YARMOUTH ALSO SHELLED BY HUNS

The Raid on Lowestoft Was Continued At Great Yarmouth.

Bombardment Lasted Half An Hour When Enemy Was Driven Off.

Four People Killed, Three Seriously and Nine Slightly Wounded. 200 Buildings Slightly Damaged In Lowestoft.

(Special to the Guardian.) LONDON, April 26.—Yarmouth was bombarded as well as Lowestoft by the German warships which attacked the eastern coast yesterday. Four were killed and 12 wounded. The following official account of the raid was given out to-day. The bombardment of Lowestoft and Yarmouth yesterday morning began at 4:30 o'clock and lasted half an hour. Despite the heavy guns employed by enemy ships the damage was relatively slight. A convalescent home, a swimming bath and pier and forty dwelling houses were extensively damaged. Some 200 houses were slightly damaged. Two men, one woman and one child were killed. Three persons were seriously wounded and nine slightly wounded. Fire was opened on Great Yarmouth at the same time. Here one large building was seriously damaged by fire and another building slightly damaged by shell fire.

(Special to the Guardian.) LONDON, April 26.—In the course of a statement in the House of Lords this afternoon Lord Lansdowne said the rebels in Dublin had made a half-hearted attack on Monday on Dublin Castle. There is now a complete cord of troops around the centre of Dublin he added.

CIVIC ELECTION

(Special to the Guardian.) ST. JOHN, April 24.—The final Civil Elections held here today resulted in the defeat of Mayor Frink by a vote of 1,003 votes. R. T. Hayes his opponent polled 4,446 and Frink 3,437. Commissioner H. R. McLellan was re-elected and G. Fred Fisher is the other successful candidate. A. W. Sharp and James L. Sugrue, the latter a straight labor candidate, were defeated. In the preliminary elections held two weeks ago Commissioner F. L. Potts was defeated so that the new Council Board has a new Mayor and one new Commissioner. The vote polled was very heavy, nearly 8,000 people going to the polls.

GERMAN NOTE

(Special to the Guardian.) BERLIN, April 24.—The American Ambassador was called by telephone to the Imperial Chancellor's Palace

ODD FELLOWS FITTINGLY CELEBRATE 97TH ANNIVERSARY Parade to Central Christian Church Sermon by Rev. Dr. Bennett. Entertainment in Evening.

The Oddfellows of Charlottetown marked the 97th annual Natal Day of the Order in a fitting manner yesterday. In the afternoon the members met at their hall on Victoria Row and from there, headed by the 4th Regiment Band, paraded to the Central Christian Church. The pastor, Rev. E. W. Bennett, delivered an appropriate discourse. He took his text from Luke XII: 17—"And He Thought Within Himself Saying, What Shall I do, Because I Have no Room Where to Bestow My Goods." The sermon was a lesson showing how the man who is self-centered leaves out of life the things that really count, and makes of himself a narrow prison. The Christian life upraises a man and brings him above the low levels which limit his scope. A man cannot afford to forget his neighbors for if he does he will then forget his God. "May God in His love," concluded the speaker, lead us out of ourselves into the larger living which is life indeed. During the service the choir sang the anthem "The Lord is My Strength" a feature of which was a well rendered duet by Misses Haslam and Van Buskirk. At the close the "Oddfellows Ode" was sung. Mr. Arthur

COL. J. W. ALLISON AT THE CAPITAL

(Special to the Guardian.) OTTAWA, April 24.—Col. J. Wesley Allison is back. He arrived this afternoon at 5 o'clock from Morrisburg and is now in his room at the Chateau Laurier under the care of his own physician, Dr. Vallon of New York. According to Mr. George F. Henderson, his Counsel, Col. Allison is still a very sick man. He is understood to have suffered a relapse at Morrisburg last night and on arrival today therefore went immediately to his room. He issued no newspaper interview for the same reason though he was met on arrival here by a large delegation of newspaper men.

This morning he went immediately to the Conference with Von Bethmann Kollweg lasting an hour and ten minutes. When he came from the Conference Ambassador Gerard declined to give any information as to the nature of the discussion and would not answer questions as to whether any one else was present. It is understood the German reply to the American note will not be delivered before the Imperial Chancellor has another opportunity of conferring with the Emperor.

EXTRAVAGANCE GRY PETERS OUT OPPOSITION AGAIN DISCREDITED THEY FAIL TO MOVE FOR SINGLE REDUCTION IN ESTIMATES

In An All Night Sitting During Which the Opposition Fail to Propose a Single Reduction in the Estimates, the Time of the House is Wasted by Noisy Interruptions from the Opposition Led by Mr. Johnston. Hon. Murdoch Kennedy Makes a Spirited Attack on the Methods Pursued by the Opposition and Shows Up Their Inconsistencies, Much to Their Chagrin. The Estimates Passed Unanimously.

The wigs were on the green in the Legislature on Tuesday night. The House sat till 4:40 a. m., yesterday and completed the estimates. Mr. Bell and Mr. Johnston were in their most talkative moods, and talked about everything and anything that seemed to occur to them. Notwithstanding all their talk, notwithstanding all their cry for economy the Opposition did not move the reduction of one item of expenditure on the estimates, which were passed unanimously. This gives the public a correct idea of what value to place on the charges of extravagance so wantonly made by the Opposition and its Press. They passed no less than $485,407 to carry on the public service during the present year, and never proposed the reduction of one cent. After nine months of probably the bitterest campaigning and slandering in history against the Government on the score of alleged extravagance, the Opposition swallowed the Government's budget and passed its estimates, without even putting themselves on record by motion, amendment or vote against a single item of proposed expenditure for the present financial year. Could self-condemnation further go? Although the Opposition had not the slightest intention of curtailing expenditure, that did not prevent them indulging in their own wild extravagance of wordy warfare. Mr. Bell opened the battle-royal by charging the Department of Agriculture had over-spent three months' of the Dominion Agricultural Aid Grant.

Both the Premier and the Commissioner of Agriculture pointed out that this was not merely a fallacy it was an impossibility. The grant-in-aid is paid half yearly only on approved estimates, and the Department at Ottawa cannot and will not make any advances for the succeeding six months. There can be no over draft from Ottawa on account of the Agricultural Aid Grant. On the other hand, the Department of Agriculture has used may be carried forward to its credit, and used in the succeeding year for approved purposes. This was what had misled the Leader of the Opposition in the present instance. Some $6,000 of unexpended grant at the close of the year, had been paid last year for the approved purpose of Agricultural halls, reading rooms, etc. But it was hard to convince Mr. Bell of this, and when ultimately he allowed the item to pass, it is doubtful whether he had grasped the situation. Statistics are not Mr. Bell's strong suit. Mr. Johnston drew attention to an entry in the appendix, page 115—"David Schurman $275", and said that it was an extraordinary admission for the Government to make, and after that he hoped it would be the last they would hear about denunciations of the Secretary of the Temperance Alliance. Hon. MURDOCK KENNEDY said that frivolous protest by Mr. Johnston was a good illustration of the sort of criticism the Government was constantly face to face with at the hands of the Opposition. The Opposition were of an extremely suspicious character and rushed to conclusions without attempting to pause and consider or to make investigations before levelling charges. It never entered the head of Mr. Johnston, for instance that there might be another Mr. David Schurman in the province, and that he was competent to undertake Agricultural work for the province.

EDUCATION. Mr. Bell opened a discussion on the Education vote by suggesting that the five inspectors appointed under the Agricultural aid grant should be dispensed with. He thought inspectors were sufficient for the province. Mr. MCKINNON pointed out that such a reduction would make no saving to the province as the salaries of the five inspectors were provided for by the Dominion. Agricultural Aid Grants which would do no other than purpose except Agricultural education approved by the Department at Ottawa. Mr. J. J. JOHNSTON was of opinion that the amount of money spent on education was out of proportion. If it could be reduced by one cent, it would be a member of the Opposition offering advice and then admitting that he did not know what was going on in his own district. Then they had members criticizing the expenditure of the Agricultural Aid Grant, under the impression that expenditure under that head was under control. The Leader of the Opposition had denied that he had said in that House that the money received under the Agricultural Aid Grant had gone into the general treasury, yet in almost the very next sentence he had asserted that the grant-in-aid was only the amount of $6,000 from that same grant to reduce the deficit in its revenue. What were they to think of increase per capita was only 11c per year. What were they to think of quality of the food supplied. The hon. member opposite did not know what he would compare the present with the past estimates he would find no difficulty in the matter. The COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS here made an important statement regarding the working of his department which will be published in full. Mr. Lea said he was not going to condemn the system of roadmaking adopted by the Government. He thought it was a good system, but he thought there should be some method adopted for auditing the roadmasters' accounts in the district where people knew exactly the work that had been done. He did not know what the method should be, but he thought the audit might be done by the Secretary of School Trustees. Better provision might be made for breaking winter roads. While the roads generally were pretty well looked after, the swamps required more attention.

MR. JOHNSTON CAUSES A SCENE Hon. MURDOCK KENNEDY said they had heard a good deal of discussion both on the address and on the budget on the condition of the roads and public works but now when there was an opportunity for the members of the opposition to suggest better methods than those being followed, they were silent or wasted the time of the House discussing other matters. Six years ago the engineer of the then Liberal Government brought down a report in which he told them that the bridges over the whole country were in an unsafe condition. He knew from his own experience that that was true and that it was unsafe for people to attempt to cross the bridges after dark without a guide. The Leader of the Opposition had found fault with the

BARTLETT-COSH MILITARY WEDDING

"Happy is the bride that the sun shines on," says the old adage and it certainly did shine resplendently at noon yesterday when Miss Mary Florence Bartlett, only daughter of Major and Mrs. Arthur Allison Bartlett, City, became the wife of Lieutenant Cosh of "B" Company 105th Battalion, C. E. F., younger son of the Rev. Nathan Cosh, D. D., and of Mrs. Cosh, Dairy, Ayrshire, Scotland. It was a decidedly picturesque military wedding and the ceremony at St. Peter's Cathedral carried out in strict conformity with the beautiful ritual and wording of the Anglican Church was very impressive. Rev. Canon Simpson, Priest Incumbent officiated. The bride was given away by her father, the choir singing, "O Perfect Love," as the bridal party entered the church. Her beautiful wedding dress was of white faille, brocaded in silver, with an overdress of tulle, caught with orange blossoms and silver flowers in a train of silver brocade. Her embroidered tulle veil was worn over a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of roses, lily of the valley and white heather. The Matron of Honour, Mrs. Arthur G. Peake, whose gown was of pink Georgette crepe over satin, with large pink hat, wore a sapphire and pearl necklace, and carried a bouquet of pink roses, gifts of the groom. Lieutenant Stirling Blanchard, 105th Battalion, acted as best man, while Lieut.-Colonel Peake and Mr. H. W. Binning were the ushers, to whom the groom gave a signet ring and pearl scarf pins. After the benediction the organist, Mr. L. W. Watson, played "God Save the King" and during the signing of the Register the choir sang "The Voice that breathes o'er Eden." As the bride and groom were leaving the Church they passed under the crossed swords of the groom's fellow officers of "B" Company and were showered with the usual confetti. A reception and wedding breakfast was held immediately after the ceremony at "The Hill", Mr. and Mrs. Cosh leaving later for a short honeymoon. The bride went away in a moonlight blue corded silk coat and skirt, with hat to match and ermine tie. As the bridal party left the house for the train at 2:30 p. m., the members of "B" Co., were drawn up in line in front of "The Hill" and they heartily cheered their officer and his bride as they passed. Among the guests present were the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Macdonald, the Premier and Mrs. Matheson, Sir W. W. Sullivan, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Campbell, Major Stewart and the officers of "B" Company, 105th Battalion, Mrs. Ings and Miss Ings, Dr. and Mrs. Blanchard, Capt. Fred May, 26th Canadians, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Hazard and the Misses Hazard, Judge and Mrs. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Heartz and Miss Ruth Heartz, Dr. and Mrs. Carruthers, Lt.-Colonel S. R. Jenkins, Dr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Alley, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Longworth, Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, Mrs. Crosskill and Miss Evelyn Crosskill, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peake, Miss Brown, Miss Howland, Miss Hayland, Miss Palmer, Miss Gillespie, Miss Peters, Mr. Horace Hazard, Lieut. Tannahill and Mr. Geddes. The Guardian unites with the many friends of the happy couple in extending hearty felicitations.

IRISH REBELLION SNUFFED OUT

Martial Law Proclaimed in Dublin City and County.

Sinn Fein Society Declared Illegal by Royal Proclamation.

Nine Insurgents Killed During The Fight and Loyal Soldiers Now Occupy Scenes Of Rioting.

(Special to the Guardian.) LONDON, April 26.—Draastic steps are being taken by the British Government to suppress rioting in Dublin by proclaiming of martial law in that city and county and by proclaiming the associations which took part in the movement illegal associations, which will enable the police to break them up.

Premier Asquith made this announcement in the Commons to-day: Liberty Hall which seems to have been the headquarters of the Sinn Fein party and St. Stephen's Green, which seemed to have been the centre of the rioting have both been re-occupied by the military who were reinforced by troops from England and Belfast. Outside of Dublin County is tranquil. The following telegram was received today from Baron Wimburne Lord Lieut. for Ireland: Stephens Green has been occupied. Eleven insurgents were killed. Provincial news is reassuring.

(Special to the Guardian.) NEW YORK, April 26.—That the revolt in Ireland was more serious than the British Government admits is stated in information received here today by Irish circles. One report says 10,000 rebels are opposing the British Government authorities in Dublin and the neighboring counties.
