AMATEUR ATHLETIC ASS'N. HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Report of Acting President Mr. S. Doyle Shows Very Successful Year's Work—Committees Appointed.

The annual meeting of the A. A. Association was held last night in the Board of Trade rooms and was largely attended. Mr. Sam Doyle acting President who presided gave an extended and detailed report of the activities of the association during the past year. This report showed that the year was one of the most successful financially and otherwise in the history of the club.

Mr. Doyle spoke particularly of the fine showing put up by the hockey team last winter and also stated that the various athletic meets held were a success from every standpoint and brought to the front many young athletes who will in the future keep up the record established by their predecessors in the island sport world.

In reference to the track meet held in Halifax Mr. Doyle reported that Islanders had showed the way in many of the events and had made an excellent impression on

MR. GELDART ON BRIEF CHINA AT GO TO POLLS Y. M. C. A.

The present political situation in China was ably reviewed last night at the Y. M. C. A. by Mr. John H. Geldart "Y" foreign secretary at Shanghai, China and a native of Moncton, N. B. Mr. Geldart was the guest of honor and principal speaker at a banquet attended by about a hundred members which was in the local "Y" last evening.

After an excellent supper provided by the Ladies Auxiliary Dr. Ayers introduced Mr. Geldart, who at the outset stated that his purpose was to bring to Canadians the message of hope of the Chinese people. During the last year he had been working in north-western and western China and had thus gained a wide point of view of the general political situation. He meant to deal with this only as it affected politics, education, and economics. Though religion is always a great factor in the affairs of a nation it had no part in the hearing on the existing conditions in China.

Newspaper reports had been filled lately with accounts of battles chiefly about Shanghai, but this did not mean that there was any real danger to the country for only a short time. Sporadic civil wars had been disturbing China for the last thirteen years and had been the outcome of the corrupt rule of the Manchu dynasty, which had resulted in civil rebellion in 1911-12. The Manchu Emperors had neglected the upkeep of canals, roads, etc. For twenty years Dr. Sun-Yat-Sen of Canton worked for rebellion and was rewarded by being made the first president of the new republic. Since 1911 most of the Republican presidents

Lloyd George's Sarcastic Reference To Moscow Letter

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, Oct. 28.—David Lloyd George in a speech today made sarcastic reference to the political situation in connection with the letter from Zinovieff, President of the Legislative Council of the Communist Internationale, to the Communist Party of the British Commonwealth Party urging the "violent overthrow of existing institutions in Great Britain and the subversion of His Majesty's armed forces as a means to that end."

"I am going to apologize to the Labor Party," Lloyd George said. "I said if that money (proposed Russian loan) were paid to the Russians we would never see it again. I was wrong, for a good deal of it would come back here in the form of money spent in propagating insurrection."

Mr. Lloyd George, continued in a sarcastic vein, said: "The Labor Party is running 521 candidates in the present election. In these constituencies millions of the Russian loan are to be spent employing English Labor. There has been nothing like this since the Miracle of the loaves and fishes."

G. W. V. A. Monthly Meeting Held Last Evening

(Special to Guardian)
ROME, Oct. 28.—The body of Pope Leo XIII, tonight reposed in its final resting place. The ceremonies of entombment took place this morning in the Basilica of St. Peter and were carried out with solemnity but with the utmost simplicity.

The entire diplomatic corps of the Vatican attended dressed in full uniform. The service was performed for the first outside the Vatican since 1870. Other units of the Papal guard also served but they were dressed in civilian clothes. Cardinal Pompilii acting both in the capacity of an arch-priest of St. John and Papal vicar-general, officiated.

After the requiem mass, which was attended by most of the members of the sacred college, work of the Papal guard also served but they were dressed in civilian clothes. Cardinal Pompilii acting both in the capacity of an arch-priest of St. John and Papal vicar-general, officiated.

ELECTORS THREE DAYS TO GO AND NEARLY $27,000 TO COLLECT

Orphanage Campaign Has Now Run Half Its Course and Workers Are More Determined Than Ever to Reach the $50,000 Objective.

"We have accomplished much since last Friday," said W. F. Tidmarsh, Vice-Chairman of the entire campaign organization, "and I think we can feel gratified at this newly established total of $23,183. Now is the time to bend all our efforts to make this campaign a plus success. We cannot slacken the pace, even for an hour. The Charlottetown teams are in their stride and they must keep it. Do not flag in your efforts, fellow workers, but keep up your splendid enthusiasm and we shall make this campaign the success it should be, to the credit of every man and woman in the entire province."

"We cannot and must not be overconfident," Mr. Tidmarsh continued, "the slightest overconfidence would lead to relaxation of our efforts. This is the time for vigorous efforts, not for resting on our oars. There remain only three days in the campaign, and we must reach the $50,000 mark by Friday night."

Charlottetown is setting the pace for the entire Province, in the big campaign to raise $50,000 for the Protestant Orphanage. Charlottetown's big clock—the clock on which all eyes are turned—is within a few minutes of six o'clock. $23,183 is the new grand total for the campaign. The Women's Division still holds its three-day lead over the Men's Division. The women, commanded by Mrs. W. K. Rogers, Chairman, and Mrs. H. Hooper Horne, Vice-Chairman, reported $2,738, while the men's report was $1,116.

Summerside reported last night a total of $391, and the Executive Committee in this city turned in last night $196, the result of one of many telegrams sent to former "Islanders." Last night's total was $4,356.

Mrs. W. A. Huestis is enthusiastic over the splendid success of her team of wonder-workers in winning the Champions of the Corps banner last night with a report of $700. Mrs. Noel DeBlois' team again captured the Women's Division banner, having collected $450. With regret and mournful mien, Walter S. Grant, captain of Team 9, handed over the Men's Division

S' SIDE DEFIES MONTAGUE

Western Centre Has Total to Date of $4,422 for Orphanage.

(Canadian Press)
MOSCOW, Oct. 28.—Summerside has accepted Montague's challenge, and has dared Montague to do his best. Summerside's cry still is: "Beat Charlottetown!"

$1,014 was added to Summerside's grand total in the Protestant Orphanage campaign, thereby bringing the grand total to date up to $4,422.

Every woman worker is jubilant because the Women's Division, which trailed the Men's Division yesterday, has regained its lead and plans to hold it until the end of the campaign on Thursday night. No man feels anything except

No Suspension of Railway Order

(Special to Guardian)
OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—There will be no suspension of the order of the Board of Railway Commissioners setting aside the Crows Nest Pass rates on west bound commodities. This was the decision reached at a brief meeting held at noon to consider a petition received from H. J. Symington, counsel for the western provinces asking that the order be rescinded until appeal could be made to the Governor in Council.

POLICE CHIEF SAYS HE GOT NO "GRAFT"

He Borrowed Money From Other Officers But Paid it Back.

MONTREAL, Oct. 28.—Tony Frank and Frank Gambino, two of the murderers who were hanged at Bordeaux jail on Friday morning, had never paid him money in connection with disordered houses which, according to investigating counsel, the dead bandits conducted. This was the testimony of Chief of Police Belanger today before Mr. Justice Coderre, who is enquiring into Montreal police affairs and the vice conditions of the city.

Tony Frank, according to J. P. Lanctot, counsel for the investigation of petitioners, had kept five such resorts, while Gambino operated there.

"According to our information you received $100 a month for each house," observed Mr. Lanctot. "This manner of proceedings was objected to by J. A. Sullivan, K.C., counsel for the police, and Mr. Lanctot continued: "This information is from the confession of one of those who died."

The Chief of Police said that the statement was false. He had never received anything of value, money or other way from any keeper of a disordered house during thirty-one years of service.

Counsel subjected the chief to an examination of incidents associated with his private life, to which Mr. Belanger took strong exception. An appeal to the court furnished the decision, however, that it was impossible to distinguish between the witness as a private person

Allied Experts Meet in Paris

(Special to The Guardian)
PARIS, Oct. 28.—The experts representing the Allied Governments and the United States today began to make preparations for projected conference with the Finance Ministers on the distribution of German reparations payments under the Dawes plan.

As much of the preliminary work as possible will be done before the meeting with the ministers. This meeting cannot be called until after the British elections.

Col. James A. Logan, United States observer with the reparations commission who will represent the United States both at the present gathering and at the subsequent minister's conference, was not present at today's meeting, having been slightly indisposed for a day or two.

Protest Wearing of German Uniforms

(Special to The Guardian)
ELMIRA, Ont., Oct. 28.—German army uniforms worn by the soldiers of the Kaiser in the late war, have become so common in the streets of Elmira as to have occasioned much protest locally.

The uniforms are worn by German farm immigrants, who have come to this country during the last year, of which there are a large number. They were former soldiers of the Imperial army and their army caps and uniforms appear to be the only clothes they possess.

Steps are being taken to prevent the uniforms from being worn.

JUSTICE R. M. MEREDITH

Meted out punishment to Peter Smith, former Provincial Treasurer of Ontario, and Aemilius Jarvis, they are to be kept in custody until the fines are paid. These fines are the stiffest which have ever been imposed on anybody in the history of the British Empire. The sentences are being appealed.

AGREEMENT REACHED

(Special to The Guardian)
LONDON, Oct. 28.—The League of Nations Council has reached an agreement on the dispute between Turkey and Great Britain over the Iraq border and the Mosul Oil fields which was referred to the council for arbitration according to an exchange Telegraph despatch from Brussels.

Breezy Show At Prince Edward

Large houses at the Prince Edward Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening heartily enjoyed "Trip Along" the second day's bill of the Jimmy Evans Company, which even exceeded the high expectations of those who had already seen or heard reports of the excellent qualities of this fast moving company and the ability of its members as entertainers.

Again the favorites of the audiences were Bart Crawford, the black face comedian, who as a creator of genuine and whole-hearted laughter is unexcelled.

He was heard also last night in song and stage chatter and also in dialogue with John Fagan, Irish comedian, and others. The step dancing of the latter was another feature of yesterday's show and drew good applause. William Loker again was at his best in straight comedy and vocal solos. Fred Ross, violinist ably sustained the reputation he made for himself on the opening day and in addition proved himself an elocutionist of merit in an Italian imitation, Bobbie Dunn, juvenile in vocal solos and dialogue parts was invariably rewarded with hearty applause. Katherine Phillips, soubrette, and Millie Ross, Prima Donna, rendered vocal solos that also elicited the maximum of applause.

The company's male trio made another big hit especially with their original rendition of "It Ain't Going to Rain No Mo." Rounded out with the pleasing singing and clever dancing of the girl chorus, the color effect of brilliant settings and original and varied costumes, the show, taken as a whole was one of the best of its kind seen here for some time, and boded well for what may be expected on succeeding nights of this engagement. It was announced that a benefit performance would be given on Friday afternoon in aid of the Protestant Orphanage.
