OBITUARY

MR. JAMES WILLIAM KNOX
(Inserted by the family.)

On the evening of November 2, 1964 relatives and friends in Victoria and surrounding districts were shocked and saddened when it was learned James William Knox had passed away. Only three weeks previously, "Jim" as he was known by, had gone back to Boston with friends for a short visit before going to Charlottetown for the winter months. In his usual good health and while chatting in his jovial manner he suddenly passed on. Being young at heart and very active, it is hard to realize he is with us no more.

He was born in Victoria 83 years ago to the late Mary Cameron and John P. Knox, except for some years spent in Western Canada and Boston, lived all his life in Victoria, where he fished and bought lobsters, and owned a large four ranch. Only three years ago he received an award as a Senior fisherman, up until last summer he worked with Island Seafoods.

He was married to Mary MacKinnon who passed away at the early age of twenty-six. In 1954 he received a great shock in the loss of his only son John Bertram in an aircraft accident at Charlottetown.

He is survived by an only grandchild Cheryl Ann of Charlottetown who was devoted to him. Along with her mother now Mrs. Peter MacEachern, and in their home was always a welcome visitor.

Mr. Knox took an active part in all worthwhile community activities, was a member of the United Church and in younger years was a faithful choir member.

Although having lots of sadness in life he remained cheerful and was ever ready to help others in trouble or sorrow, his jovial manner and his great love for children will long be remembered.

The funeral which was largely attended was held from Victoria United Church under the direction of the Dunstan Funeral Home. Service at the church and grave was conducted by Rev. Bryer Jones, the choir under the direction of Mrs. Allison Lea led the singing of The Lord is my Shepherd and Rock of Ages, favorites of the deceased. He was laid to rest in the family plot in Crapaud Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Karl Boulter, Eric Lowther, Albert Trowsdale, George Cannon, Lee Taylor, Gordon MacDonald.

Floral tributes:
Pillow — Cheryl Ann.
Wreath — Lillian and Peter.
Sprays — George Crawford
Lee and Margaret Taylor and boys
Bouquet — Marjorie and Wymas Faulkoner, Boston
Potted plants — Eric and Rhoda, Louise and George

DR. KILLORN will be absent from his office until Monday, December 21st.
