(From Yesterday's Evening Guardian)

—His friends will be sorry to learn that Murdock McLeod at Linkletter Road met with a bad accident a few days ago. He was unloading hay in the barn and during the operation the hay carrier and fork in some way tumbled to the floor, his head barely escaping. The sharp end of the fork, however, pierced through the middle of his right foot and of course the aid of a doctor was necessitated. With the use of a pair of crutches and a carriage and pluck, he was able to get around Summerside on Friday. —Exc.

—The other day John Rogers met with a mishap. He was getting a load of loose hay weighed at the scales of Jos. Read & Co.'s about noon. When he was in the office the western train came in sight near the west end crossing and the horse, facing the track and seeing the approaching engine started and turned up the track with the load. Brakes were at once put on but notwithstanding the up grade the train could not be stopped before the truck wagon was broken up and the hay scattered. The horse, however, escaped injury. —Exc.

—James W. Muford, Springhill, N. S., left by the Empress Wednesday for his home after spending a few weeks with his sister, the guest of Mrs. Wm. J. MacNeill, Searletown. —Robt. K. MacNeill, Searletown, has returned home after spending a few days with friends in Charlottetown and East Royalty.

—The friends of Mrs. Howard Clark, Chelms, are sorry to learn she is very ill. —Miss Ethel M. Affleck, Searletown, has returned to her former position as salesmaid in W. T. Bowness' store, Bedeque, after spending four weeks vacation with her aged mother. —Mr. and Mrs. Blackier, Bedeque, has returned home after visiting at fifteen Point.

—The concert held by the Tignish Dramatic Club in Tignish Hall recently was a decided success. The play entitled, "The Man From Borneo," was a difficult one to act, but each one did justice to the parts. It would be doing a great justice to particularize, but suffice it to say that each one present that night is anxiously looking forward to another pleasant evening with the same interesting characters. The cast was as follows:—The Man from Borneo—J. A. Brennan; Frederick Binns, his nephew, Albert O'Connor; Olivia, Fred Binns' wife, Miss Mary Kinch; Lizzie Dayton, her former chum, Miss Hannah Clowhosey; Piper, a sleepy servant, Guy Kinch; Capt. Wright, a soldier, Alfred Murphy. The play ended with the National Anthem, God Save the King.

Business Stand and Stock for Sale

As I wish to retire from the merchandising business with a view of removing to the West I will dispose of my business stand and the stock of goods at Tyne Valley. The stand comprises a general store and all necessary ware houses together with dwelling accommodation. The business stand is situated in one of the very best sections of the province and a large and lucrative trade can be done in produce if the purchaser desires. It is also within a short distance of Richmond Bay (which can be reached by boat) and a large business can be done with the oyster, clam and lobster fishermen. Terms easy. For particulars R. J. McNEILL. 7-3Mtf.

Attend the Annual Scottish Gathering in Summerside

WEDNESDAY, July 14th, 1912

Every person with a drop of Scotch blood in their veins should join in this great Annual Scottish celebration and make it the most successful in the history of the Caledonia Club.

Every possible arrangement has been made for the accommodation and convenience of visitors—and it is anticipated that train loads of people from every corner of the Province will be in attendance.

The lowest possible excursion rates will prevail. See handbills and advertisements.

This is a great opportunity to visit the Western Metropolis—and to go through Holman's Big Store would be worth the trip alone.

All aboard for Summerside on Wednesday 14th. You can't stry away when you think of the Bag Pipes Playing, the great gathering of Canny Sandys and Bonny Marys—'Twill be one of the greatest gatherings since "Auld Land Syne."
