Protestant Orphanage and the Pollo Clinic were driven by Rotarians and friends to and from the big King Reid Shows where they were guests of the genial King and his staff. Needless to say, rides, candy floss, popcorn and lemonade were all really enjoyed by the kiddies and King Reid Shows will always be remembered by this group of youngsters, who although tired when they arrived home, said they enjoyed every minute at the Shows and hoped they would have another opportunity to again see all the shows, rides, etc., some day. Those in charge of the kiddies were high in their praises of the courtesy of the showmen and informed the press that if the reception given these kiddies was any criterion, the public will receive every consideration from the Show staff and should fully enjoy the entire entertainment.

Anniversary Preacher At Zion Church

VERY REV'D. C. R. BELL, D.D., The Very Reverend C. Ritchie Bell, D.D., past Moderator of the General Assembly of The Presbyterian Church in Canada and Professor of Practical Theology in The Presbyterian College, Montreal, has accepted the invitation to be special guest and preacher both morning and evening at the 93rd Anniversary Services on Sunday next in Zion Church. Professor Bell is a native of Sherbrooke, Que., a graduate of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, Que., and of the University of New Brunswick. His theological studies were taken at the Presbyterian College, Montreal, in which he also did post-graduate work for the Bachelor's degree in Divinity. His first pastorate was St. James' Church, Truro, where he served for seven years and built up a fine congregation. In 1935 he was called to the large metropolitan parish of MacVicar Memorial Church in Montreal where in succession to Dr. Potter he carried on a most significant ministry both to his own people and to the whole Church in that city. In 1948 he was honored by being elected to the Moderator's Chair and was appointed a delegate of the Presbyterian Church in Canada to the first assembly of the World Council of Churches meeting in Amsterdam, Holland. The same year he attended sessions of the Pan Presbyterian Alliance in Geneva, Switzerland. Since 1950 Dr. Bell has been Professor in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, and Registrar of the Senate. During the summer months he serves as Protestant Chaplain of H.M.C.S. "Stadacona" in Halifax. This is the first occasion of a visit to Zion Church although not his first visit to Charlottetown. In 1945 he was appointed to visit all the Presbyteries of the Maritimes in the interest of "The Advance for Christ and Peace Thankoffering" and in 1948 was a guest at The Kirk of St. James during his Moderatorial tour of Canada.

Maritime Interests

(Continued from page 1) markets of Canada. The structure has subordinate distance as a controlling factor in rate making. Moreover this structure has been recognized by the Board in the past, by the Royal Commission on Transportation and by the equalization legislation as interpreted by the Board. It was submitted that this system did not lend itself readily to equalization without disrupting rate relationships and patterns which have already been seriously widened by post-war increases. The brief contended that as a result of an analysis of the Board's plan for equalization as applied to the Maritimes the conclusion was reached that while the system is recognized as an important element of the structure the proposed plan in application would tend to increase the difficulties of Maritime industries in obtaining access to the markets of Canada. The application of a new rate structure on the portion of the land west of the eastern zone, he said, would add more to the cost to Maritime shippers than to Ontario markets generally. The brief pointed out that one of the compelling reasons for the Maritime Freight Rates Act, reception in 1927, reduction in rates within the Maritimes and from the Maritimes to other parts of Canada, was to offset an attempt to equalize the Maritime structure with other parts of Canada prior to 1925. This equalizing process was found to have had an adverse effect on the Maritimes. The proposed plan of rate equalization in effect represented in substance the same process that had proved adverse to the Maritimes in the past. In the brief it was shown that the net effect of the plan on the Maritime area depends largely on the traffic, and on the basis of available statistical data any decreases from the proposed plan would be offset by increases. Maritime Industries Industries in the Maritime territory are constantly faced with the relatively rapid and complete transportation service available to competitors in the larger marketing areas, the brief stated. Warehousing and pick-up and delivery costs are required in many cases, in addition to the ordinary differences in transportation costs, before Maritime Industries can compete with those in Central Canada. This, he said, would be pointed out in detail by briefs from various industries. At present some of the free pick-up and delivery bases in Quebec and Ontario are lower than the Maritime classification, and in addition include free pick-up and delivery not enjoyed by Maritime shippers to Quebec and Ontario parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith, Winsloe.

Lads and Lassies Band Scores At Pugwash

Members of the Lads and Lassies Band scored heavily at the Gathering of the Clans at Pugwash on Dominion Day, carrying off top honors in four events in piping which resulted in five medals coming to the aggregation. Tom Burke won the gold medal for piping first in Chanter under 10 years, with the silver medal for second going to Heather Burke. Piping under 14 years, first, Donald Burke, Gold Medal. Under 16 years, first, Frank Burke, Gold Medal. Over 16 years, first Pipe Major Shirley Burke, Gold Medal. More than 10,000 persons were in attendance at the Highland games and competition throughout was keen. The Island contestants were accompanied by Pipe Major and Mrs. Burke and Captain W. P. Burke, all of whom speak in glowing terms of the orderly manner in which the games were carried out and the traditional Scottish hospitality accorded the visitors.

Employment Situation

(Continued from page 1) lenced this year in placing college students in summer work and this is due in some measure to the drop in construction work. According to the National Employment Office there is no cause for gloom, and the unemployment situation is not serious. The officials of the office however, point out that if only a few men are out of work it is a very serious matter for these men and for family members in particular. The farm labor situation has been pretty well looked after although a few farmers are still looking for hired help. Some German immigrants are expected within the next week, and these will fill any vacancies that still exist. A number of the men laid off by Bruce Stewart & Company have secured work on the St. John drydock and others have left for Labrador and Baffin Land. Souris Situation Excellent The employment situation at Souris is excellent. In the town the Eastern Fisheries, Filletting Plant and Fish Meal Plants are employing about 70 people—men and women. Six druggers have been landing fish—the cargoes averaging between 25 and 40,000 pounds a trip. The record landing was made sometime ago by Captain Picco when he arrived in port with 64,497 pounds of flounders and haddock. Recently one trawler brought in a small quantity of Pea fish—a fish resembling the cod fish with a distinct red tinge. These fish are caught in great quantities off Anticosti Island and have a ready demand at Gloucester, Mass. It is not expected for the present at least that any attempt will be made to secure these fish in large quantities for commercial purposes. The skilled filleters employed at the Eastern Packing Company are for the most part Cape Bretoners. It was not possible to obtain all the skilled men wanted in the Province. This plant has been modernized and now compares favourably with similar plants in other parts of the Maritimes. Improvements and extensions being carried out at the Railway wharf at Souris are also employing many men. The pier is being enlarged, the potato warehouse made roomier, and considerable dredging is underway. This work began last year will continue throughout the summer. Close by the Railway wharf job, H. J. Phillips and Sons are repairing the Souris breakwater, with about twenty-five men steadily employed. Souris is having a good year from an employment viewpoint. For the past week the National Employment Office has been taking applications from young girls for strawberry picking and hulling. Last year more than 200 young girls were supplied to various growers in Queen's County. Close by the Co-op Exchange at Mt. Stewart, The Mt. Stewart Exchange has purchased a hulling machine this year, and will not require as much help as last season. Thus requiring absorptions to make Maritime products competitive. Mr. Matheson expressed the opinion that several unknown factors would also have to be clarified before the equalization plan could be appraised entirely. These include the need for an analysis of traffic in the light of recent rate increases and the development of a revised classification schedule. Rate relationships were most important to the Maritime industries. It was stressed, and even where some reductions might result industries were concerned over their status when greater reductions under the plan would be obtained by competing plants in other parts of Canada. At the Atlantic provinces would probably be placed at a greater disadvantage than their competitors in other parts of Canada by the proposed plan, some compensating arrangements would be effected in those cases so that persons and industries would not be adversely affected, the two-volume brief concluded.

Farewell Function For Senior Major Margaret Wheeler

Sr. Major Margaret J. Wheeler, who has been Superintendent of Sunset Lodge for the past seven years, was accorded a civic and public farewell at the Salvation Army Citadel last evening presided over by Mr. T. R. Cudmore, Chairman of the P. E. Island Advisory Board. Premier A. W. Matheson expressed his appreciation for the work done by Major Wheeler in the field of welfare which he was able to observe when Minister of Health and Welfare. He was particularly struck with her administrative ability and grasp of the distinctive things of life with which elderly people are surrounded. "A splendid piece of work has been done at Sunset Lodge by Major Wheeler," said the Premier, "but in the all-over picture of conditions in this province the surface has scarcely been scratched." He spoke of the most recent statistics which indicated that the life-span in this province was the greatest in Canada, and the need for increased desirable accommodation for being women and men in advanced years was quite definite. Speaking on behalf of the city in the regretted absence of Mayor Stewart, complimented Major Wheeler in her achievement at Sunset Lodge and assured her of the esteem in which she is held by citizens generally. He regretted her departure with the full knowledge that the best wishes of all with whom she came in contact here. Hon. B. Earle MacDonald, Minister of Health and Welfare said that Major Wheeler had certainly done her part in developing a sense of security and well-being among the guests at Sunset Lodge. "From a small beginning she has seen her dream come true to a great extent, and I am sure she rejoices, as we do, in the development which has taken place there. We all trust that she may live for many years to enjoy a more leisurely course of duty, without the responsibility of office," the Minister concluded. Miss Bertha White made a brief "Farewell Salute" on behalf of the local corps and hoped that Major Wheeler would always carry in her memory the recollection of her friends here. Major Stevens, Assistant Superintendent speaking more particularly on behalf of the guests at Sunset Lodge, conveyed their regrets at her leaving and extended loving best wishes for her happiness in retirement. Chairman Cudmore, speaking for the Advisory Board said that his fellow-workers in many Red Shield and Sunset Lodge campaigns were glad to have been associated with Major Wheeler in the development of the Lodge to the position which will shortly be reached with the completion of the new wing. "Major Wheeler may well reflect in the years ahead, on the splendid work she was permitted to do at Charlottetown under Divine Providence." Major Wheeler in acknowledging the kind expressions of good-will from those present and whom she represented, spoke of the joy experienced in her work at Sunset Lodge and the kindly interest taken by many people of all denominations in the guests under her care and the development of the Lodge to the stature it is about to gain. She would carry with her a deep and lasting regard for the many friendships made while in Charlottetown and expressed the hope that God would continue to bless and advance the work of providing adequately for both men and women in the eventide of life in this Province. Following the singing of the opening song "Love Divine from Jesus Flowing", the Rev. James D. Daxon, Minister of the Baptist Church, representing the Ministerial Association of Charlottetown offered prayer and later gave the Scripture reading. Two other songs were sung at appropriate times during the service and several selections rendered by the corps band. Greetings and messages were read from Col. R. S. Herwood, Chief Secretary for Canada and Bermuda, Lieut. Col. Miriam Houghton, Women's Social Service for Canada, and Brigadier Knapp, Divisional Commander. Following the singing of the Doxology, the Benediction was pronounced by Senior Capt. L. Titcombe. Major Irene Henderson will arrive in Charlottetown Friday to take charge of Sunset Lodge in succession to Major Wheeler.

On Holiday

Mr. Jackson Dodds, C.B.E., (above) Deputy Chief Scout for Canada, will arrive today for his annual holiday in this province. Mr. Dodds, former general manager of the Bank of Montreal prior to his retirement, will spend his vacation at Dalvey.

Importance Of Early Spraying Emphasized

Observations over the years have shown that growers who spray early in the season maintain better control of potato late blight than those who wait until the disease appears in the fields, states the weekly potato bulletin issued by Science Service Laboratory. It should always be borne in mind that spraying is a preventive, not a cure. Ordinarily, the spray schedule should start when the plants are approximately 10 inches high. The plants in many fields are now large enough to show symptoms of virus diseases. Growers having such fields could very well start roguing, bearing in mind that the seed potato inspectors will be making their visits in mid-July. The dates on which inspections will begin will be announced in the next bulletin.
