20 Non-Concurring Groups Function As Congregations In Presbyterian Church.

(St. John Telegraph Journal)

In New Brunswick 28 Presbyterian churches voted out of Union and 20 non-concurring groups from churches which voted to remain in the United Church are now functioning as congregations. It was reported at the quarterly meeting of the Saint John Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, held yesterday in Knox Church rooms, with Rev. W. M. Townsend, moderator presiding.

The report of the state of the church was presented by Rev. G. Mackintosh, home mission superintendent for the Maritime Provinces, who has been visiting the various fields, throughout. New Brunswick.

Mr. Mackintosh's report showed the following congregations had voted out of Union: Sackville, Dorchester, Buctouche, Mill Creek, Shediac, Be River, Mill Creek, Harcourt, Be River, Clairville, Millerton, Derby, Oak Point, Dalhousie, Hampton, Barnesville, Knox and St. Matthew, in Saint John; St. Columba, Fairville, St. George, Bocabec, Pennfield, St. Andrews, Acton, Hanwell, Standley, Kirkland and Fort Kent.

HOME MISSIONS.

The home mission superintendent reported also that Woodstock congregation had not yet voted, but was reported to be strongly in favor of the Union. At Port Elgin an agreement was arrived at that no vote should be taken but that a deed of the church there should be given to the non-concurring members. At the same time a vote was taken, and a second vote would be asked for.

MINORITY GROUPS.

In speaking of the minority groups which have organized as congregations and are functioning he said there were found in Matapedia, Tide Head, Flatlands, Campbell, New Mills, Jacques River, Bathurst, Chatham, Newcastle, Tabusintac, Red Bank, Whiteville, Moncton, Sussex, Saint John St. Stephen, Fredericton, Salt Spring, and Scotch Settlement. Mr. Mackintosh said also that in almost every congregation of the Miramichi Presbytery the Presbyterian Church in Canada was functioning or would be in the near future, and the same statement would be almost equally true as regards the Saint John Presbytery, and there were no doubts about getting men to man the fields.

FROM OUTSIDE

Mr. Mackintosh told also of the sending into the Presbytery of ministers of the continuing church from other parts of the Dominion. Rev. J. H. Madill, New Westminister, B. C., who is now working in Hampton and Rev. A. J. Munro, who has come from Ontario and is working in Moncton were present at each meeting. Others attending the meeting were: Rev. R. Moorhead Legato, clerk of Presbytery, and Rev. W. J. Britton, both of Saint John; Rev. R. J. Kent, St. George's; W. W. Hutchinson, W. M. Clark, of Fredericton; H. A. Campbell, Hampton; Arthur Sansom, Standley, and Dr. G. Corbet, Saint John.

STUDENT RECEIVED.

The Presbytery received an application from a Methodist theological student, Fitzpatrick, for admission to the Presbyterian church with a view to entering its ministry and decided to receive him under its care. A resolution was passed that the St. Andrew's congregation in Fredericton should be asked to make arrangements for Mr. Fitzpatrick's employment in supply work in the neighborhood of Fredericton so that he could attend the University during the week.

MORNING SESSION

It was resolved to adjust the roll of the Presbytery by dropping the names of all former members who had united with the United Church of Canada; also to notify the clerk of the General Council of the United Church of Canada of the names of ministers in the Saint John Presbytery, who do not intend to become ministers of the United Church.

To Establish World's Advocates Health Movement in Ireland Most Northerly Police Post

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—The world's most northerly police post and also the most remote of any human habitation is to be constructed next year for the mounted police at the far end of Billings Bay. Buildings for material and two years' supplies have been cached within easy freighting distance of the point. Three men will be detailed for patrol duty on the indescribably lonely shore of Rice Straits.

Haig Points Out Cause Of Unrest

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Field Marshal Earl Haig, in a lecture to the members of the British Legion, said: "It is to my mind significant that the break-up of the army after the war, and the failure to make a definite national provision for the men, set free evil forces that are aiming frankly and avowedly at the breaking of the law and order. While the war lasted the comradeship of all ranks left no room for the spread of the foul distemper that is now sapping the foundations of the state."

New Brunswick Eliminates Nova Scotia

SAINT JOHN, Oct. 2.—Battering three Springfield pitchers for a total of 15 safe hits and one coming in the first inning, St. John Watermen advanced to the finals for the Maritime senior amateur baseball championship here Saturday afternoon by soundly trouncing the miners in the second game of the series, 15 to 3. The locals won the game in the opening innings, sending over a trio of runners in the first frame, adding two more in the third and salting the contest away in the fourth by scoring four runs on some timely hitting, interspersed with several errors.

Britain Will Not Reopen Conference

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Agreement of Great Britain and Germany on holding of security conference at Locarno, Switzerland on October 5, was made known today by the publication of the latest interchange on the subject, but British communication declared the impossibility of re-opening the question of war guilt, as Germany suggested.

Big Snowstorm Raged in Regina

REGINA, Sask., Oct. 2.—Regina was today swept by fierce snow storms starting shortly after ten o'clock. The storm developed to the proportions of a little blizzard toward noon. Three inches of snow had fallen up to their desks at the time the temperature dropped, and early this afternoon the official thermometer for the district registered 32 below freezing point.

Bitten By Mad Dog

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Two British officers, Captain Nichol and Major Wright, and one woman who were bitten three weeks ago by a pet dog which developed rabies, have arrived in London for treatment at the Pasteur Institute from the heart of West Africa. They rushed 400 miles in a motor car to join a train for Lagos, where they embarked for England. The native servants traveling with their luggage were drowned when they fell into a river.

Red Tape Hinders Air Service Work

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Resuming its inquiry into the aircraft problem today, the President's special board was told that army red tape hinders the work of the Navy Air Service and that the activities of the service should be entrusted to flying men. Major Walter G. Kilner, executive officer of the Air Service, said that the board should be directed to look into the matter of difficulties confronting the service were not ones of "personalities," but of organization. The chief of the air service, he held, should at all times be empowered to direct the activities of his men.

TRAIN BOYS FOR NAVY.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 2.—A committee of the federal parliament which was appointed recently to look into the matter of a boys' naval training establishment, has reported recommending the early construction of such an establishment at Geelong, Victoria. The cost of the establishment is estimated at £89,000.

ABRAHAM WAS BRITISH?

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—"The Book of Genesis records an ancient history and future history of the British Empire," declared Rev. Pascoe Goard at the first of a series of six meetings held last night in Cook's Presbyterian church in the interests of the British-Israel World Federation. "The history of the British people began with the call of Abram, whose name was changed to Abraham," he continued. "The call of Abraham was a demand and a promise, and his descendants in the line of Isaac have spread the world over in the British or Anglo-Saxon race."

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 2.—Farewell to the great hulk of Submarine S-51 was still on to-night. The extension and the work on the ocean's bed when she was rammed by the City of Rome. Two bodies were brought up from the sea today, the first of 33 men who went down with her. The wreckage craft had given up. They were found by deep sea divers who crawled through a tangled mass of wreckage surrounding, and entered one of the compartments.

Bankers Say Good Times Are Ahead

NEW LONDON, Conn., Oct. 2.—Nation's bankers, who are arriving here in large numbers on every train to attend the golden anniversary convention of the American Bankers' Association, report almost unanimously that business is good and getting better all the time. Indeed, prosperity is so well underway and "good times" are so apparent that William E. Knox, president of the American Bankers' Association, appeals to his colleagues and to all business men not to relax their efforts under temptation of the optimistic outlook.

Irish Free State Minister Insulted

(Canadian Press.) ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 2.—The PHILADELPHIA, Penn., Oct. 1.—Richard Mulcahy, Minister of Defence in the Irish Free State, was struck in the face by one of a group of men and women at Independence Hall, while visiting the historic building, with other Ministers of Inter-Parliamentary Union. About fifteen arrests were made by the police at the railroad station where the delegates to the Hall, at both of which places the delegates were disturbed. Delegates came here to visit points of interest and are to leave for Washington tonight.

EDITOR'S WIVES VISIT E. P. RANCH. CALGARY, Alta., Oct. 2.—Members of the Canadian Women's Press Club, resident here, helped to entertain the wives of seventy five rural editors, touring the province. Every woman was on the quiver to see the Prince's ranch house. This is how a C.W.P.C. member Mary Armlage, describes the feminine reactor. "Not a dude ranch after all," seemed to be the general verdict.

The Penalty of Leadership. In 1914 Theodore F. MacManus wrote a masterpiece, "THE PENALTY OF LEADERSHIP."

"In every field of human endeavor, he that is first must perpetually live in the white light of publicity."

"The leader is assailed because he is a leader, and the effort to equal him is merely proof of that leadership."

"If the leader truly leads he remains the leader."

"That which is good or great makes itself known, no matter how loud the clamor of denial."
