Boxing Champs Ready For Action

Sammy Mandell, Lightweight King, Joe Dundee, Welter Titleholder, and "Izy" Schwartz, Flyweight Demon, Slated for Battles Friday Night.

NEW YORK, April 9—The nation's boxing calendar for the coming week finds three champions willing enough to fight but, at the same time, careful enough to leave their titles in cold storage before they enter the ring. Joe Dundee, who holds the welterweight title chiefly because he cannot be persuaded to defend, Sammy Mandell, the Rockford, Ill. seltzer, who rules the lightweights and Izy Schwartz, of New York, recognized as flyweight title holder, all are down for engagements of a more or less dangerous character.

Mello gave the welterweight champion something of a trouncing in a second match at Boston and may do it again. As usual Dundee has seen to it that his title is not at stake.

HOWIE MORENZ CALDER SAYS TO STAY WITH LES CANADIENS A TITLE ONE

MONTREAL, April 9—Too ridiculous for denial," said Manager Cecil Hart, of Montreal Canadiens, regarding a story which appeared in a local week-end newspaper to the effect that Howie Morenz, would be traded to Boston Bruins for Lionel Hitchman and $50,000.

VANCOUVER, April 9—Frank Calder, president of the National Hockey League, has objected to the Montreal Canadiens and Vancouver hockey conflicts being billed for the Canadian championships.

We are surely indebted to the mail carriers these days for their faithfulness in going over the weary miles of indescribable roads with the "News of Nations". Our Rural couriers Mr. Albert Clow, on the Kingston route and Mr. William Cameron on the "River" road are certainly deserving of great praise for being so very prompt and efficient in the performance of their duties.

BY QUIN HALL

Realizing that in 1930 the Cleveland Indians will play ball in the new City Stadium which will accommodate 100,000 spectators, Billy Evans and Roger Peckinpaugh are going to do their best this year to give the Forest City fans some championship baseball. That brand will be needed to attract a full house to such a massive ball yard. Imagine how a baker's dozen would look in a park like that!

Alva Bradley and his millionaire associates who bought the Cleveland Club have loosened up the purse strings like a spendthrift on a shopping tour, and they seem to be willing to part with even more coin to make the Indians winning aggregation.

Reports from New Orleans, where the Indians are doing their spring conditioning, would indicate that Peck is still experimenting with his talent. He started the experimental shift last Fall when it was apparent that the Indians couldn't finish up with the pack. By the opening of this season he may whip together a combination which will cause trouble in the American League ranks.

It looks now as if Johnny Hodapp, the hot corner guardian during most of 1928, will be permanently fixed at first base when the Indians go into action in the regular campaign. Johnny has shown a lot of ability around the initial corner and, after he decided to use a heavier mace last year, his hitting bounced up to a place where he was one of the most feared batters on the Cleveland roster. Ten added to his mallet skyrocketed his batting average. Hodapp may prove to be one of the best first basemen in the junior circuit.

Peck will undoubtedly keep Carl Lind on the keystone bag. You'll recall that Lind was last year when a collision between Eddie Morgan and Lew Fonseca gave Carl his chance. Lind was hurried to the rescue and came through in such style that he was given a big boost in pay this year.

Joe Sewell will be shifted from shortstop to third in the make-up of the revamped infield and the shortstop job will probably go to Jackie Tavener, acquired from Detroit in the deal for Uhle. Burnett and Goldman, a couple of Three-I rookies will also be trying for the shortstop berth as will Ray Gardner, of the New Orleans club. However, Tavener seems to have the call.

In the outfield, Peck will likely use Dick Porter and Earl Averill. The club paid $30,000 to Baltimore for Porter, and Averill nicked the bat for fifty grand when he was purchased from the San Francisco Seals. Charley Jamieson, the veteran ball hawk seems to have the inside track on the other gardening position, but Ed Morgan and Charley Dorman are also in the race for outfield berths. Morgan is the New Orleans speed merchant who batted .318 in seventy-six games last year despite the fact that he was playing while suffering from injuries. Dorman hit .364 last Fall for the Indians in twenty-eight games. These fellows are all making a hot bid for regular jobs and Peck should encounter little difficulty in selecting a fast, heavy hitting outfield to go with what looks like a pretty snappy infield defence.

The Cleveland Club is trying out a bunch of promising young pitchers and Peck will be able to pick up sufficient material for the mound to plug up any gaping holes in his swirling staff. Last year's catching staff of Luke Sewell, Glen Myatt and Chick Autry has been retained and is fast enough to go along with any bunch that can be put together.

If it's going to take championship baseball to fill the City Stadium in 1930, Evans and Peckinpaugh are going to try and get a running start in 1929.

They gave their names as Butkeswars Dutt from Bengal, domiciled at Cawnpore, and Bhegat Singh from Punjab. Thrown into the crowded assembly room with the two bombs was a red pamphlet entitled, "Hindustan Socialist Republican Army." V. G. Patel, president of the assembly, had just risen to give a reading of intense local interest when the first of the bombs was thrown; the second following a moment later.

Mr. John Simon, head of the Crown committee for constitutional reform in India, was standing with the president of the assembly when the explosion occurred, but was not hurt. Others injured were: Sir D. Raghavendra, Mr. Shankar, Ramesh, Mr. Dalal, (seriously), T. N. Roy, deputy secretary of the Indian central committee, who was sitting in the officers' gallery. Roy died profusely.

Three government benches were torn to bits by the bombs. Two men have confessed after bombs and pistols were arrested and were reported to jols were found on their persons.
