THE ONLY PLAYER-PIANO WITH AN ALUMINUM ACTION
A DISTINCTIVE INSTRUMENT

The swelling and the shrinkage of wood which take place with climatic changes open up minute passages through which the air escapes, and if leakage of air takes place, then the action immediately deteriorates. The Aluminum Action in the Heintzman & Co. Player-Piano provides against this common weakness of other Player-Pianos.

NEW LIVERY STABLE.—A new and commodious stable with lofts overhead is being built in the rear of Fitzroy St. for Mr. W. S. Brown, who is removing shortly from his old stand on Fitzroy Street.

SPECIAL SERVICES.—Rev. G. S. K. Anderson, Methodist Conference evangelist, went to Tryon on Saturday evening to begin a series of services. Meetings will be held every evening, Saturday excepted, and the public are cordially invited to attend.

PRICE WEBBER RECOVERING.—Mrs. A. R. Forbes, North Sydney has received a letter from her old friend, Mrs. H. Price Webber, in which the latter says her husband, the ever-popular and widely-known knight of the stage, who for some time was seriously ill in a hospital in Portland, Me., is recovering, and expects soon to be around again.

YOUNGER BOYS' GYMNASIUM CLASS.—The class was started in the Y. M. C. A., last Wednesday afternoon, when a pretty fair attendance of boys showed their appreciation of the facilities which this class affords for physical exercise. The boys will meet again this coming Wednesday afternoon at 3.15 when a much larger turn out is expected.

MILITARY COURSE.—Lieut. Harold Messervy of this city, left yesterday to take a course at the Royal Military School at Quebec. He has just completed a course at Kingston, Ont., in Field Artillery and now goes to take a course in Heavy Artillery. Lieut. Messervy has volunteered for Overseas service.

HOME GUARDS.—The usual weekly drill of the Charlottetown Home Guard, will take place tonight at Drill Hall at 7.30 p. m. All members that can, possibly attend are requested to be present. On Thursday the eleventh of November the Home Guards will have a special meeting for one year. A special meeting will be held on that occasion.

BULB PLANTING.—From enquiries of those who sell Tulips, Hyacinths and Narcissus bulbs it is learned that more of these beautiful flowering varieties have been planted this autumn than ever before in this city. Citizens who intend planting some of these, should do so this week before the ground becomes frozen, and next spring the time and outlay will recompense one an hundred fold.

STUDENTS FUND.—The students who are subscribing money to the Prince Edward Island Student's Gift Fund, for field kitchens for their own Island Soldiers, will be interested to know, it is the intention of the Committee to hand to the Educational Dept., Parliament Building, Charlottetown, all the subscription form sheets containing names with amounts given so they can be placed on file and stand throughout the years to come as testimony of what each has done. There seems to be no reason why the name of each Island student cannot be placed on one of these sheets for at least some contribution.

BACK TO THE FRONT.—Mr. Wm. A. Chandler of Mt. Albion has received the following short note from his son who was wounded in the battle of Hill 60 and has been in the hospital in England since June last. When Mr. Chandler joined the Highland Regiment he went as a private relinquishing his stripes as Sergeant in the 82nd Regiment Pownal. He however carried his stripes in his pocket all through the engagements in Belgium and sunny France and after the engagement at Langemark, he sent them home to his father as a souvenir. The letter was dated from Southampton, Eng. Oct. 8th and read as follows: Dear Father—Just a line to let you know that I am on my way to France again. I am keen for another crack at the Hun. I received your very welcome letter two days ago, glad to hear from you. I saw Harold Huggan and Angus McFadden a few days ago, they have gone to the front. Address 24464 S. E. Chandler, A. Co. 42nd Battalion, Royal Highlanders, Canada, Can. Cont. Army P. O. London, Eng.

...Foster's Geratocal Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is much stronger than most emulsions sold and the addition of Guacal makes it the finest preparation on the market for obstinate coughs and bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00 bottle. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A painful accident happened on Friday to John, the 11 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sullivan, Summerside, the little fellow in company with other boys were having some sport by jumping off the roof of a building. When he accidentally landed on his wrist fracturing one of the principal bones in that joint the boy was hurried to the hospital where the bone was set and he is now on a fair road to recovery.

INSTITUTE NOTES.—The Springfield Women's Institute held its regular monthly meeting in the school room on Friday, Oct. 22nd. At this meeting it was decided to take some of the Institute funds to buy yarn for Red Cross purposes. The members also planned to make fruit cakes and plum puddings of Xmas boxes for the soldiers at the front. Miss Macfarlane was present and gave a demonstration on "Dry Cleaning and Removing of Stains. The meeting then closed by singing the National Anthem.

SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.—The sisters of the Charlottetown Hospital wish to thank all who assisted in any way in making their recent tea and walk the unqualified success of the sturdy was.
