ODO-RO-NO
Prevents Perspiration

During summer heat, half the enjoyment of your outing is lost through the presence of excessive perspiration. Odo-ro-no is what you should use.

It does not prevent the natural breathing of the pores, but it does absolutely prevent excessive perspiration.

It is soothing and cool to the skin, it's use cannot be detected and one application is sufficient for 24 hours.

When using Odo-ro-no, ladies can wear thin waists without any trouble from perspiration annoyance. Try a trial bottle.

bride of Mr. Sidney V. Acorn of Mill View. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Weeks of Pownall in the presence of a few immediate friends and relatives. At the hour of eight o'clock the young couple entered the parlour to the strains of the Wedding March which was beautifully rendered by Miss Florence McKinnon of Uigs, and took their place under an arch of flowers which was artistically arranged for the occasion. The bride who was unattended wore a gown of white and brodered silk with bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. She is one of Orwell's most popular young ladies, and will be greatly missed in the community where she belonged. The groom is the youngest son of the late John Acorn of Mill View. He is well known and highly thought of having carried on an extensive merchandise and undertaking business with his brother at Mill View for some time past. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and prosperous journey through life.
