WARNING!

Charlottetown, January 8th, 1900.
Do you need Eye-glasses or Spectacles?
Do you want the services of a Doctor of optics and many years practice free?
Do you think of getting glasses soon?
Do you want the best made at about half the price you have formerly paid?
Do you want to patronize a man that has fitted 880 pairs (or 8 pairs a day average) of glasses in P. E. I. without a single failure?
Do you want to patronize a man who has fitted more than nineteen thousand pairs of glasses.
In short, do you want to be fitted by a man whose success has been excelled by none?
Then you must call at once as Dr. Jordan will only remain a short time longer. If you put it off too late then don't blame us as we warn you, you can only have his services a few days longer.
If you have any trouble with the glasses that you have had from us call and we will very willingly do what we can to adjust the trouble.

Yours respectfully,

BOSTON OPTICAL CO.

Not the Kind the Policemen Use. What? Our Bracelets

We have a very fine line of solid gold, gold filled, and silver bracelets Just the thing for Xmas presents. Also something nice in solid gold cuff links, gold chains and Gents' front studs. Silver novelties and ebony odds.
Come and see them, but come quick as they are selling fast.

At the last meeting of Cavendish Literary Society the program for the evening was "A Review of the Past Year." W. Simpson was the opener of the subject and reviewed the happenings all over the world during the year 1899. The other speakers were the President, Arthur Simpson, T. W.
Simpson and T. B. McNeil. The discussion was interesting and calculated to refresh the minds of the audience on the notable events of the eventful year that has just closed. This society is at present getting additions to its already extensive and excellent library, from publishers in the United States.

The January Magazine Number of The Outlook contains, as always with these illustrated monthly numbers, in addition to the well-told history of the week, editorials on important and timely topics, book review and other editorial departments, a group of illustrated articles of interest and with entertaining quality. This month The Personal Side of the New Congress is treated in an original way by Mrs. Isabel C. Barrows, wife of ex-Congressman Barrows, with many portraits and other pictures; Mr.
Hamilton W. Mabie, in The Forerunner of Shakespears, furnishes the introductory chapter to his series of papers on Shakespeare, which with abundant and beautiful illustration, will make the most important literary feature of the year for The Outlook; Dr. Van Dyke contributes a charmingly spiritual bit, The Foot Path to Peace; the story of the New York Outdoor Recreation League is told with pictures by Mr. Arthur Henry; there are portraits and Sketches of two great soldiers, Lord Roberts and General Lawton, and two famous educators, Mrs. Agassiz and Miss Hazard; Mrs. Bedford Fenwick, a pioneer in London trained nursing reforms, writes most interestingly of The Evolution of the Trained Nurse; Marlowe's Assignment is the title of a newspaper life, in turns humorous and pathetic; and a beautiful photograph of winter life gives occasion to reprint some passages from Whittier's Snow Bound, with a brief appreciation of the poem and the author by Mr. Mabie. ($3 a year. The Outlook Company, New York.)

We have sold an immense lot of Ulsters, Overcoats and Reefers.

We have still a good many left, and we are not going to keep them very long. They must be sold and to do this we won't be particular about the price.

Come in and select what you need and we will make the price right.

Children's Reefers and Ulsters.
Boy's Reefers and Ulsters.
Men's Reefers and Overcoats.

This is quite an assortment to choose from, as we had an immense stock this winter.

If you have not already bought, now is your chance to get cheap clothing.
