Student Chairman Announces Visit

John Rowe, Student chairman of Canadian University Service Overseas at St. Dunstan's University, announced that Terry Glavin, associate secretary of CUSO will be at SDU Thursday night to speak on the organization. The talk illustrated with slides and a movie will be held in Kelley Memorial Library beginning at 8 p.m.

Contest Officials Announced

Chosen as judges in the Lions International "Essay For Peace" contest sponsored by the Parkdale and Charlottetown Lions Clubs, was a group of top educational authorities in this area. Named from Charlottetown were: Lieut. Col. Leo F. MacDonald, principal of Colonel Gray High School; Wendell Horton, principal of Queen Charlotte High School; and Dr. K.A. Parker, superintendent of schools. The Parkdale Club named Francis Blanchard, principal of Sherwood School; Frank Costello, principal of Charlottetown Regional High School; and R.C. Parent, retired superintendent of the Experimental Farm.

Get free passports to Expo 67

Contrary to what many people think, CUSO volunteers do not have to be university graduates in order to serve. Any professionally qualified person regardless of age, race, or religion may apply. Doctors, nurses, engineers, teachers, lab technicians, leather workers, foresters, agriculturalists, social workers, business men are all needed. The field in which a volunteer may work is unlimited.

Save Lestoll labels.

It's so easy (to go to Expo 67) when you use Lestoll. Details on Lestoll bottles.

SERVE TWO YEARS

CUSO volunteers are paid by the government or agency of the country that employs them. They are paid on a level with their professional counterparts of that country and serve for a minimum of two years. Mr. Glavin is himself a returned volunteer, having served in the Caribbean area for two years. SDU already has one former student taking part in the CUSO program. Catherine Duffy of Kinkora, who is teaching in Sarawak, North Borneo. Interested persons are invited
