MILLION BUSHELS OF WHEAT DAILY

Crossed Atlantic from Canada Since May 1st Ruling Prices Six Cents Higher in Winnipeg than in Chicago.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
OTTAWA, July 18.—Canada's wheat is flowing rapidly to the seaboard and across the Atlantic. Furthermore it is selling at much higher prices than those paid in the United States. Figures of the export during the first half of July are 13 million bushels. Since May 1 the average amount of wheat exported has been close to a million bushels per day. When it is remembered that the ruling prices for wheat in Winnipeg are some six cents higher today than in Chicago it is apparent that the Canadian wheat farmer, where he can get labor, is doing

Sixth Contingent Of Russian Troops

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
PARIS, July 18.—The Russian troops who have arrived at Brest, France, will be sent to camp from Brest, and later to the front. This is the sixth contingent of Russian troops, the arrival of which in France has been reported. Between April 20 and May 5 there arrived at Marseilles five bodies of Russian soldiers after a journey of about 17,500 miles from Moscow, where they were assembled to Port Dalnyia, Manchuria and thence by water, via Suez Canal. The number of men in the first contingents has not been given out, but it is believed to be about 25,000. These troops were quartered at camp De Mally near Troyes for several weeks, and then went to the front. The official French communication of last night showed that Russian troops were in the trenches in the Champagne. It was said in Paris several weeks ago that the sending of the first contingents was largely in the nature of an experiment, and that they might be followed by more substantial numbers.

SUPREME COURT AT GEORGETOWN

(Special by telephone.)
The July term of the Supreme Court of Kings County opened yesterday morning in Georgetown. Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, presiding. There were no criminal cases on the docket, while there is only one civil case which will come up for hearing today.

His Lordship delivered a splendid address to the jury in the course of which he remarked on the fact that the sheriff had presented him with a pair of white gloves, which were a symbol of the freedom of the county from crime. This was the second occasion within a short period in which he had the pleasure of being presented with white gloves, a similar event having taken place in Charlottetown a few weeks before. The ceremony he said was an ancient one which he personally respected in as much as he realized that it meant that the execution of the law was in honest fearless hands and he congratulated the people of Kings County on the excellent order which was being maintained. His Lordship spoke on the War and referred in eloquent terms to the work which the Canadians are doing at the front. He expressed the belief that the end of the struggle was not very distant.

In the afternoon the Grand Jury returned and reported as follows:—To the Honorable Royan R. Fitzgerald, Justice of the Supreme Court in P. E. Island. We the Grand Jurors of Kings County beg leave to submit the following report. We congratulate the people of Kings County—that no criminal cases having come before us this term and according to the time honored custom you have been presented with a pair of white gloves. We appreciate the fact that the temperance sentiment is growing a-mongst our people and the law is now better enforced and we strongly recommend that the officers continue to be diligent in the enforcement of the law. We thank your Lordship for your strong patriotic address which was greatly appreciated.

It is a source of satisfaction to find that the red jail was replaced by a new and more modern building. Everything was found in perfect order and up-to-date in every particular and with respect to the work submitted in behalf of self and fellows. George G. Goff, foreman.

His Lordship thanked the jury for their report and concurred in the sentiment expressed therein in reference to the temperance question. He said that condition in this province today were far improved in this respect from those which prevailed in his younger days and in the country districts in particular great progress had been made in the direction of temperance. He thought however there was still room for improvement and if this could be effected the only blot in the name of P. E. Island would be removed.

The court then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

THE CAPTURE OF OVILLERS BY THE BRITISH TROOPS

Village Defended for Ten Days by Two Regiments of Prussian Guards of Whom Only 126 Survived and They Were Taken Prisoners. The Battle One of the Most Sanguinary of the War.

(Special to the Guardian.)
PARIS, July 18.—The capture of Ovillers by the British necessitated one of the most sanguinary engagements of the war, says a correspondent of the Liberte. Nevertheless the British were well rewarded for the effort for they gained possession of the broad highway from Albert to Bapaume. The village was defended for ten days by two regiments of Prussian guards and the correspondent says that of these regiments only 126 men survive and they were captured and held as war prisoners. It was at Ovillers that the British offensive which began July first was held up while the remainder of the line was advancing. From July 7 on, the village was cut off almost completely from the German rear but it was not until July 14th that the desperate resistance of the Russian guard was overcome. The Germans suffered greatly from hunger and thirst as the British curtain of fire prevented bringing up fresh supplies. Some of the Germans were reported poisoned by drinking polluted water from a pond. Others were driven mad by the bombardment. When the survivors left the village as prisoners the British presented arms in recognition of the bravery of their defence.

LONDON, July 18.—An official statement says the day passed rather quietly and was devoted to artillery preparation by the British.

RUSSIANS HAVE DRIVEN THE TEUTONS ACROSS LIPA

Capturing 13,000 Prisoners and 30 Guns. The Enemy Fled in Great Disorder Abandoning Abundance of War Material and Many Prisoners.

(Special to the Guardian.)
PETROGRAD, July 18.—The Russian victory over the Teutonic forces in southern Volhynia has resulted in their being driven across the river Lipa and beyond that stream, says a war office statement issued today. Indications are, the statement adds, that the retreat was effected in the greatest disorder. In the Riga region efforts by the Germans to retake the positions they lost were unsuccessful. The official statement says: "In the Riga region there were artillery duels. The Germans at many places attempted unsuccessfully to recapture lost trenches. As a result of the latest skilful operations of General Sakaroff's troops in Volhynia we gained a victory on July 18 which brought us 13,000 prisoners and thirty guns, as announced yesterday and enabled us to sweep the enemy completely from the left bank of the river Lipa, driving him to Krassoff and beyond the river. Judging by the abundance of war material and prisoners abandoned they retreated in great disorder. Some of the 17 heavy guns captured were yesterday bombarding the positions of the enemy on the south bank of the Lipa. German pri-

NEW YORK, July 18.—A Journal cable from Amsterdam today says the renewed successes of the British in Volhynia resulted in a hurried summons to Von Hindenburg by the Kaiser to attend a conference on the Western front, according to reports reaching Amsterdam from Berlin. The conference is to be held somewhere near the Somme front where General Von Falkenhayn, Chief of the General Staff is located. It is for the purpose of discussing the critical situation on the east front and will probably result in Von Hindenburg being given supreme command of the German and Austro-Hungarian troops from Riga Bukovina on the whole line.

SIR RIDER HAGGARD CONFERS WITH CABINET

Re Settlement of Soldiers on Land After the War, Asking that British Soldiers be Placed on Equal Footing with Canadians.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
OTTAWA, July 18.—Sir Rider Haggard, representative of the Royal Colonial Institute, this afternoon conferred with the Cabinet sub-committee which is handling the question of the settlement of soldiers on the land and presented to them the Institute's plan for after-war settlement of the British service men.

Sir Rider asked that in any policy designed to assist the soldiers after the war the British ex-soldier be placed on an equal footing with those of Canada. The sub-committee, while expressing every desire to co-operate, pointed out that the only statutory authority for land settlement is the Dominion Lands Act. To extend its provisions would require an act of parliament and this will call for consideration as a matter of policy.

Earthquake in Flume: Austria

2ND FIELD KITCHEN FOR 105TH BATTALION

A Parting Gift from the School Children of Prince Edward Island Sent to Lt.-Col. Ings who Acknowledges Gratefully.

On July 6th when the first rumor of the 105th leaving for Overseas reached the City, the second field kitchen which the school children of this province have been working for to present to the Regiment was ordered to be sent immediately to Col Ings at Valcartier. It was felt that although $139.00 was still required to pay for the equipment that the balance would be sent in from schools which so far had sent no returns towards the gift, and that as so many persons had already subscribed for the sole purpose of making the gift, it was only ordinary justice to them and the Regiment that the kitchen should be given, and the manufacturers, the McClary Co., understanding the situation made the way as easy as possible by allowing a most reasonable time in which to make final payment and by rushing the equipment on its way to the 105th.

Col. Ings was informed that the day the kitchen was ordered that it was coming as a parting gift from the school children, and also fearing it might be impossible for the equipments to reach in time, a communication was sent to the Minister of Militia and Defence explaining the matter with a request that the Government kindly undertake forwarding the gift to its proper destination, should it not arrive before the Battalion sailed. That the gift was needed and much appreciated is evidenced by the following extracts of a letter from the Officer Commanding the Secretary Treasurer of the Students' Gift Fund. Valcartier Camp, July 8, 1916. Dear Miss Stanway:— I have just received your letter of the 6th inst., and am delighted to learn that you have ordered a second Field Kitchen for the 105th Battalion. It is difficult to find suitable words to express our thanks. My last year's experience taught me to appreciate the benefit and usefulness of Field Kitchens on active service. Please accept for yourself and the generous contributors the very hearty thanks of the Officers, N. C. O's, and men of the 105th. Yours very sincerely, A. ERNEST INGS, Lt.-Col. O. C. 105th Battalion. Yesterday morning a letter received by the Sec'y-Treas. from the McClary Co. says: "The Field Kitchen for the 105th Battalion was shipped from London (Ont.) on Monday the 10th inst., and would easily reach destination before the end of the week." It also states that owing to a change in plans they received a wire from the 105th asking that shipment be sent to Lewis instead of Valcartier and their instructions were at once complied with.

No Trade With Alien Firms in U.S.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
LONDON, July 18.—The British government tomorrow will publish a list of from seventy to eighty business firms and individuals domiciled in the United States with which residents of the United Kingdom are forbidden to trade. This will be the first time that any American firms have been placed on the statutory list, which is better known as the trading with the enemy act black list. All other countries have been represented on the list for some time.

Deepest Gloom Prevails in Germany

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
ROTTERDAM, July 18.—To say there is a panic in Germany would be an exaggeration, but it is well within the truth to describe the present feeling as one of the deepest gloom. "I am assured says the correspondent that a few days ago there was hardly a man in Berlin who believed that a serious military effort was to be made by Britain. The present attitude of the German people is as if a new enemy had entered the field against them. Their most trusted commentators talked for months about Britain's paper army. Events have now shown the German public that the paper army has materialized into a great host of trained soldiers, who are driving their own best troops from positions they believed impregnable. The result is that there is manifestation of public dismay that is giving the government the gravest concern. In Berlin they are talking for the first time, of the possibility of their iron wall in the west being broken. The vast majority of the German people long ago gave up any hope of conquest and any desire for anything further than a speedy peace. They believed in the termination of the war in ground that the Allies would exert their maximum strength in an attempt to break their lines that the attempt would fail and that they then would be prepared to negotiate a compromise peace. The possibility of the Allies effort's succeeding had never been contemplated until last week, when the British captured the second line positions.

To Ask That Food May Enter Poland

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
WASHINGTON, July 18.—Personal letters probably will be sent by President Wilson to the King of England, the President of France, the Emperor of Germany and the Emperor of Russia, urging them to allow food to be sent from the United States to the starving people of Poland. The President has asked the state department to advise him as to the most desirable way to proceed. So far all efforts to arrange for the shipment of food into the portions of Poland occupied by Germany have failed. It will be necessary to get permission for passage of supplies through the allied blockade, and assurances from Germany that they will be used by the German army of occupation.

Kaiser On The Somme Front

LONDON, July 18.—Kaiser Wilhelm was at the Somme front when his army retreated under battering British blows in Saturday's fighting, it became known today. An official statement issued by Berlin, confirming previous reports of the Kaiser's presence at the front of the great Anglo-French offensive, where he has been visiting his troops and trying to inspire them to a more stubborn defence.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL CONTESTANTS

Grand Prize Campaign Places No Restrictions. Voting by Ballot and Coupons. Now is The Time To Enter.

Are you participating in The CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN'S Grand Prize Campaign? If you have not already entered your application, you should do it at once. Call personally at the campaign department and talk over the plan and its details. Everyone's opportunity is equal today to secure one of the big prizes. Votes are weighed for new or old subscribers, according to the schedule of votes. The vote ballots issued on subscription payments may be held back in reserve or voted, just as the candidate desires. Candidates are allowed the privilege of giving receipts for subscriptions on the blank furnished by The GUARDIAN for any money they may get from their friends on subscriptions to The GUARDIAN.

providing the coupons are not over seven days old. They must be sent or brought to this department. The other way is to vote by ballot. Ballots can be secured only on payments for subscriptions. These payments may be from persons taking The GUARDIAN, or from new subscribers. Money must accompany all of these orders. The number of votes given on subscription payments depends entirely upon the money paid, according to the voting schedule that appears in the prospectus or on the back of subscription blanks.

STOP THINKING AND ACT. A large number of people who are "just thinking it over" about sending in their names should stop procrastinating and get busy while the opportunity is at its best, as they may regret their tardiness. You do not have to live in any special district; you do not have to be a subscriber to The GUARDIAN. In fact, there are no strict qualifications to comply with should you care to enter. The only restriction covering the contest is that the candidate be a respectable resident of one of the districts covered by the Campaign.
