Strawberry Crop Yield Is Best Yet

Strawberry crop yield this year is the greatest ever recorded in the Island, said C. M. MacLean yesterday.

Mr. MacLean, of C. M. MacLean Limited, estimated the crop value at 20 or 25 per cent higher than last year, though a slight decrease in quality hampered shipping somewhat. A very wet month of June accounts for the lesser quality, he said, but an ideal July and too much moisture or heat brought on the bumper crop.

The berry season began about three weeks ago and ends in about a week, was later this year and a few days shorter, but good berry-picking weather meant an increase in production and faster harvesting.

Fears that intense heat during July would result in simultaneous ripening of berries everywhere, making it impossible to complete a harvest, proved unfounded.

Mount Stewart growers reported total production at about 600,000 quarts worth over $100,000.

G. G. Bennett Dies In Alberton

ALBERTON — The death of G. Graham Bennett of Alberton occurred in the Western Hospital Friday morning, July 31.

Born in St. John's, Nfld., 68 years ago, he was a son of the late Inspector George Bennett and his wife, Agnes Green Bennett.

Prior to his retirement eight years ago he had been branch manager of Bank of Nova Scotia branches at St. John's and Pogo in Newfoundland. He had also worked at Havelock, N.B.; Chandler, P.Q.; Chipman, N.B. and Montague, P.E.I.

His banking career was interrupted during the years of World War One when he served overseas with the Royal Newfoundland Regiment.

Since coming to Alberton following his retirement, Mr. Bennett has been an active member of the local branch of the Royal Canadian Legion and at the time of his death was its president. He had served as secretary-treasurer for seven years and for the past six years had been chairman of the poppy campaign.

He also served as chairman of the Red Cross blood donor campaign for some four years and it was under his leadership that Alberton first exceeded its quota of donors.

He was a member of the Alberton Red Cross disaster service committee and a member of the board of directors of the Prince Edward Island United Fund.

FAMILY

Although retired, Mr. Bennett was never idle. He was an enthusiastic and successful gardener and had given much time to the restoration and redecoration of his home.

He is survived by his wife, the former Janet, leaving an Alberton to whom he was married in 1934, and by one sister, Mrs. Olive Reed of Chipman, N.B., who has been in Alberton during this week.

The funeral will be held from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the Alberton United Church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Interment will be in St. Peter's Anglican cemetery.
