

Representatives Wanted

CANADA'S GREATEST INSURANCE COMPANY

The Sun Life of Canada

Wants reliable men to sell their new Investment Contract as well as standard plans. If you have ability as a salesman and want to improve your position, interview J. A. Moore, Manager for P. E. I. Bank of Commerce Bldg., Charlottetown.

AUCTION SALE

I will sell at my auction rooms, 82 Queen Street, commencing Thursday, Feb. 9th, at 10 o'clock sharp by order of the Canadian Importers of office supplies, of Amherst, the following: 1 doz. typewriters, cash registers, safes, large and small, 65 doz typewriter ribbons, 15 boxes carbon paper, half doz. check writers, filing cabinets and filing supplies, adding machine papers, 12 doz menu card holders for hotels and restaurants, McCaskey account register case, 20 boxes vertical filing folders, letter size, 500 adding machine instruction books, 1 box typewriter platen covers, 2 commercial travellers sample trunks, and several other articles.

J. A. MacDONALD, Auctioneer.

AUCTION SALE

Of Stock, Crop and Implements. I am authorized by J. W. Ford on the premises of the late Thomas Ford of New Glasgow Road to sell by public auction on Wednesday, Feb. 15th, commencing at 1 o'clock sharp, the following:

STOCK—3 horses; 6 head of cattle; 7 sheep; 2 fall pigs; 1 brood sow; 30 hens. CROP—100 bus. black oats; 30 bus. mixed grain; 5 tons hay quantity of straw. IMPLEMENTS—1 Cart; 1 truck wagon; 1 driving wagon; 2 wood sleds; 1 box sleigh; 1 high box sleigh; 1 roller; 1 hay mower; 1 binder, Massey Harris; 1 hay rake; 1 broad cast seeder; 1 Gang Plough; 1 single plough; 1 set pin harris; 1 set rangle harris. HARNESS—2 pads and breechings; 1 cart saddle and breeching; 2 sets of collar and harness; 2 sets of bridles; forks shovels and hoes and other articles too numerous to mention.

ALEX. MacRAE, Auctioneer.

Professional Car's

DONALD S. HART, Chartered Accountant (Formerly Travelling Auditor Income Tax Department) 130 Edward Street

Dr. C. C. Archibald, Graduate to N. Y. Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital Practice limited to Eye, Ear Nose and Throat.

Mark R. McGuigan, B. A., BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC. Money to Loan. Cameron Block, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

McLeod & Bentley, J. A. BENTLEY, W. E. BENTLEY, K. O. Barrister and Attorney-at-Law Office: 130 Richmond Street MONEY TO LOAN Charlottetown, P. E. I.

McDonald & McPhee, J. A. MacDONALD, H. F. McPHEE, B. A. Barristers, Attorneys, Etc. Money to Loan. Revly Building, Charlottetown.

FILL OUT AND MAIL TO THE ORATORY EDITOR CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN.

CANADIAN AND INTERNATIONAL ORATORICAL CONTESTS

Being conducted in Prince Edward Island by the Charlottetown Guardian.

I am a pupil of _____ college or school. I am interested in the Oratorical Contests and I would like to take part in them. On February 1, 1928, I shall be less than 19 years of age.

Name _____ Home Address _____ Date of Birth _____ School _____ Grade _____ Teacher's Name _____

MISS BROWN OF X. Y. O.

By E. Phillips Oppenheim (Copyright 1927 by E. Phillips Oppenheim)

She rose to her feet and began to button up her mackintosh. She looked doubtfully at the shaft of fog which seemed to have become denser. "I am not in the least nervous about myself," she said. "I am only afraid of getting lost outside, because I shall have the book with me. How do you think I had better try to get back to Shepherd's Market?"

"All that is arranged," he told her. "Morgan saw to it while we were at work. He is waiting outside for you." On the corner of the mantel-piece was lying a trifle at which she had gazed with fascinated eyes more than once. She leaned over and took it into her hand—a small but delectably-looking automatic, loaded in five chambers.

"Will you give me this," she begged. "If you do, I promise I will use it sooner than have the book taken away." He smiled quietly. "The time for that sort of thing," he remarked, "has almost passed. I remember when I had to use a revolver every week of my life. I used that little affair this afternoon for the first time for a year. Yes, take it if you will, but be careful!"

She reopened her satchel and slipped it in. She shivered a little as she remembered that the one empty barrel meant a man's life. Then she finished buttoning up her mackintosh, set her hat straight and looked down at him timidly. He held out his hand.

"Good-by, Miss Brown," he said. "I am very thankful to the fog for having sent you here." "And I am thankful, too," she declared fervently. "You will wear your bandage arranged at once if I go?"

"Immediately," he assured her. Upon the threshold she gave a farewell glance around the room. Its unreality seemed suddenly overpowering—a dead man behind the screen, a dying man upon the sofa, and all the throb and glamour of that marvelous story reproduced in cold black ink in the book she was carrying.

She closed her eyes, half expecting to reopen them and find herself still sitting in the fog upon the bottom step outside the house. As a matter of fact, she reopened them in the hall to find Morgan waiting for her.

"Will you please come this way, miss, and follow me closely," he begged. He relieved her of her typewriter, and, gripping the satchel in her hand, she followed him out of the back door and down a flight of steps into an area, finding his way by hugging the wall, he opened another door which led into what seemed to be a mews. There were two lights burning fiercely yet dimly through the fog from some vehicle, the nature of which she could scarcely distinguish. Morgan whispered for a moment with a vaguely seen figure. Then he turned back to his companion.

"I am afraid you will find it a little uncomfortable, miss," he said, "but it will not be for long. Do you mind getting in?"

They let down some steps. Miss Brown climbed into what seemed to be a furniture delivery van, carefully saving for a single chair. A man scrambled in after her and stood by her side. The van started off. Through the window she could faintly discern another figure seated by the driver.

"Tell me your address, please, miss," her companion begged.

She told him, and, as soon as they had emerged into a wider thoroughfare, he opened the window and repeated it to the driver. Afterward he resumed his place, standing by the door and holding on to the handle with the air of an attendant guarding a prison van. Miss Brown, whose stock of curiosity was almost exhausted, nevertheless asked him one question. "Notwithstanding his plain clothing, there was certainly something official about his manner."

"Are you a policeman?"

To The Electors Of Ward One

Ladies and Gentlemen:— I am again in the field as candidate for Councillor for Ward One. It elected it shall be my endeavor to faithfully discharge my duties as your representative, giving special attention to the needs of the Ward and at the same time doing my part in carrying on the civic administration in an efficient and economical manner.

I thank you for the generous support accorded me two years ago, and respectfully solicit your votes at the coming election.

Yours sincerely, DR. F. C. DOUGAN, 2081-dly.

To the Electors of Ward Two

Ladies and Gentlemen:— I have decided to accept the nomination as a candidate for councillor in Ward Two in the coming Civic Election.

Should you honor me by election 2229-2-3-41.

To the Electors of Ward 2

LADIES & GENTLEMEN:— As a Candidate for Ward 2 at the forthcoming Civic Election I take this opportunity of soliciting your support.

I am a property owner and resident of Ward Two, and you may rest assured that if you do me the honor of electing me I will do everything in my power for the good of the city in general and Ward Two in particular.

I am behind every movement that has as its objective the welfare of the citizens. I am,

Yours respectfully, VICTOR COYLE

To the Electors of Ward Five

Ladies and Gentlemen:— I will use my best endeavour to further the interests of Ward Two and also do my part to assist in carrying on the civic administration with efficiency and with due regard to economy.

M. W. BEARDON.

To the Electors of Ward Four

LADIES & GENTLEMEN:— In compliance with the request of a large number of the Electors of Ward 4, I am offering as a candidate for Councillor.

Having served the City as Councillor for four years in the past, my record is before you.

Of all the candidates now offering their services I am the only candidate who resides in the Ward.

If you do me the honor of electing me on the 8th Feby., I shall do my best to give you good, clean government, and direct representation as one of yourselves.

I am respectfully yours, J. D. TAYLOR

To the Electors of Ward 4

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:— I have been persuaded to offer as a candidate for Councillor in Ward 4 at the coming civic-election. I believe in economical and efficient government.

No city can make proper progress unless its streets, sidewalks, and all civic activities are kept abreast of the times. Charlottetown is a modern and most attractive city and it will be my duty to endeavor to keep it up to its present high standard.

Citizens should be furnished with more satisfactory lighting at a more reasonable cost. If practical, all utilities such as light and electrical power should be under city ownership. Permanent work must continue; taxation must be kept within reasonable bounds, economy practised in every department.

If elected it will be my aim to exercise all my ability in these directions in your behalf.

Respectfully yours, GEO. W. MacLEOD.

ELECTION CARD

LADIES & GENTLEMEN, Electors of Ward 2.

According to the request of a large number of taxpayers I have consented to become a candidate for Councillor in Ward 2, at the forthcoming election.

If elected I will, as I always have done, see to it that the strictest economy is practised, but not to the extent that would retard proper progress.

My experience as herein set forth should be sufficient proof of my qualifications:

During the building of the P. E. Island Railway I was on the engineers staff, accepting the contract of grading four miles of clay road. I continued contracting for five years and never had less than twenty-five men employed at one time—often as high as one hundred.

Many years ago I bought a lot on Richmond Street. The house was said to be seventy-five years old and was one of the first school houses in the city, known as Miss Dulpit's school. I built a fine three storey building on the site which is one of the best buildings on Richmond Street today. I continued buying building sites and erecting fine dwellings on many of those sites and which greatly improved the western section of Ward III. These properties bring in a nice income in taxes to the city.

Later I bought and operated the Mount Edward Road Stone Quarry and secured the contract for straightening the curve at Blue Shank.

My next contract was the building of a large wharf at Annandale, then followed the contract for completing the Hillsborough Bridge. After this was the building of three miles of railway from Souris into the gravel pit and then the Railway Wharf in this city.

I had the honor of occupying a seat at the Council Board for three terms—six years; the first two years as Chairman of the Light Committee; the next two as Chairman of the Market Committee and the last two Chairman of the Street Committee.

This will show that I am well qualified to occupy a seat at the Council Board. I am satisfied that the taxpayers should be thus informed and will no doubt see to it that they have a man with such experience to represent them.

THOS. CAMPBELL

To the Electors of Ward Three

LADIES & GENTLEMEN:— By request of a large number of Electors, I have nominated to contest Ward Three in the coming Civic Elections.

There are many promises one could make, but the only one reasonable is, that I will, if elected, do all in my power to make Charlottetown more beautiful and sanitary, with due regard to economy.

As it is not possible to call on each voter personally, I take this opportunity of respectfully soliciting your support on Election Day.

Yours for a clean Civic Government

Arthur H. MacDougall

A Man of Action

LADIES & GENTLEMEN:— Electors of Ward Three.

As your Councillor for the past two years, and as Chairman of the Police Committee and also a member of the Board of Health, and with my record before you, I desire to say that I have always endeavored to be a man of action—that is, I have always acted in your best interests. What are words without action?

When I promise economy consistent with civic advancement and the safeguarding of our finances together with all things for the welfare of our city, you know my words will be followed by action.

I hope I shall have the pleasure of thanking you for your support on election day and also take this opportunity of thanking you for your support in the past. I remain,

Yours respectfully, A. A. HENNESSEY.

To the Electors of Ward 5

Ladies & Gentlemen:— I have again decided to offer my services to the electors of Ward 5 at the forthcoming Civic Election on February 8, 1928.

Having represented you the past six years in the City Council, and the last four years as Chairman of the Finance Committee, my record is before you.

I stand for good clean Civic government, I am in favor of permanent work, consistent with our revenues. Our debt is growing, but the need of keeping our city in good shape is essential and the permanent work must go on. I am in favor of economy and will not support any increase in taxes unless absolutely necessary.

If elected, you can depend on me to safeguard your interests in every way, as I love my native city.

Yours sincerely, T. W. L. PROWSE

To the Electors of Ward 4

LADIES & GENTLEMEN:— I have again decided to offer my services to the electors of Ward 4 at the forthcoming Civic Election on February 8, 1928.

Having represented you the past six years in the City Council, and the last four years as Chairman of the Finance Committee, my record is before you.

I stand for good clean Civic government, I am in favor of permanent work, consistent with our revenues. Our debt is growing, but the need of keeping our city in good shape is essential and the permanent work must go on. I am in favor of economy and will not support any increase in taxes unless absolutely necessary.

If elected, you can depend on me to safeguard your interests in every way, as I love my native city.

Yours sincerely, T. W. L. PROWSE

To the Electors of Ward 5

Ladies & Gentlemen:— I have again decided to offer my services to the electors of Ward 5 at the forthcoming Civic Election on February 8, 1928.

Having represented you the past six years in the City Council, and the last four years as Chairman of the Finance Committee, my record is before you.

I stand for good clean Civic government, I am in favor of permanent work, consistent with our revenues. Our debt is growing, but the need of keeping our city in good shape is essential and the permanent work must go on. I am in favor of economy and will not support any increase in taxes unless absolutely necessary.

If elected, you can depend on me to safeguard your interests in every way, as I love my native city.

Yours sincerely, T. W. L. PROWSE

Hubby: You winked at Tom this afternoon. Wifey: Well, I believe in "an eye for an eye"—and he winked first.

He relieved her of her typewriter, and, gripping the satchel in her hand, she followed him out of the back door and down a flight of steps into an area, finding his way by hugging the wall, he opened another door which led into what seemed to be a mews.

There were two lights burning fiercely yet dimly through the fog from some vehicle, the nature of which she could scarcely distinguish. Morgan whispered for a moment with a vaguely seen figure. Then he turned back to his companion.

"I am afraid you will find it a little uncomfortable, miss," he said, "but it will not be for long. Do you mind getting in?"

They let down some steps. Miss Brown climbed into what seemed to be a furniture delivery van, carefully saving for a single chair. A man scrambled in after her and stood by her side. The van started off.

Through the window she could faintly discern another figure seated by the driver.

"Tell me your address, please, miss," her companion begged.

She told him, and, as soon as they had emerged into a wider thoroughfare, he opened the window and repeated it to the driver. Afterward he resumed his place, standing by the door and holding on to the handle with the air of an attendant guarding a prison van.

Miss Brown, whose stock of curiosity was almost exhausted, nevertheless asked him one question. "Notwithstanding his plain clothing, there was certainly something official about his manner."

"Are you a policeman?"

Continued On Page 5

For Golds, Grip, Influenza and as a Preventive

Long serious illness and complications often follow Colds, Grip and Influenza. Guard your health against this danger. Price 50c. (Made in Canada) The box bears this signature C. W. Spoor Proven Merit since 1889

Clearance Auction Sale

At Winsloe on Thursday, Feb. 16th, commencing at 12 o'clock sharp.

I am instructed by Parker A. Horne to sell by Auction on his Premises his valuable farm, consisting of 175 acres of choice land, 165 clear, balance in Hard and Soft wood, farm one of the best in Maritime Provinces, beautifully situated only 1 mile from Winsloe Station, 6 from Charlottetown. Good Buildings, close to Church and school, well-watered and fenced, a real Home, in a great farming district. Is for sale private till day of sale.

House connected by telephone. Also all my valuable stock, etc., as follows:—Stock: Horses, 1 Racing Gelding 7 yrs, John Aubrey, 22 1/2, has been miles in 17, sound and ready to race, eligible to 2.25 class; 2 Work Horses 8 and 9 yrs, weighing 2600 lbs; 1 Hackney filly 1 yr.; 10 Head of Registered Pol Angus Cattle, including 4 Cows, 5 Heifers, 1 Bull 1 year old; 5 Pigs; 2 Pure York brood Sows; 3 Pure Bred Berkshires ready to breed; 8 Sheep; 1 Ram; 50 Hens.

CROP—500 Bushels of White Oats, Good Seed; 25 Bus. Barley; 10 Bus. Wheat; 100 Bus. Mangels; 200 Bus. Turnips.

IMPLEMENTATIONS—1 International Tractor 8 1/2, almost new, with full outfit complete; 1 International Hay Press; 1 Hay Loader; 1 Side delivery rake; Hay Mower; Manure Spreader; 1 Hiler; 1 Scuffer; Gang Plow; Single Plow; Truck Wagon Pole, complete; 1 set Double Sleighs, Pole Swings; 1 Western Thrasher with blower complete; 1 15 run Disc Drill; 1 20 Seater Carriage 1 single carriage; Express wagon (new); 1 Driving Sleigh; 1 High Box Sleigh; Pontiac Sedan (new); Fordore 6 Cylinder, only run 1500 miles; 1 seven and all kinds of Double and Single Harness; 1 Bike Sulky, McMurtry; Lot of Tack; 1 set Tuttle and Clark Hopples, (all new); 1 Cream Separator; Washing Machine, and all Household Furniture; 1 Home Comfort Range; 3 Heating stoves and lot of Carpenter's Tools, and many articles not mentioned.

Sale positive, inspection any time, Phone R411, or apply by letter to owner on Premises. Teams will meet all trains at Winsloe Station. Sale starts positively on time. Terms of Farm at Sale, of stock and crop etc., 9 months on all sums over $10.00. 6% per annum off for cash.

J. A. MacDONALD, Auctioneer PARKER A. HORNE, Winsloe