in failing health for the past four years, he was able to be about until a short time before his death.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Euzabe Gallant of North Rustico. He was a man of quiet disposition, a kind neighbour and respected by all who knew him.

Rev. Father Coll. C. S. R., administered to him the last rites of the Catholic Church, of which he was a true and faithful member.

There are left to cherish his memory, as long as life lasts, his sorrowing widow, nee Emily Gauthier, formerly of Hope River and High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Coll. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Father P. Hennessey. The pallbearers were Eugene Kelly, Ben Gallant, Louis McMahon, Jack Weatherble, Joseph Hennessey and Pete Connolly. The Holy Name Society, of which he was a faithful member attended in a body. May his soul rest in peace.

Mass following floral tributes. Mass Cards, messages of sympathy and letters, etc., testify to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

PLEBISCITE RESULTS — The following polls, not heard from Monday evening, reported as follows yesterday: Martineau, 3rd. King's, for Temperance Act 42, for Prohibition, 12; Cymbria, for Temperance Act 40, for Prohibition 20; Emyvale, 1st Queen's, for Temperance Act 33, for Prohibition 14.

VALUABLE SCRAP OF PAPER

LONDON, June 29 — (AP) — The Rosenbach Company, New York booksellers, paid $80 ($320) today for a slip of paper recording Winston Churchill's 1901 bet that the British Empire was not about to break up.

The paper, bearing Churchill's signature, was sold at Sotheby's. The bet of £100 was with Dr. James C. Young of Minneapolis, who wagered that "within 10 years" the Empire would be reduced by losses in Canada, India or Australia.

WOULD END HORN BLOWING

MONTREAL, June 29 — (CP) — Assistant police director T.O. Leggett claims excessive auto horn blowing is merely a display of egotism. Here's how he says to cure it: Equip cars with an extra claxon inside; then when the driver gets the lusty toot of his own horn right in his ear he'll stop horn-blowing fast.
