Six College Boxing Titles Decided In Tournament

IN THIS CORNER

When members of No. 6 District Signals Co. sit down to their annual dinner on Thursday night next the occasion will mark the first of a season that was on a par with any in the Club's history.

Attendance at the weekly shoots was nearly one hundred percent and competition among the marksmen was very keen. It was no novelty to see two or three tied for the top spots and there were very few points that ever separated the clear-dwelling occupant from the first.

But the outstanding achievement of the season was the improvement that was noted in the scores being hung up on every shoot night. In every instance averages were far ahead of last year's marks and for the first time in the Club's history possibilities were chalked up.

Four times this happened. Earl Burke hit the bulls eye with uncanny accuracy for perfect scores on two occasions while Major W.A. Smith and Ralph Jenkins were the other two to shoot their way into the select circle. It was a display of the highest possible order and the perfect scores served to heighten the competition as the other members attempted to duplicate the feat.

Looking back the members have plenty to enthuse over; enthusiasm is at a high pitch and the Club is already laying plans for next season—a season in which they hope to even better the fine one just concluded.

The City is in for plenty of baseball; that seems assured. In addition to the three teams that will operate in the City League there is also to be a team of intermediate squads who will battle it out for Island honors and a place in the Maritime playdowns.

One of these two intermediate squads came into existence Saturday night with the formation of Joey McDonald's Sporting Club Victorias. A capable group of officers head the Club and with a large number of veterans plus the juniors who are seeking berths on the quad, the Club will field a formidable outfit.

The other team is a certainty also. Although nothing in the way of just what players comprise the roster has been divulged, nevertheless Jimmy Sherry, the man who did the organization work, states he has a capable crew ready and games between the two squads should be close-knit affairs throughout the schedule.

It was the general impression that the formation of the intermediates would interfere with the deal with the successful running of the City League. However this is not the case. Intermediates have no desire whatever to interfere in any shape or form but rather are willing and anxious to co-operate in every way so that both schedules may be run through without a hitch.

A night of "SOCK" aptly describes the staging of the first Prince of Wales Boxing Championships held at the Sporting Club on Saturday night, when six titles, ranging from the featherweight to lightweight, were decided. There were 18 rounds of fighting and fighting it was from the opening gong until the final one. All the scraps with the exception of the middleweight class were decided by decision, the winner of the middle title gaining a technical knockout victory in the third round; but despite the lack of knockouts those in attendance saw action-plus every minute of every fight. From the time two red-headed featherweights opened hostilities until the end of the last scrap the students threw enough punches to start a shoe factory and the judge's task of picking the winners wasn't an easy one by any means.

Only one class failed to decide a champion. Gordon DeBlasio and Eugene McDonald shared the welterweight title as they battled to a draw in the most sensational fight of the evening.

St. Louis Brooks won the first title of the night as he fought his way to a thrilling three-round decision over George McKinnon. Both red-heads, the pair split the first two rounds but Banks taking a bad beating in the middle canto and apparently on the verge of defeat rallied strongly in the final heat to outpunch his opponent and take an unanimous judge's decision.

Tom Keefe, the most polished boxer to perform on the card, left-handed Dave McTague into defeat to grab off the lightweight title. Continually keeping his opponent off balance with his smart left hand Keefe had an edge in every session and again the decision was an unanimous one.

Allistar Gordon DeBlasio and Eugene McDonald shared the welterweight division but it was McDonald, who walked off with the crown, McDonald continuously keeping his opponent in every round and although the fighting was close, nevertheless there was not very much doubt about the outcome.

Alister Gordon DeBlasio and Eugene McDonald furnished the spectators with thrills at a dime a dozen as they battled to a furious draw in the welterweight division.

Coming out of two tigers both boys were throwing leather before the sound of the gong had died away. A terrific right hand wallop by DeBlasio sent McDonald crashing to the floor but he was up without a count and plunging into his opponent with rights and lefts. For the remainder of the fight the pair of gamblers never knowing when to quit, took toe to toe and fired everything but the ring posts at each other. First one and then the other would be subjected to terrific punishment but as the final bell they were both still on their feet swinging punches from every angle. The draw verdict was well received.

Carmen Glover had too much boxing ability for Allison Gillis as he won the middleweight crown with a technical knockout victory over his opponent in the final ten seconds as the towel came hurtling from the corner. Game as they come and willing to mix it all the way Gillis was down four times before the end of the fight came but in the meantime had made things plenty hot for his cool-working foe. Glover however was always well in front and at the time when the towel was thrown in he was a mile ahead on points.

All those connected in any way with the staging of the championships are deeply grateful to Joey McDonald who generously donated free of charge the use of the Sporting Club, both for Saturday's scraps and also for preliminary matches which had been held previously.

Harry Hurst Is A Fighter With A Future

MONTREAL, April 30—(CP)—Around these parts it is the general belief among amateur fight followers that the world—and certainly Canada—holds few better men pound for pound than youthful Harry Hurst when it comes to filling a foe's whiskers full of fist.

Just on the verge of his 21st birthday, the dark-haired Hurst is the most talked of boxer in this city today and as newly crowned king of the Dominion's amateur lightweight class had had a hatful of offers to turn to the monied bout.

Hurst, who left tonight for Toronto where he will take part tomorrow night in a ring tourney pitting a Canadian team against boxers from the United States, won the lightweight title here last Friday night by knocking out Harvey Dube of Windsor, Ont., in the second round of a three-round bout.

It is no exaggeration to say that the 132-pound Hurst is the best drawing card among the amateur boxers in the Dominion. He gives the fans action and his Sunday punches is something that they clamor for. He reached the final against Dubs by putting away defending champion Frankie Williams of Regina at 1:59 of the third round.

Hurst, who represented Canada at the last British Empire Games in Australia would like to fight for the Dominion at the Olympic Games next year but it is possible that by that time he may have turned professional. So far the offers haven't been to his liking.

Scratch Single Robs Warneke Of "No-Hitter" Against Cubs; Giants Drop Two To Bees

NEW YORK, April 30—(AP)—Lou Fette, veteran righthander, held New York Giants under control today until he had two out in the ninth while chalking up his third victory of the season, for Boston Bees, 3-2. The triumph, witnessed by a crowd of 23,428 Boston fans, enabled the Bees to close in on the idle Cincinnati pace-setters.

After holding his opponents to one run in his last 26 innings, Fette passed Mel Ott with two out in the ninth, Joe Demaree followed with a Texas Leaguer to centre and Bill Jurges drove both runners home with a triple. Bob Seeds, batting for Cliff Melton, flied out to end the game.

The Bees, held to five hits, tallied once in the fourth and clinched the game with a pair of runs in the fifth on singles by Al Lopez, Debs Garms and Johnny Cooney and Lou Chiozza's high throw to first.

Royals And Bears Split Doubleheader

MONTREAL, April 30—(AP)—Newark Bears chafed up a 4-4 victory over Montreal Royals in an extra-inning nightcap today after being shut out in the opener 1-0. The Bruins pushed over the deciding run in the eighth frame of the abbreviated battle when Marvin Duke booted pinch hitter Charles George's bouncer with the bases filled and one out.

The first game was a brilliant pitching battle between Kapp Wickert and Martin Russo, both left-handers, the former chalking up his third straight victory. Wickert yielded five blows, two more than his opponent, but Russo, who was effective in the pinches.

The winning run came in the ninth when a sacrifice fly by pinch hitter Norman Kies, with the bases filled on a single and two balls tallied Arnold Moser, who ran for Al Parks.

Jersey City ran its winning streak to three straight before an overflow crowd of 26,362 customers by taking both ends of its double-header with Toronto Maple Leafs 6-1 and 1-0.

By Vandenberg, towering righthander, hurried the Royals to victory in the opener, limiting the Leafs to six hits. In chalking up his second triumph in as many starts Vandenberg did not issue a base on balls and fanned one.

Ray Honeycutt's first inning double and two wild pitches enabled New York to tie the game in the eighth with the only run in the nightcap. Buffalo swept a double-header with Syracuse Chiefs, before 4,000 fans, winning the opener 4-3 and the nightcap 6-2.

Lefty Bill Weir hurled Toronto Leafs to a 3-0 shutout over Newark Athletics 3-1 behind Jim Bagby's seven-hit pitching. George Caster won seven innings for the A's and allowed five hits, but his arm failed to hit in the pinches.

Two Boston runs were homers, one by Bagby and the other by Doer. The Red Sox first run was unearned, as Newsome threw wild to first on a ground ball permitting Taber to score from second.

Detroit Tigers thumped out 19 safeties to wallop Cleveland Indians 14-1 and made it the first of two engagements in their three-game series.

Yankees Held To Four Hits As Senators Make It Two Straight Over Champions

NEW YORK, April 30—(AP)—Three Washington pitchers headed by lefty Joe Krauskas held New York Yankees to four hits today to give the Senators their second straight victory of the series 3-2 and drop the champions into a tie with Boston for first place in the American League.

Krauskas kept the Yankees hitless for five innings and scoreless for six to get credit for his first victory of the year. He was removed for a pinch hitter in the eighth after New York scored one of its runs and Pete Appleton and Al Alexander finished the game.

The Senators compressed all their runs into the eighth inning after some splendid support helped Oral Hildebrand over several earlier rough spots.

St. Louis Browns 6-3. In the sixth inning, he sprang to the wall to rob Myril Hoar of a possible three-bagger with the bases loaded. The next inning he drove down Hoar's long fly with the men on, and in the ninth he tossed George McQuinn's hard liner with two more runners on.

The Washington "jinx" struck the Yankee twice Saturday, when the Yanks lost their second league game of the season to the Senators, Joe Dimaggio, star centerfielder and home run artist, for perhaps the first time in his career.

Dimaggio slipped in the wet grass in the third inning and injured his right leg. X-ray examination revealed he tore the leg muscles and the injury will keep him out of the lineup for only a week.

Allowing only eight scattered hits and striking out 13 batsmen, Bob Feller registered his 13th straight pitching victory and Cleveland defeated Detroit 7-1. The Bruins scored all of their runs and nine of 13 hits off Schroeder in the first four innings.

Chicago shaded St. Louis 4-3 after a see-saw battle. Boston and Philadelphia played a nip-tuck ball game with the 3-2 tie going to the Bostonians in the ninth when a single by pinch hitter Peacock scored Doerr from second.

Tommy Bridges, Detroit's veteran righthander, won his third consecutive pitching victory of the season. The defeat was charged to Koe Dobson, Cleveland recruit from New Orleans, who gave up 13 hits and nine runs in the first five innings.

Halifax Team Retains Todd Bowling Trophy

HALIFAX, April 30—(CP)—Halifax no. 1 team successfully defended the Todd Trophy, emblem of Canadian National Railways (Atlantic Region) candlepin bowling supremacy here Saturday, defeating New Glasgow in the final round by a margin of 124 pins.

In retaining the trophy they first captured in 1937 at Moncton and defended last year. Halifax defenders took all the honors. They had the high team total, 1,572; the high single string, 508; Benny Cookson had the highest three strings with 342, and Roy Harris 140 was the high single in the two-day rolling.

New Glasgow collapsed in the final match. The Pictou County team rolled only 1,389 against 1,623 for Halifax and were trailing in every string.

Cookson won the high three prize in the final match of the tournament. Roy Harris's 338, rolled in the first match Friday, outscored the pin pounding until late Saturday when Cookson came through with strings of 96, 129 and 117.

MONTREAL, April 30—(CP)—One of the largest registrations in the history of its organization was reported by the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association at its annual meeting here yesterday. The increase indicated an advance of almost 60 per cent in the last two years.
