BUY SUPERB MALES

"BUY THE BEST-BREED BETTER"

A lot of good ones yet
Including, Full brother and sisters to SUPERB 31 H. Grand Champion Male at both the 1932 and 1933 shows and Reserve Grand Champion Fox of 1933. This male was sired by a male which won three first prizes, and was one of my two original foundation males. The other prime male also sired two champions including a world champion.

Also pups from a Grand Champion Female whose Champion Pup sired A Champion.

Practically all my pens have one cross of either of these two outstanding males and two crosses of the other.

It will likely be years before the difference between ordinary pelts and GOOD FOXES from the better ranches will be so low, so if you are wise you will invest now even if you keep fewer pairs as it is a crime that so many OUTSTANDING foxes are being pelted by the better ranchers the last two years. So buy from some GOOD HERD. But do not overlook SUPERB SILVERS—The FULL-FURRED-FOXES.

Prices and terms reasonable.

—PALMER-TREDENICK—St. Peter's Anglican Church, Lot 31, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, Nov. 22, 1933, at 4 p.m. when Elizabeth Pearle, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Palmer, Freeland, became the bride of William Irving, eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Percy O. Tredenick, of West Devon. The beautiful little church was decorated and filled to capacity with friends of the contracting parties. Rev. H. R. Coleman, rector of the parish, officiated. Mr. Oscar MacNeill of West Devon and Mr. Elmer Hardy, of Freeland, acted as ushers. The bridal music was pleasingly rendered by Mrs. Beecher Best, organist of the church. To the strains of the Wedding March the bride, attired in a brown crepe dress, with accessories to match, and carrying a bouquet of lilies, entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Ruth MacKay, who wore henna crepe with brown trimmings, and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was ably supported by his brother, Verduin Tredenick. During the signing of the register a solo, "O Perfect Love," was sung by Mrs. Coleman, wife of the rector. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, where a bountiful wedding supper was served to 80 guests. The bride, who is one of Freeland's most popular young ladies, received many lovely wedding gifts, including linen, silverware and a generous amount of money. Previous to her marriage the bride was the guest of honor at two miscellaneous showers. Mr. and Mrs. Tredenick will reside in West Devon where the groom is a prosperous young farmer. Their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.

—DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM SHERRY—There passed away on November 25, 1933, at her home in Fernwood, Mrs. William Sherry, at the early age of 38 years, after an illness of three months. Mrs. Sherry was born in Middleton and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts of that place. After her marriage she resided at Fernwood. She was a member of Seven Mile Bay Church and was very prominent in the different societies of the parish. She took a great interest in all things for the betterment of the community. She was an affectionate wife and mother and will be sadly missed in the home, where, besides her husband, Vera and Freida, who will miss the loving care of their mother, are left to mourn. Besides her parents the following brothers and sisters are left: Mark Roberts, of the China Missions Seminary, Toronto; John Roberts, Charlottetown; David Roberts, Maple Plains, P. E. I.; William J. Roberts, Middleton; Austin and Emmet on the homestead at Middleton, with their parents; Mrs. Charles MacKenna, Newton Cross; Mrs. John Quilly, Rocky Point; Sister Electa, Saranac Lake, N.Y.; Sister Electa, Minneapolis, Minnesota, to all of whom sympathy is extended. The funeral took place on Nov. 25th from her late residence to the Roman Catholic Church at Kinkora. Rev. Wm. Monaghan officiating at Requiem Mass. The pall bearers were Messrs. Thomas Bonaghan, Cyril McFarlane, George Sherry, Harrison McFarlane, Damian Sherran and Alcyus Roberts.—5.
