

HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. R.L. Winchester and three children, Janice, Ricky and Susan of Hanson, Mass., are visiting with Mrs. Winchester's mother, Mrs. A.O.P. Gill, Ambrose Street, Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Gallagher are spending their vacation at the Pond House, P.E.I. They are spending their vacation with Mrs. Gallagher's mother, Mrs. A.O.P. Gill, Ambrose Street, Charlottetown.

Miss Catherine Robertson, who has been spending a month's vacation with her mother, Mrs. A.S. Robertson at home, recently returned to her job at the staff of the Prince County Hospital where she was employed and the guest of honor at a surprise farewell party given here by a group of her friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Noonan have returned to their home in Albany after spending the past two months as members of their family in Malton and Toronto. They were accompanied home by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Noonan and family, of Toronto.

Miss Lynn Rogers, Albany, P.E.I., returned to her home recently from a trip to Michigan where she spent a holiday with her grandmother, Mrs. Agnes McKeown, of Toronto.

Recent guests of Capt. and Mrs. George Church at Borden were: Mrs. Chester Crews of Winchester, Mass.; Miss Paula Everett Haslam of Hunter River and Lewis Haslam of St. John, N.S.; Mrs. J.D. Lehave and sons of Dorval, Quebec; Mrs. A.B. MacLean and daughters of St. Clair, Quebec; Mr. and Mrs. W.A. Gaudet, Jr. and children of Montserrat, N.B.; Mrs. Octave Gaudet, of St. John's, N.S.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Mahar, 216 Dorchester Street, returned recently from a two week trip to Boston, Mass.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at St. Vincent's Church in Toronto, Ontario, by Mrs. Alfred Morrison of Bedford, P.E.I., accompanied by their children Ramon, John and Marie, and Mrs. Alfred E. Morrison of Fredericton, N.B., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roy of St. John's, N.S., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrison and children of Pleasant Grove, visited with their daughters, Mary, Yvonne and Suzanne, at the home of their mother, Mrs. Sister Dominic Savoie. It was the first time in eight years that a reunion had been held.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bedford, of St. John's, N.S., and Mr. James Johnson and family returned to Charlottetown from the group during the afternoon.

F.L. and Mrs. Charles Morrison and daughter Barbara of Ottawa have returned to their home after spending a holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morrison, Bedford, P.E.I., and Mrs. Leigh Fisher, Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Morrison, Jr., have taken up residence at their new cottage in St. John's, N.S. They just returned from Fredericton, N.B., where Mr. Morrison was attending the University of New Brunswick. He will be principal of Souris High School for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Plus Cheverie and family of Chatham, N.B., are spending their vacation with their friends and relatives in St. John's, N.S.

Mr. Raymond Fournell, Montreal, Quebec, is spending his vacation with his wife and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lavie.

Mr. and Mrs. David Paquet and family, Quebec, are spending their vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lavie.

Mrs. Carrie Madore, St. John, N.S., is visiting relatives in Souris.

Mrs. Leo Gallant and two children of Charlottetown are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paquet.

Miss Corinne Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Duffy of Kinkora, P.E.I., became the bride of Mr. Philip C. Shute, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shute, of Hyde Park, Mass., in a ceremony on July 7 at the Most Precious Blood Church in Hyde Park. Rev. Regis Duffy, brother of the bride, officiated at the ceremony. A reception was held at the Beaconsfield Hotel in Brookline, Mass. The bride is a graduate of St. Dunstan's University and is employed in Boston and Mr. Shute, a graduate of Bridgewater State College in Bridgewater, Mass., is teaching in Randolph, Mass. After their wedding to Nantuxet and Cape Cod the young couple took up residence in Jamaica Plain.

Mary Haworth Young Wife And Mother Is Unsure In Encounters

Dear Mary: I am a young wife, mother of one child, my best friend of seven years) admits that when she first met me in school she thought I was a snob.

When I've accused this of my mother-in-law, she said people had remarked something of the sort to her, but she told them it isn't that way at all.

As a girl, I don't like that only a few girls like me, though I was a friend of all. Mother said I might never have any girl friends, as I was pretty and girls resent that. I don't know if my appearance is so much to do with it.

In talking with people you hope to win, or having any kind of social encounter with them, your attention is divided (I've been twelve) in trying to interest them and (2) trying to keep a book on whether you are succeeding or failing; and, if failing, why?

In general, this nervously strained, self-conscious type of behavior is characteristic of sensitive souls who've been schooled in trying to please, while also unconsciously conditioned to anticipate some criticism of failure and/or rejection — no matter how hard they try.

Was this your pattern of experience in relation to mother, nurse, governess or other motherly figures? In formative years?

Is there a remedy for such ingrained stress, that has you trying compulsively to look too good to be true?

Yes, the remedy consists in "knowing yourself," as the ancient advice, and accepting yourself as you are.

youself on that honest basis, letting other people subside or bypass, as they choose. Be willing to make mistakes, no matter whatever your real weight and worth happen to be — not feeling that you are "less than everybody's favorite person."

To this one self is true — as Shakespeare said and you can't fail to strike affinity with the least some few kindred souls who feel at home on your side.

With them well, but don't try to grapple them to your soul with the New Hampshire motto: "I should be your problem."

You lay your self out to compensate, you crave insatiable approval and recognition in position that drives you to extremes of shyness on the one hand and over-assertiveness on the other hand.

When you are in a social situation, you might help you develop sound self regard, so that you can deal with the others' reactions to you.

M.H. Mary Haworth e o u n s e r s personal interview. Write her in care of The Guardian.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM ALEXANDER

Stephanie Gaudet Is Wed In Ceremony At Summerside

St. Paul's Church, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding recently when Stephanie Gaudet, Summerside, became the bride of William John Alexander of Toronto, son of Mr. A. Alexander of Dickey's Ches- tres — England. Rev. J.P.O. Hanley officiated.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white tulle, accented with a jacket of Guipure lace from Switzerland. Her shoulder length veil of French tulle illusion was held in place with a Guipure lace pillow and she carried a cascade of statuettes.

Miss Alberta Gaudet, R.N., as her sister's bridesmaid, was dressed in pink organza, street length, with pink lace top. Her headpiece was pink rose with veil of French tulle illusion and she carried a cascade of statuettes.

Mr. W.A. Gaudet, Jr., was best man and Mr. F. Harrop was usher.

Mrs. Gaudet chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of wedgewood blue lace with white accessories and a corsage of white feather carnations.

The bride's attendants were Miss Alberta Gaudet, R.N., as her sister's bridesmaid, was dressed in pink organza, street length, with pink lace top. Her headpiece was pink rose with veil of French tulle illusion and she carried a cascade of statuettes.

Mr. W.A. Gaudet, Jr., was best man and Mr. F. Harrop was usher.

Mrs. Gaudet chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of wedgewood blue lace with white accessories and a corsage of white feather carnations.

SHUTE-DUFFY NUPTIALS

Miss Corinne Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Duffy of Kinkora, P.E.I., became the bride of Mr. Philip C. Shute, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shute, of Hyde Park, Mass., in a ceremony on July 7 at the Most Precious Blood Church in Hyde Park. Rev. Regis Duffy, brother of the bride, officiated at the ceremony. A reception was held at the Beaconsfield Hotel in Brookline, Mass. The bride is a graduate of St. Dunstan's University and is employed in Boston and Mr. Shute, a graduate of Bridgewater State College in Bridgewater, Mass., is teaching in Randolph, Mass. After their wedding to Nantuxet and Cape Cod the young couple took up residence in Jamaica Plain.

MARY HAWORTH

Young Wife And Mother Is Unsure In Encounters

Dear Mary: I am a young wife, mother of one child, my best friend of seven years) admits that when she first met me in school she thought I was a snob.

When I've accused this of my mother-in-law, she said people had remarked something of the sort to her, but she told them it isn't that way at all.

As a girl, I don't like that only a few girls like me, though I was a friend of all. Mother said I might never have any girl friends, as I was pretty and girls resent that. I don't know if my appearance is so much to do with it.

In talking with people you hope to win, or having any kind of social encounter with them, your attention is divided (I've been twelve) in trying to interest them and (2) trying to keep a book on whether you are succeeding or failing; and, if failing, why?

In general, this nervously strained, self-conscious type of behavior is characteristic of sensitive souls who've been schooled in trying to please, while also unconsciously conditioned to anticipate some criticism of failure and/or rejection — no matter how hard they try.

Was this your pattern of experience in relation to mother, nurse, governess or other motherly figures? In formative years?

Is there a remedy for such ingrained stress, that has you trying compulsively to look too good to be true?

Yes, the remedy consists in "knowing yourself," as the ancient advice, and accepting yourself as you are.

EAST BATTLE

Mrs. Percy MacDonald of Kingsboro received the sad news recently of the death of her uncle, Mr. Henry Stewart of New Stanbury and formerly of Kingsboro.

Mrs. George Roach and family of Souris are spending a holiday at Red Point.

Miss Carabelle Ching returned to Charlottetown after spending three weeks holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ching, East Battle.

Mr. Gerald MacLean, Labrador, is spending some time at his home in South Lake.

Miss Marie Cheverie, Toronto, Ont., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cheverie, East Point, has accepted a position as teacher at the East Point School for the remainder of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Jones and family have spent the past two weeks at the home of Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stewart, Red Point, left on return to their home in Montreal recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Murphy, Elmira, spent a few days visiting with their daughter, Joan, Slater Regina, in Montreal.

Miss Carol Mosko, Montreal, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stewart, Red Point, for the past two weeks.

Mr. Edwin Fraser left on return to Toronto, Ont., after having spent his annual vacation with his mother, Mrs. Fred Rose and Mr. Rose, Red Point.

QUICK 'N' SLICK

By ANNE ADAMS

Sunshine for slenderness accentuated by easy-tucks. No waist seems, no clutter — whip up this go-everywhere wonder in one day or less.

Printed Pattern 4542: Misses' Sizes 10, 12, 14, 16, 18. Size 16 requires 2 1/4 yards 48-inch fabric.

THIRTY-FIVE cents (colours for this pattern, no stamps, please) — It's our new Needlecraft Catalog! Plus over 200 fresh-to-you designs to knit, crochet, sew, weave, embroider, quilt. Plus free pattern. Send 25 cents now.

1963's Biggest Needlecraft Show stars smocked accessories — It's our new Needlecraft Catalog! Plus over 200 fresh-to-you designs to knit, crochet, sew, weave, embroider, quilt. Plus free pattern. Send 25 cents now.

M.H. Mary Haworth e o u n s e r s personal interview. Write her in care of The Guardian.

ELLEN'S DIARY

August Begins To Flower Goldenrods In The Field

A cool wind came over the fields from the north today. "Perhaps it will bring the clearing," we said. But a quiet mood of rain continued, neither "fish nor fowl" nor at all defined, with light cloud-cover and odd showers and damp.

"It's not fit for a cat to be in." Curiously, our big orange-brown grays "could be worse!" I read an article entitled "The Province." Rain's well, it's miserable. As Mother used to remind you, "You're not so sweet, it will melt you!" So "he smoothes" that felting young whiskers, "he is kind as to open the door for me." Where is that new piece question he asks me to be so friendly. And we let him out.

"If I liked every cat's whiskers together in a box — the points and rays, do you think their mothers would be able to tie them to pick out their own?" We overheard Alex question Granddaughter this afternoon.

"If you were to be 'miked' as you say, among a number of other children of your age, do you think Mother would know you among the rest?" she queried.

"I think she would. Anyway," he smiled happily, obviously well pleased to have found it.

Thursday! Today the Fair will be an exciting spot. And glamorous! Very feature. It folks most enjoy will be found there. And what a crowd will pour in at the festival. We there, in a farmers from these and other Island farms and father, who are exhibiting this morning wearing it by this. James, himself and Mack, our herds-men will now have a longing for the quiet and peace of this place that is home.

August commences now to flower the goldenrods in the fence-corners and by roadsides. His sets were once purple of the "Snake-flower" in the slash of woods where the wild raspberries, this morning brought us no hay-making!

The Manse, which sits prettily and reverently, on the R.R. road, across from the "Old Kirk" and its cemetery, at the Corner to which our roads lead, the scene of a gathering this evening. The event drew a company of road-travelers, and together, to extend an Island welcome to the family that has returned from the South of us, it has, to the North, and to the West, places — on a goodly land."

Through the years — and how many they have lived — two manse-families have come to us, and we believe, spent happy years beneath its roof-tree, and moved away, none before this with children who were in the manse-families, a son and two daughters, to attend the school nearby, and together, with the other children, to make nice comradeship, and all, when finally the years shall separate them, each to his own home, and the community welcomes the new dwellers warmly, despite a spell of vacancy, the Manse-lights began brightly again.

How bright tonight. No growing moon climbing above the old mill. A ribbon of driftnet over the low of the valley. And "Alas and alack" over-

LOVELY SUMMER WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED AT DUNDAS, P.E.I.

The marriage of Anita Virginia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Matheson of Dundas, P.E.I., and Mr. James Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harper A. Campbell of Noranda, N.B., took place on Saturday, August 11 at 2:00 p.m. at the United Baptist Church in Dundas. Rev. J.J. Bannister, of St. Stratford, Ont., to participate in a summer school of drama and music, was officiating. Following this he will visit friends and relatives in Bradford, Ontario, and return to St. Stratford and Kiltlath before returning to his home.

lovely in a floor-length gown of white silk organza and alencon lace. The gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, accented with re-embroidered lace, a portrait neckline and a bustle effect back. Her face veil was of French tulle illusion, in place by a pill box of re-embroidered lace and she carried a cascade of statuettes.

Mrs. Keith Graham, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Hoadley, Miss Jeanne Cooper. They were street length frocks of buttercup yellow silk organza over a fitted bodice and bodices, scooped necklines and unpressed, pleated skirts. They

SWIM AT THE "Y" POOL

DAILY SWIMS FOR ALL AGES

Instructions for beginners & advanced swimmers

daily rates for non members

for information contact

Charlottetown YMCA Dial 4-3425

Mrs. Matheson chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath gown of ivory beige cotton lace; and to complement her ensemble she chose a shaded moss-green petal hat and beige accessories. Her corsage was of orange de-light roses. Mrs. Campbell was wearing a gown of blue and white printed blanchet silk with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink featured carnations.

Following the ceremony the reception was held at the Hillside Inn in Montague, where arrangements of summer flowers were used as decorations.

Mrs. Helen Wood, aunt of the bride, poured. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Paul Kinginger and Misses Carolyn and Deborah Wood were charge of the guest book.

Late Mrs. Mrs. Campbell left for a honeymoon trip, the bride travelling in a yellow H-Club. She wore a gown of white shoes and white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of yellow feathers. The Misses Kinginger and Misses Carolyn and Deborah Wood were attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of Noranda; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Graham of Brownsburg; Mrs. Elizabeth Hoadley of St. John's; Mrs. Jeanne Cooper of Cooper, They were street length frocks of buttercup yellow silk organza over a fitted bodice and bodices, scooped necklines and unpressed, pleated skirts. They

HOW IS THE TIME

We have one of the most modern Insulation Slowing Equipment at your service

anywhere in P. E. I. Have your installation now before the rush, and save $88.

A NAME YOU CAN TRUST

18 Spring Park Road Dial 4-6275 Souris Phone 183

Convertible collars. Roll up for satisfaction guaranteed from $2.98

don't be catty tell your friends about

London Lassie

they'll love you for it

anywhere in P. E. I. Have your installation now before the rush, and save $88.

A NAME YOU CAN TRUST

18 Spring Park Road Dial 4-6275 Souris Phone 183

Convertible collars. Roll up for satisfaction guaranteed from $2.98

O'LEARY UCW Holds Meeting

The Dr. Florence Murray United of the O'Leary in the Christian Education who read an article entitled "The Manse, which sits prettily and reverently, on the R.R. road, across from the "Old Kirk" and its cemetery, at the Corner to which our roads lead, the scene of a gathering this evening. The event drew a company of road-travelers, and together, to extend an Island welcome to the family that has returned from the South of us, it has, to the North, and to the West, places — on a goodly land."

Through the years — and how many they have lived — two manse-families have come to us, and we believe, spent happy years beneath its roof-tree, and moved away, none before this with children who were in the manse-families, a son and two daughters, to attend the school nearby, and together, with the other children, to make nice comradeship, and all, when finally the years shall separate them, each to his own home, and the community welcomes the new dwellers warmly, despite a spell of vacancy, the Manse-lights began brightly again.

How bright tonight. No growing moon climbing above the old mill. A ribbon of driftnet over the low of the valley. And "Alas and alack" over-

LOVELY SUMMER WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED AT DUNDAS, P.E.I.

The marriage of Anita Virginia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Matheson of Dundas, P.E.I., and Mr. James Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harper A. Campbell of Noranda, N.B., took place on Saturday, August 11 at 2:00 p.m. at the United Baptist Church in Dundas. Rev. J.J. Bannister, of St. Stratford, Ont., to participate in a summer school of drama and music, was officiating. Following this he will visit friends and relatives in Bradford, Ontario, and return to St. Stratford and Kiltlath before returning to his home.

lovely in a floor-length gown of white silk organza and alencon lace. The gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, accented with re-embroidered lace, a portrait neckline and a bustle effect back. Her face veil was of French tulle illusion, in place by a pill box of re-embroidered lace and she carried a cascade of statuettes.

Mrs. Keith Graham, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Hoadley, Miss Jeanne Cooper. They were street length frocks of buttercup yellow silk organza over a fitted bodice and bodices, scooped necklines and unpressed, pleated skirts. They

SWIM AT THE "Y" POOL

DAILY SWIMS FOR ALL AGES

Instructions for beginners & advanced swimmers

daily rates for non members

for information contact

Charlottetown YMCA Dial 4-3425

Mrs. Matheson chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath gown of ivory beige cotton lace; and to complement her ensemble she chose a shaded moss-green petal hat and beige accessories. Her corsage was of orange de-light roses. Mrs. Campbell was wearing a gown of blue and white printed blanchet silk with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink featured carnations.

Following the ceremony the reception was held at the Hillside Inn in Montague, where arrangements of summer flowers were used as decorations.

Mrs. Helen Wood, aunt of the bride, poured. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Paul Kinginger and Misses Carolyn and Deborah Wood were charge of the guest book.

Late Mrs. Mrs. Campbell left for a honeymoon trip, the bride travelling in a yellow H-Club. She wore a gown of white shoes and white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of yellow feathers. The Misses Kinginger and Misses Carolyn and Deborah Wood were attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of Noranda; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Graham of Brownsburg; Mrs. Elizabeth Hoadley of St. John's; Mrs. Jeanne Cooper of Cooper, They were street length frocks of buttercup yellow silk organza over a fitted bodice and bodices, scooped necklines and unpressed, pleated skirts. They

HOW IS THE TIME

We have one of the most modern Insulation Slowing Equipment at your service

anywhere in P. E. I. Have your installation now before the rush, and save $88.

A NAME YOU CAN TRUST

18 Spring Park Road Dial 4-6275 Souris Phone 183

Convertible collars. Roll up for satisfaction guaranteed from $2.98

don't be catty tell your friends about

London Lassie

they'll love you for it

anywhere in P. E. I. Have your installation now before the rush, and save $88.

A NAME YOU CAN TRUST

18 Spring Park Road Dial 4-6275 Souris Phone 183

Convertible collars. Roll up for satisfaction guaranteed from $2.98