

Sale of Sample Linen Table Cloths At Factory Prices

OUR LINEN BUYER GOT HOLD OF THIS INTERESTING lot of lovely samples the other day. Because they had been used, by a salesman, on his round, they were slightly soiled though in every other way perfect—and so were sold to us away under the ordinary price.

That makes it possible to offer you this lovely line at just the maker's price. Perhaps a dozen in all, two sizes.

70x70 and 72x72 inches $2.10 to $8.00

On sale this morning—only one of each pattern, if you are interested—come early.

"Old Bleach" Linen Napkins $12.50 for $8.50

Here's a limited lot of beautiful all linen napkins that we are cancelling from our lines. Lovely patterns, full sizes and as the range is being replaced with another line, we offer you this splendid shopping chance.

OLD TIME SERVICE—On Sunday, Oct. 18th, the Central Bedeque Church was crowded to the doors. It was an ordinary service, nothing attractive about it, except that it was conducted along old fashioned lines. Modern innovations had no part in it, but the simple, plain, unadorned service, so enthusiastically attended, was a tribute to the power of the "Old Gospel." The Young People present, were as enthusiastic as the older folk. The Choral Society interpreted the old hymns, to the old tunes, with as much care and reverence, as though they were singing in a big Cathedral, and the congregation caught the spirit, lifting their voices in the words and strains of the hymns that are immortal. Why such enthusiasm? The "Old Gospel" is the answer.

McCABE-McNEILL NUPTIALS A quiet but pretty wedding took place in the Chapel of St. Mary's Convent, Summerside on October 14th when Miss Bertha McCabe of Boston Mass., formerly of Kinkora P. E. I. was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Emmett T. McNeill of Wellington. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. J. McDonald in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Hymns appropriate for the occasion, were beautifully rendered during the ceremony by the Sisters of St. Mary's Academy. The bride's dress was of blonde Satin Georgette with silver trimmings, shoes and hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary E. McCabe, while the groom was supported by his cousin Mr. Ambrose McNeill of Wellington. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the Queen Hotel where they partook of a dainty wedding breakfast after which they left for Charlottetown where they spent a short honeymoon. On their return to Wellington they were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's parents. The many useful and valuable presents received testify to the popularity of the young couple. The groom's gift to the bride was a Pearl necklace, to the bride-aid a Sacred Heart Prayer Book, and to the groomsmen a set of gold cuff links. Before leaving for Prince Edward Island Mrs. McNeill was given a shower at the home of her aunt Mrs. John Owens, 44 Stage St., Haverhill, Mass.

EASTERN AGENT—Mr. J. W. Murdock is now Guardian agent in Montague and will be pleased to receive news items, advertising. Job Printing new and renewal subscriptions. 5658-10-20

MARKET PRICES—Prices of produce in Montague at present and which will doubtless be the set price throughout the shipping season are as follows: Potatoes, whites, seventy cents, blue and red sixty. Oats forty and turnips twenty. Another week will see the shipping in full swing. Very few vessels are in port at present, among them a number of coal laden craft.

BACK ON THE JOB—The many friends of Mr. John McKearney, section foreman of the Montague branch during the past six months; are pleased to see him back again, and able once more to take up his duties. Mr. McKearney contracted a heavy cold, necessitating his returning to his home in Mt. Stewart. The kind attentions of home proved effective however and today Mr. McKearney is busy with his men getting the road in readiness for the coming winter.

THE WOMEN BUSY—The Montague Women's Institute held an oyster and Tea Supper in the restaurant rooms, owned by Mr. Edward Kerr on Saturday evening last, and notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather, a continual down pour of rain making it impossible for any outside the town attending the affair was a decided success, over sixty dollars being the net proceeds, which amount goes towards the allotment promised by the women for the heating and plumbing, etc., for the new school now in course of construction. It appears that not all our citizens are back of the women in the good work they are trying to accomplish for in summing up they find a great many who didn't help out on this occasion. While the women are thankful to any who helped make the affair a success, they are especially grateful to Mr. Duncan McDonald, for the valuable assistance he rendered, spending practically the whole afternoon, assisting the women in their arduous undertaking. While the opportunity affords, we might here just say, that Mr. McDonald, has always been a contributing factor in all undertakings in which the women have been engaged, and while we have really never looked upon him, as what we might term a "lady's man," still we feel that there is no one more justly deserving of that appellation than our highly esteemed and worthy friend Duncan.

His Verison.—Parson (to hostess) little boy—"I suppose you know the story of Jonah and the whale?" Johnny—"Yes. When I told Mr. Goodcatch about sister's other fellow, she said I was a Jonah and I got whaled."

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

"Poor Betty! She always looks tired"

BETTY was the office mystery. Once pretty, her beauty now lay masked behind an unwholesome complexion. Once vivacious, she now seemed eternally tired—a drooping figure of disappointment and dismay. Too bad she didn't realize that it was constipation which was stealing her strength.

But many men and women rid themselves forever of this devastating disease, by the simple, pleasant means of eating two table-spoonsful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN every day—or in chronic cases, with every meal.

As Kellogg's ALL-BRAN journeys through the system, its fiber remains unchanged. It is what doctors call a bulk food—a bulk food which sweeps the intestine clean—a bulk food which absorbs and carries moisture through the intestinal tract, stimulating natural, healthy action. Some- thing habit-forming pills and drugs can never do.

Serve Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with milk or cream, sprinkled over cereals; cooked with hot cereals; in soups, or made into the many recipes given on the package. Delicious with fruit, baked apple, etc.

Caution: Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. A part-bran product can only be partially effective. Kellogg's is the one, only and original ALL-BRAN. All grocers sell it. Buy a package today. If eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or the grocer returns the purchase price. Served in leading restaurants and hotels.
