Canadian Golf Team Is Named

TORONTO (CP) — A seven-member team has been named by the Royal Canadian Golf Association to compete in the Americas' Cup golf matches at Winnipeg Aug. 6-7.

Teams from the United States and Mexico will compete against the Canadian team. The U.S. is the defending cup champion. The matches are played every second year.

The Canadian team is composed of Keith Alexander and Doug Silverberg, both of Calgary. Gary Cowan of Kitchener, Ont. and Nick Weslock of Burlington, Ont. John Johnston and Bert Teeburst, both of Vancouver, and Bill Pidlaski of Winnipeg.

Alternates are Bob Willie of Calgary and Edward Ross Jr. of Saskatoon.

JOINS FOREIGN LEGION

LONDON (AP) — Truck driver David Twitchen, 22, said Monday he is joining the French Foreign Legion to get away from British traffic jams. "I'm British and proud of it," said Twitchen. "But our country's going out of the dogs. It's these traffic jams."

Sports Exchange Can., West Indies

OTTAWA, June 12, 1965 — Canada and the West Indies will participate in a unique program in the field of sport and recreation as part of the International Cooperation Year Program.

The Minister of National Health and Welfare, the Honourable Judy LaMarsh, announced today that her department will sponsor the exchange program through a $21,000 grant to the national council of the Young Men's Christian Association. The Y.M.C.A. will send a team of coaches and athletes to several West Indian countries this summer, where they will conduct coaching clinics in their own specialties. They will also take part in sports meets, and study groups and games popular in the Caribbean.

Following this tour, a number of West Indian athletes will be invited to attend coach-training clinics in various parts of Canada. Many of the clinics, for leadership training in recreational activities as well as sports, receive assistance under the national fitness and amateur sport program.

The Anglican Church of Canada is making a half-hour color film about village life in northern India, near Amritsar.

Green Meadows Beats Tracadie

In the Southern Queens Baseball League, Green Meadows won their first game of the season by topping Tracadie 6-3. Emmett McInnis went all the way for the winners, striking out nine batters. Merlin McBride and Leonard McQuillen did the pitching chores for Tracadie. Longest hit of the game was a double by Ken Fitzpatrick. Plate umpire was Harry Green.

The 1,066-foot tower at Expo 67, the Montreal World's Fair, will cost about $20,000,000.
