—SURPRISE PARTY.—A very pleasant evening was spent recently at the home of Mr. D. M. Johnstone, Long River, when about fifty young people of that place, met together to do honor to Mr. Johnstone's eldest daughter, Miss Helen, who has since left for the Canadian West, where she has taken a position. Her young friends presented her with an address accompanied by a beautiful silver mesh hand bag, and gold brooch, also a plate glass hand mirror. Miss Johnstone replied in a pleasing manner. Music and games were enjoyed by all, and after singing the National Anthem the party dispersed to their homes. Miss Johnstone is one of Long River's most popular young ladies, and we wish her every success in her new undertaking. R
