Toronto Stocks

TORONTO, (CP) - Prices remained downward in light trading toward the close of the stock market today. Western oils and industrials both lost more than a point on the exchange's index. Base metals and golds were also down. Steels, refining oils and manufacturers were the lowest industrials with a wide list of losses, mostly less than a dollar. Utilities showed some strength. Foods were mixed. Western oils slackened slightly in their downward pace, but were still the biggest losers. Losses outnumbered gains by more than nine to one.
