Bees Take Second Win Off Imperials

Held to 11 hits by smart twirling of Earl Goss, Imperials last night suffered their second defeat at the hands of the Bees when they were defeated by an 8-4 score in a scheduled City Softball League encounter.

Scoring two runs on a hit and an error in the 3rd inning Bees increased their margin to 4-0 by the sixth. Here the Bees tied it up by a four-hit attack in the last half of the same innings but successive two-run spurts in the 7th and 8th gave the winners their margin of victory.

Bees were retired in order in the first half of the 9th and last frame. The same thing was handed out to the hard-driving Imperials in the first half of the same frame.

Feature of the game was a one-handed stab of "Doc" Gannis of the Bees when he snared a line drive by McDonald in left field to end a threatening rally by the Imperials in the 6th frame.

Jim Braddock Would Fight Max Schmeling

By ROBERT STEVENSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, June 28—Max Schmeling, who went to the hospital instead of the heavyweight throneroom when he met Joe Louis, has been extended an invitation for a fight by Jimmy Braddock. When Jim wore the world crown Der Mox campaigned noisily for a scrap, and when he didn't get it he suggested the Jersey Irishman was afraid. Jim says he'd be willing to come out of retirement to meet the German this fall.

Tommypandy Tommy Parr, who distinguished himself by staying 15 rounds with lay-out Louis, continues to shout he has more right to a return go with the champion than Max Baer. Marvelous Max, you'll remember, lasted less than four rounds with the tan thunderbolt in what came to be known as the "$1,000,000 fight". Promoter Mike Jacobs is reported willing to give Louis to Parr this winter if the Welshman can dash and bring this fall—and get by him, of course.

Meantime, Schmeling is being good humored about his stay in hospital with the cracked vertebrae. He spends most of his time reading books on hunting, forestry and agriculture. Flight circles hear the rumors that Tony Canzoneri plans a comeback will be confirmed shortly by the former big-time ruler, who looked burned out in his last bout. He did not seem to get over the whipping Vancouver's Jimmy McLarnin gave him in 1936.

Decision of the United States Olympic Committee that no athlete whose performance is not better than that of the eighth-place finisher at the last Olympiad will be taken to the 1940 games has been seen in some quarters as indicating the committee expects difficulty in raising funds to send its contingent to war-embroiled Japan.

This Sam Chapman who has hit nine homers in 36 games with Connie Mack's Philadelphia ball team and is travelling at a 358 batting clip was hot stuff on the gridiron for California U. He was an all-around star in the 1940 games, business manager of Cincinnati's surprising Reds, is in a fine steeple now that the all-star ball game will be taken to the 1940 games. He expects orders for upwards of 100,000 seats. It's costing the Reds $1,000 to put in a special press-box to seat the 200 sports writers expected for the game. Giles commends himself with the thought they may need it for the world series. Incidentally, the Reds' double no-hitter pitching star now answers to the name of Vander Meer-Acle.

V8's Capture Juvenile Game

The V-8's last night defeated the C. C. Chev's in a Juvenile Baseball League game at the Victoria Park diamond 11-4.

The V-8's have been defeated only once in five starts and another win will give them the first scratch. Bob Larter on the mound for the winners fanned 12 batsmen while allowing only eight hits. Gauthier, opposing pitcher, garnered 10 strike-outs and allowed seven hits.

"CAP" STUBBS AND TIPPIE

Vander Meer Hurls Reds To 5-2 Victory Over Pirates; Tribe Defeats Tigers 5-4

NEW YORK, June 28—Cincinnati Reds, who have come to rely on Johnny Vander Meer as much as Johnny relies on his pay cheque, accomplished a lot of things today behind another of the young southpaw's handsome pitching jobs.

They beat the Pirates 5-2; cut the Giants' National League baseball lead to a game and a half; widened the margin over the third-place Cubs by a full game, and chalked up their first triumph in 22 appearances at Forbes Field. They hadn't won here since the second game of a double-header on Aug. 11, 1936.

Vander Meer, after getting off to a shaky start, settled down and pitched one-hit ball for the last six innings. Behind him the Reds let loose a 14-hit attack that sent Russ Bauers to the showers in the seventh. Frank McCormick led the parade with four singles in five trips to the plate.

At Chicago St. Louis Cardinals Combined a seven run blast in the third inning with some excellent pitching by Lon Warneke to beat the Cubs 9-3.

Warneke held the Cubs to seven hits while his mates pounded Tex Carleton, Charlie Root and Al Epperly for 13 hits. One was a home run with two on base by Martin, who drove in four of the nine Cardinal runs.

INCREASE LEAGUE LEAD

NEW YORK, June 28—A crowd of 18,000 saw the American League

leading Indians belt Tommy Bridges for five runs in the second inning and then hang on to gain a 5-4 decision over Detroit Tigers that ran the Indians' league lead to 4 1-2 games over the rained-out Yankees.

Jeff Heath led off on Bridges with a triple; Earl Averil walked, and both came riding home as Hal Trasky boosted his 11th homer over the right field wall. A moment later Kent Keltner followed that with a terrific blast that cleared the centre field fence and when Frankie Pytlak, the next batter, singled, Bridges was yanked in favor of southpaw Harry Eisenstat.

The Indians got one more run and one hit before the former Brooklyn schoolboy could retire the side, but from then on they didn't even come close to the plate.

St. Louis, Marvin Owen's steal home in the ninth inning provided Chicago White Sox with the margin of victory over the Browns. The score was 10-9.

Owen's steal dash came with two out and the bases loaded. A few moments before Rip Radcliff had homered with Hayes and Kreevich on base to break a 6-6 tie.

The Browns in their half of the ninth just missed tying the score for the third time when Cox, running for Heath, was thrown out at the plate to end the game.

Rookie Case Of Senators Budding Star

By EDDIE GILMORE
Associated Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON, June 28—This is the case of George Washington Case—the rookie with the strong heart and a pair of baseball's feet.

Booted by capital fans six weeks ago, he's now the toast of the team, a regular in the Senators' lineup and fifth among the American League batsmen. The 22-year-old Lynchburg, who comes from Trenton, N. J., began the season against odds that would have broken the hearts of many young players.

Playing centrefield in one of the year's first games, he saw Jimmy Ponder, N. J., begin the season with a high fly his way. George misjudged it by 20 feet and it fell for a double. Washington fans are easy on rookies, but his error was so rank they let loose with the boos. Owner Clark Griffith, who was sitting in the stands, winced.

"That," he sighed, "may ruin that boy." A few minutes later the inning was over and Case came to bat. The boos swelled in volume. George turned to the stands and thumbed his nose at the fans.

Clark Griffith—who's been judging ball players for 50 years—grinned. "That kid," he said, "has got a heart."

Manager Bucky Harris started playing Case regularly and his batting average blossomed. His record is eloquent proof of Harris' sound judgment. In 34 games he swatted 349.

Case has had nine doubles, a pair of triples and a home run, and as lead-off man has driven in 15 runs.

VOLLEYBALL LEAGUE WILL OPEN ON HOLY REDEEMER-COURT TONIGHT

The Holy Redeemer Volley-ball League will open tonight at 8:30 with the Yacks and Ramblers clashing.

Six teams are entered in the League and competition promises to be keen.

STRAWBERRY JUICE COCKTAILS.

2 cups ripe strawberries, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1-3 cup orange juice, 1-4 cup grapefruit juice and 1-2 tablespoons lemon juice.

Wash, hull and slice the berries, sprinkle with the sugar, and let stand 1-2 hour. Add the orange, grapefruit juice, lemon juice and sugar. Mix and squeeze through a cheesecloth. Chill thoroughly and serve in old-fashioned or double-sized cocktail glasses. Garnish each cocktail with a large whole strawberry and a slice of orange clipped over the edge of the glass.

Play Opens Wednesday In Tournament

The Charlottetown Tennis Club's closed tournament will get underway on Wednesday afternoon with play scheduled in the women's singles. Forty entries have been received and play in this division of the tournament promises to be unusually keen.

The acquisition of a large number of lady members to the club this year compared to last season has added greatly to the interest in the tournament, and many of the youthful club members are expected to provide stiff competition to veteran campaigners.

Play in other divisions of the tourney which is being run by Charles McQuaid will be announced later.

The schedule for Wednesday follows:

5:30 P. M.:
R. Sinclair vs. M. James.
C. O'Meara vs. L. Duchemin.
E. McDougall vs. W. Davidson.
P. LePage vs. C. Hyndman.
6:30 P. M.:

D. Heartz vs. D. McDonald.
F. Howatt vs. R. Christie.
C. McGuigan vs. A. Lawson.
F. Arsenault vs. J. Forsythe.

Hershey Granted Franchise In Inter-Am Hockey League

BY WILLIAM H. HUMSDAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, June 28—(CP)—Hershey, Pennsylvania manufacturer of town of 2,000 inhabitants, will try its luck at professional hockey. It was announced at the annual meeting of the International-American League today that Hershey had been granted a franchise.

For years this modern little centre was prominent in the Eastern United States Amateur League, drawing crowds from a surrounding well-populated district, including Harrisburg, state capital. J. B. Sollenberger, head of the new venture, thinks the professional game will be even more successful.

As rumored since the close of the last National League season, little Larry Aurie, right wing star of Detroit Red Wings, will coach Pittsburgh Pirates in the Int-Am.

John H. Harris, Club President, said the 32-year-old veteran would play, handling the team from the ice.

The appointment brought to a close a colorful 11-year big league playing career for the Sudbury sniper, one of the N. H. L.'s top scorers.

There was the usual "routine business." Making permanent last year's experiment, the Canadian-American League and the International League have been disbanded to operate under the Int-Am banner.

The loop will operate in two divisions of four teams each, with Hershey rounding out the western group.

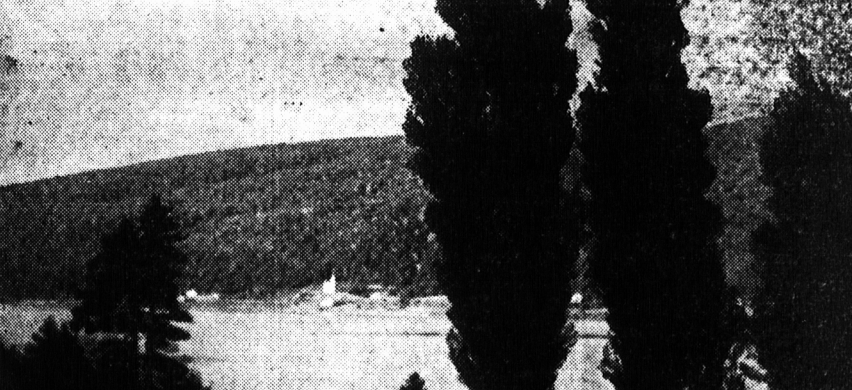

Maurice Podoloff of New Haven president of the eastern division last season, was named president of the combined league, with John Chick of Windsor, Ont., vice president, in charge of referees.

The league heads decided to start their season Oct. 29 and close March 12, one week earlier than in previous campaigns. The next meeting will be held in Chicago July 25.

Colored oiled silk raincoats with umbrellas to match are popular.

Capes of grey or natural blue fox are being worn in Paris.
