Electric light fittings and hot water radiators are about to be installed. The house is being built to the order of Megden Anderson by Messrs Schurman of Summerside.

MAGISTRATES COURT.—As the result of the big day yesterday at the Exhibition there were only three drunks. In fact the whole week has been remarkable for the orderly conduct of the multitude of the visitors who have crowded to the city and grounds. The penalties imposed were $20 or 60 days, and $10 or 30 days, the third offender being let off with an admonition, this being his first offence.

RETURN DANCE.—A return dance was given by a number of the young men on Thursday to the young ladies who were responsible for the clam bake on the North River Shore a few weeks ago. About 125 couples assembled in the K. C. Hall where a delightful evening was whiled away in dancing to music furnished by Miss Hattie Gills. The floor was ideal and the floor director Mr. Fitzgerald was untiring in his efforts to have everyone enjoy themselves. A dainty supper was served during an interval. The chaperones were Mrs. Arsenault and Mrs. G. McCormack.

A PRETTY WEDDING took place at Freetown on Wednesday evening the 22nd inst., when Miss Roberta, daughter of Mrs. Marcus Deacon, was united to Mr. George Jardine, also of Freetown. The beautiful strains of the wedding march which was played by Mrs. Frank Deacon, announced the coming of the bride and groom precisely at 7.30 o'clock. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Frank Deacon, was very becomingly attired in white silk, and wore the conventional veil. The couple stood under a prettily arranged arch of ferns and flowers while the ceremony was being performed by the Rev. George Morris of Kensington. After the sumptuous wedding supper was over, and during the course of a pleasantly spent evening, quite a large number of friends, some being dressed as characters, gathered outside to extend best wishes, and departed after giving three lusty cheers for the bride and groom. Their many friends are congratulating the happy couple and are glad that another of Freetown's popular young women is making her home in the community.
