HOCKEY

On Monday evening, Jan. 30th, at the Kensington Rink, the New Annan Stars were catapulted out of the North Shore Hockey Ring, by the Kensington Silver Wings, and as a result, the conflict has narrowed down to five teams out of the original eight.

The Silver Wings defeated the 1932-33 champions 3 to 0 on the game and 5 to 0 on the round, but the Stars were by no means outclassed in the series. They put up an interesting battle all the way, and it was not until they forsook defensive tactics and went questing for goals by way of the gang attack in the diving stages of the game that the Wings were able to gain a decisive lead, by breaking through and shooting two quick goals. In the middle frame, MacFarlane, husky defenceman, paved the way for the first counter, getting the water out to Waite, who was parked in front of the cage. Waite repeated in the final period, when Higgins and he broke away with four Stars trapped behind the enemy goal-line. Waite took Higgins' pass just outside the crease, and slapped the disc home.

The final goal was the result of a rapid fire pass by C. Champion, Waite, and MacDonald. The last named, who took Higgins' pass just outside the crease, and slapped the disc home.

LASKY MEETS BRADDOCK IN 15-ROUNDER

(By Edward J. Neil, Associated Press Sports Writer) NEW YORK, Jan. 31—Art Lasky, Minneapolis heavyweight, risks his pretensions as a championship challenger against belling Jimmy Braddock over the 15-round route tomorrow night, and there's more than a slight possibility that this may be Kid Madison Square Garden's next to the last fight.

The Garden board of directors, with Col. John S. Hammond as chairman, will meet next Tuesday afternoon to consider the general subject of leasing the arena for boxing to anyone who cares to bid. Four potential syndicates are in the field. These developments took considerable edge from the Braddock-Lasky duel, only match which the Garden has arranged up to May 31 with the exception of a 15-round lightweight duel between Lou Ambers of Herkimer, N. Y., and Sammy Fuller of Boston, March 1. Negotiations are on for others, however.
