REDUCTION IN PRICE OF NEWSPRINT

Announcement Made by International Paper Co. of Reduction to Take Effect in 1929.

(Special to the Guardian)

NEW YORK, Oct. 31—Announcement was made today by the International Paper Company of a reduction in the price of newsprint paper effective 1929. Officials of the corporation declined to state just the extent of this reduction, but said that it would be extended to all customers, including those who have already signed those contracts for 1929 requirements. A contract for substantial tonnage has been made by the International Paper Company with the Hearst papers for next year's requirements.

The statement issued by the paper company said, "We closed today a contract for a substantial tonnage of newsprint for the Hearst papers for several years at prices less than our present contract prices for next year. This transaction involves no deviation from our practice of announcing standard prices and as soon as the necessary details can be completed we will offer substantial price reductions to all our customers including those who have already signed their contracts for next year."

The trend of the newsprint prices has been downward for several months, although this is the first outright cut in the price per ton which has been announced. Newsprint for the first half of the current year was $66 per ton F O B mills plus $3 freight, making the aggregate price $69 per ton. In the second half of the year the price was fixed at $666 per ton, plus $3 freight, but less a rebate of $3 per ton of the first half of the next year's tonnage, making the actual rate $66 per ton.

There was considerable discussion today as to the actual price to be paid on the new contract announced by International paper and the amount of paper involved in the contract. One report was to the effect that the contract price is considerably below $60 per ton, and one report had it as low at $50 per ton These reports were all unconfirmed. Officials of the International Paper Company said that the new schedule would be ready for announcement within the next two or three days.

PRODUCERS MEETING AT CANOE COVE

Transportation Matters Discussed by Large Meeting of Farmers.

A large meeting was held in Canoe Cove Hall on Thursday, October 25th, to consider transportation problems affecting this part of the country. Mr. John A. McDougald presided.

The question of railway connection was first discussed and a report was made on the activities in this regard to date. It was stated that after the meetings held throughout this section two years ago petitions largely signed by farmers from Augustine Cove through the South side to Rocky Point had been forwarded to the Department of Railways and the Federal representatives for Queens and Prince counties had been notified to support these petitions. Up to the present time no tangible result in answer to the petitions were in evidence.

Arrangements were accordingly made to supply the Department at Ottawa with still further and more comprehensive data in regard to this largely needed facility and to continue in pressing the Federal Government with the necessity of railway communication throughout this part of the country.

Matters of more immediate importance were thoroughly discussed and it was brought to the attention of the meeting that the wharves at West River Bridge and McEwens were not only without warehouse facilities but were in such condition that it was dangerous for farmers to drive their horses on them. The West River Bridge has been condemned, although slight temporary repairs are now being made in order that farmers may carry on the shipping of potatoes. This condition is viewed with serious alarm by the producers. The opinion was freely expressed that both these wharves should be placed in first class repair and extended in such a way as to provide for the building of warehouses. A very large and productive country stretches back from the two shipping points with increasing exportation of potatoes and other produce from year to year.

The contract for the West River Bridge wharf has been called and it is understood that the structure is to be built next spring. No provision, however, has been made for a warehouse while such has been al-

The former secretary, who resigned from the cabinet after a rebuke from Mr. Wilson had been ill for about four weeks. Mr. Lansing's death marked the passing of the third of the trio who figured so prominently in the United States international policies prior to and during the war, President Wilson and William J. Bryan, the predecessor of Mr. Lansing as head of the State Department having preceded him.

Like Mr. Lansing Mr. Bryan also had retired from the Wilson cabinet because of differences with his chief. Mr. Bryan objected to the Wilson foreign policies, while Mr. Lansing ostensibly incurred the president's disfavor because he called cabinet meetings while the war president was ill.

GUELPH IS VISITED BY GOV. GENERAL

Viscount Willingdon Pays First Official Visit to the City on His Tour of Western Ontario.

(Special to The Guardian)

GUELPH, Oct. 31—Guelph today extended a royal greeting to Viscount Willingdon on the occasion of his first official visit to the city, and incidentally his initial stop on his tour of Western Ontario.

Enthusiastically acclaimed by a large gathering of citizens and 3,000 school children on his arrival by special train over the C. N. R. the distinguished visitor was the centre of a busy all day program which was brought to a termination with a banquet tendered in his honor in the Ryan Auditorium tonight.

From the time of his arrival until his departure at 9 o'clock for Kitchener His Excellency did not have a spare moment to himself, his itinerary including a visit to the city's beautiful war memorial where he placed a wreath, a drive around the city, tours of inspection at the O.A.C., Ontario reformatory and Vimy Ridge farm and a luncheon at the college at which the menu consisted entirely of products of the institution.

His Excellency's reply to the civic address couched in brief terms expressed his great pleasure at being able to visit the city and his full regard and appreciation for the hospitality accorded to him.

At the O. A. C. Lord Willingdon turned back the clock a few years and became a college freshman once more. Wearing the somewhat ludicrous red and blue "gob" cap of the O. A. C. "frosh" presented by President G. White, of the freshman year, he banquetted at noon with 400 or more students—possibly the most unique formal occasion he has attended since coming to the Dominion as the representative of royalty.

Past the row of chairs placed in front of the administration building was paraded the finest college live stock. A gentleman farmer in England for many years, he appraised the Shorthorns and Aberdeen Angus expertly. Particularly was he interested in "Quarter Cup" the three year old Shorthorn, her sire and one of the finest bulls in the province. President G. I. Christie extended a warm welcome to the Governor General, and Hon. John S. Martin, Minister of Agriculture expressed his pleasure at Lord Willingdon's visit to the college.

From the college, the Governor General proceeded to the Ontario reformatory where after being welcomed by Hon. Lincoln Goldie and Supt. C. F. Neelands inspection was made of the grounds, buildings and industries, after which the party proceeded to Vimy Ridge farm for British boys.

Marcus Garvey to Be Deported

MONTREAL, Oct. 31.—Deportation to Jamaica on November 7, was the decision of a board of inquiry, held by the Dominion immigration department officials here today in the case of Marcus Garvey, President-general of the Universal Negro Improvement Association. Garvey was arrested yesterday by immigration officials prior to a scheduled appearance on a public platform.

The negro leader said he would go to Toronto tonight. A scheduled address in the queen city, however, will not be given as Garvey posted bonds of $100 that he would not appear on any platform or give any press interviews prior to his departure next week. Garvey arrived here this week from England.

BONDHOLDERS WILL LOSE EVERYTHING

Heavy Loss Predicted in Failure of Financial Concern.

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—According to the Toronto Telegram, it is predicted that the bondholders of the Manufacturers' Finance Corporation, which went into liquidation last August, will lose everything they have invested in the concern. It is stated that at least $200,000 of the bonds sold are without any security whatever.

"One of the worst of financial failures is being revealed by the probe being conducted into the affairs of the corporation by G. T. Clarkson, under the direction of the master in bankruptcy," says the Telegram.

Crown Attorney McFadden of Toronto is in charge of prosecutions arising out of the failure of the corporation, and the developments of the investigations. W. N. McDonald, formerly manager of the corporation. was arrested yesterday charged with obtaining an amount of money from the Trust and Guarantee Company under false pretenses. J. W. R. Coates was also taken into custody on a warrant charging him with theft of $1,500 from the Manufacturers' Finance Corporation.

The Manufacturers' Finance Corporation was organized in 1923 to finance the sales of piano, radio and automobile companies. The company absorbed the Brantford Finance Corporation and the Bankers' Discount Corporation of Canada. Since the liquidation proceedings commenced a statement issued showed that the liabilities of the corporation amounted to $2,137,000 and the assets to $275,000.

It is understood that the principal business of the corporation was in connection with the discounting of customers' notes given to piano dealers.

"From present indications, there are several thousand pianos out on notes, which will have to be repossessed by the liquidators," said the Telegram today.

It is stated that the repudiation of the corporation's note insurance, estimated at $1.500,000, represents this much loss to the corporation. The insurance companies claim they did not receive notice of note renewals.

Dirigible Nears Her Destination

Big Ship Expected to Land at Friedrichshafen at 7 a. m. This Morning--Preparations for Her Reception Rushed and Number of Special Trains Arranged for.

(Canadian Press)

LE BOURGET, France, Oct. 31.—The Graf Zeppelin advised the wireless station here at 11.20 p. m. (6.20 eastern standard time) tonight that as a result of unfavorable weather it was heading straight for Bazel, Switzerland, and hoped to land at Friedrichshafen about 7 a. m. Thursday (presumed Greenwich time or 2 a. m. Eastern standard time).

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The monster dirigible Graf Zeppelin completed her second conquest of the Atlantic today. Homeward bound from the United States with 23 passengers and a crew of 40 aboard, the leviathan of the clouds was over French territory today and was expected to land at Friedrichshafen, Germany, before night.

She was reported 146 miles off Brest at 11 a. m. Central European time. (5 a. m. Toronto time) and over the Bay of Biscay an hour and a half later. As she neared her destination, preparations for her reception were rushed at Friedrichshafen.

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—Germans were sleeping soundly during the early morning hours here today with the comforting assurance that the Graf Zeppelin, after dodging storm areas, was rapidly approaching Europe. The few on watch were tolerably certain that the huge airship would be reported off the Irish coast this afternoon, and, if able to travel at full speed, it might come to roost at its hangar before nightfall.

In that case the whole Reich, and especially Friedrichshafen, was prepared to go mad with joy. It was possible, however, that the Zeppelin would reach its homeland after dark, in which case it would probably cruise about until daybreak before landing.

During the night and today German radio stations had tried vainly for the most part to get in touch with the dirigible. The operators were unable to decide whether their failure was due to atmospheric disturbances or to insufficient power of the airship's sending apparatus. The federal railways have arranged for a number of special trains to Friedrichshafen.

BALE OF COTTON WILL BE DROPPED

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—Accounts from Bremen say that the city is astir over an announcement by Texas cotton dealers that a bale of cotton will be dropped from the dirigible Graf Zeppelin as it passes over Bremen and will be auctioned on the exchange there. Some textile firms of Upper Silesia have instructed their representatives at Bremen to get that bale at any price up to 50 marks a pound.

Home Secretary Attacks Bishops

(Canadian Press)

TORONTO, Oct. 31.—A special cable from London to the Mail and Empire today says: Sir William Joynson-Hicks, Home Secretary, last night delivered a savage attack upon Bishops of the Church of England who have been asking their clergy to vote on the question of whether the church should defy the vote of the House of Commons and put into effect the pray book which Parliament had twice rejected.

Sir William was one of the leaders of the opposition to the revised prayer book in the historic debates over its use in the House of Commons. Last night he accused the bishops of acting without a sense of dignity, with attempting to revive the 'episcopal autocracy' with conniving to 'habitual breaking of vows,' by the clergy, with lending active support to 'Romanizing' of the Anglican church and with refusing to recognize that the vote of the House of Commons may have been God's answer to the prayer of bishops for guidance in a church crisis.

"I cannot but feel," the Home Secretary said, "that there is something perilously near to profaneness in the complete disregard by many of the promoters of the revised prayer book of the fact that the action of the House of Commons may quite possibly have been a divine answer to the prayers that were offered up."
