Nixon Seeks Rocket Proof

NEW YORK — (AP) — Vice-President Richard M. Nixon said Sunday night there is "no proof yet" that Russia's rocket actually hit the moon.

The Russians had failed three times in the last two weeks to hit the moon with a rocket, Nixon said.

He made his remarks at La Guardia Airport after flying here from Washington. He said he could not reveal the sources of his information.

He said the latest Russian space exploit is "nothing to get hysterical about."

"Scientifically and educationally," said Nixon, "we are way ahead of the Soviets, and there is no reason to junk our educational programs. In science, sometimes we're ahead and sometimes they're ahead, but overall, we are way ahead."

Nixon is here to address a dental convention.

GEORGETOWN

Mrs. Arnold Cheverie and daughter Carol Anne were recent visitors to Charlottetown, where they were guests of relatives.

Miss Ethel Irving of Cambridge, Miss Bernice MacLean of New Perth and Miss Shirley Taylor of Lower Montague, were weekend guests of Miss Sally Johnston.

Miss Betty Chisholm and Mr. Jackie Chisholm left recently on return to Boston, Mass., after spending their summer holidays in Georgetown. A.C.

TOTAL SERVICE as the key to total selling through newspaper advertising was the theme of the recent newspaper workshop attended at Washington, D.C., by Gerry Pettit (left), of The Guardian and The Evening Patriot. As seen above, he assumed the role of a retailer as a fellow workshopper, John Powell, of Oil City, Pa., presented a sales and advertising analysis, with recommendations, which he had just prepared for a retail store.

Solving Problems Of Dealers Is Stressed At Ad. Workshop

Practical demonstrations of improved methods of meeting the problems of retail merchants through newspaper advertising were featured at the recent workshop held in Washington, D.C., which was attended by Gerry Pettit, of the advertising department of The Evening Patriot and The Guardian.

At these sessions, under the auspices of the bureau of advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, he had the opportunity to learn about and test the latest techniques and selling tools developed for successful retail advertising.

SHARING BENEFITS

Since his return from Washington, Mr. Pettit has been sharing the benefits of these sales training sessions with other members of the advertising staff of The Guardian and The Evening Patriot and ultimately they will be brought to the attention of merchants on the Island.

Newspaper salesmen from Maine, Maryland, North Carolina, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia, were in attendance at the workshop, which was conducted by E.H. Burgeson and Mark Arold, of the New York office of ANPA.

The primary purpose of the workshops is to acquaint advertising salesmen with the current problems and needs of the retail advertisers, and how to work with these retailers to make newspapers, as their total selling meduim, an even more effective selling tool.

TOTAL SELLING

A large portion of the training was devoted to learning how to help a merchant analyze his advertising and determine ways to make it more productive and to build a sound advertising plan that takes full advantage of every selling oportunity, month by month, department by department.

Sound advertising procedures, based on planning and good timing were explored thoroughly at each of the "shirtsleeve" sessions by use of demonstrations, group discussions and the study of actual cases histories.

Also covered was the newspaper industry's total selling program for 1959, in which all phases of the industry are working together to help retailers and manufacturers harness the full selling power of newspapers.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK (AP) — The Soviet moon shot gave only temporary stimulus to space-age issues Monday and then most of them declined along with the rest of the stock market.

The list took a fairly severe loss as late weakness upset an early pattern of irregularity.

The decline more than wiped out the gains of Friday's rally. Most steels, motors, nonferrous metals, rails, chemicals, oils, aircrafts and airlines lost ground.

Exceptions were Studebaker-Packard, which continues in high favor, Martin Co., which jumped 1¾, and Gulf Oil which picked up 1½.

The AP 60 - stock average dropped $1.90 to $220.80.

Among the Canadian issues, Distillers Seagrams fell by ⅞, Walker Gooderham by ¾, Canadian Pacific by ⅜ and Dome Mines and International Nickel both by ⅛. McIntyre Porcupine gained ⅛.

On the American Stock Exchange the trend was lower. Preston East Dome gained 3-16 and Canadian Marconi and Scurry Rainbow Oil both gained ⅛ on the Canadian list. Shawinigan lost ¼.

TORONTO

TORONTO (CP)—Steels, banks and refining oils were major losers as the stock market was bounced hard Monday in light trading.

Noranda dipped ⅞ at 47½ or the major loss in base metals. Seniors were down almost to the issue. International Nickel, Falconbridge and Geco were off ½.

Changes in golds were few and small. Giant Yellowknife added 10 cents at $8.40 for one of the better moves.

In western oils Home B and Pacific Pete each gave up ⅜ while Hudson's Bay and Pembina were off ¼. Juniors moved in a small range.

Index changes: golds up .47 to 86.22; base metals off 1.15 to 13.67; western oils off 1.25 to 105.72.

Canadian Talent Stressed For CBC

HALIFAX (CP) — The CBC board of directors said here Friday the CBC must continue to make a contribution to national unity and must encourage and develop Canadian talent.

The 11-member board, meeting here since Thursday, said in a policy statement that it "is fully persuaded that broadcasting can do much to enrich the lives of a wide variety of people through programs of entertainment and information."

It was the board's first statement since its formation last December under a new Broadcasting Act. The directors are responsible for setting the broad policies to be followed by the CBC.

The statement said the CBC had gained much experience in the last 20 years. "The board has taken and will continue to take advantage of that experience in reviewing the policies of the corporation in various fields. That review is already under way. As it progresses the board will be able to reaffirm and support those detailed policies which the corporation has evolved through years of broadcasting practice."

"In all its activity . . . the board has been keenly aware of its position as a trustee for the listener and the viewer, in all his variety of tastes and interests, in his regional problems, in his status as a citizen and in his role as a taxpayer supporting the CBC," the statement said.

"The board knows that in broadcasting . . . one man's meat is another man's poison. It realizes that television and radio cannot be all things to all men all the time."

MUST BE EQUITABLE

The statement said "controvrsial issues of general interest are proper for broadcasting, provided that the issues are presented as fairly as possible and that the intimate nature of the broadcasting medium is recognized in the selection of subjects, broadcasting times and treatment."

The statement said further statements "setting forth the position of the corporation on various broadcasting questions" would be issued from time to time.

The directors said its review of the CBC's policies will enable it "to announce such modification and developments . . . as may be necessary to enable the CBC to perform its role in the public service more effectively."

Nine of the directors attended the meetings here, expected to conclude today.

Warsak Dam Revolutionizes Lives Of Pakistan Tribesmen

By GERALD L'ANGE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONT (CP) — Canadian engineers working on the Warsak Dam, a $61,000,000 Columbo Plan project near the Khyber Pass in Pakistan, have revolutionized the lives of the wild tribesmen, says chief construction engineer Kenneth Jackson Blakeman.

In Toronto on leave from the project, Mr. Blakeman, a British-born Canadian, paid tribute to the accomplishment of the Canadian engineers, carpenters, riggers and joiners in teaching their skills to the hillmen.

"One of the major achievements of the project, besides building the dam, has been to train the tribesmen to become productive artisans," said Mr. Blakeman. "And it is Canadians who have done it."

In the early days of the project, Mr. Blakeman recalled, tribesmen used to come to work with rifles slung over their shoulders.

"Now they come to work on bicycles. There are so many bikes we had to build a cycle rack."

Many of the 10,000 native workers are rated as highly as experienced Canadian operators.

"Canadians seems to enjoy a better relationship with the lower echelons of a labor force than many other nationalities," he added.

The natives' living standard had risen sharply since the project was started.

The construction site was not a good place for bachelors, Mr. Blakeman added, but married men found it pleasant. Their children were taught in the local school with the help of Ontario department of education correspondence courses.

When the scheme comes into operation next year it will generate 214,500 horsepower of electricity and irrigate large areas of dry land near Peshawar.

TASTY PEMMICAN

DUNEDIN, N.Z. (CP) — The dried meat pemmican supplied by the health department for the sled dogs used on the last New Zealand Antarctic expedition was such a success that members of the expedition were envious. They have asked the department to produce a somewhat similar mixture for human consumption on the next expedition.
