happy privilege to receive here the Provincial Governor. Since colonial days, we are not able to recall the visit of one single Governor, although we understand that such dignitaries are supposed to make themselves familiar with the entire territory.

When you go back in retrospect to the conditions which obtained in this portion of the province when you first came here, you will find that the conditions were not so favorable as they are now.

And not only in the restricted provincial limits but in the greater one at Ottawa, you will find that the conditions were not so favorable as they are now.

to the almost limitless market in England for our cheese, and stated the fact that last year Canada exported about fifty per cent of the cheese import of the United Kingdom.

His Honor replied to the people's address in a succinct and eloquent speech, which was repeatedly applauded.

Thrive on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in an open air. Her form glows with health, and her face blooms with its beauty.

The McLeod Property.—This valuable property will be sold as advertised by auction on Saturday, the 22nd Sept., inst., at noon, on the premises.

Today we are showing a line of Suitings and Overcoatings of the latest makes and of the finest quality.

Our Furnishings are on the market, and you may expect a bargain, as we are going out of this branch of our business.

THE RACES AT SOURIS.

Glorious Weather and a Good Track.

Keenly Contested Heats in the Green Race and 2.40 Class.

Conductor Mackie was not particularly hurried yesterday. He had plenty of time to punch with care all the tickets of the passengers on the way to the Souris races.

The judges were Dennis Murphy (shortly Dr. McLaughlin) and James Houghton, Messrs Hooper and Shaw.

The GREEN RACE was the first called. There were five starters, viz, Minnie B, a lively bay mare, owned and driven by John McLean, West St. Patrick, Dr. McLaughlin, and driven by Arthur Dean, Eastern Bay, by Neptune Lee, a lively black colt, owned by Mr. Turner, and driven by Marcus Martin, Campbell Bay, a pacing colt, by Sir William Wallace, owned by John Campbell, of Carleton Place, and driven by Mr. Martin.

First heat—The horses got away well together, except Campbell Bay, who was half a length behind.

Second heat—The horses got a good start upon the fourth score. Prospector broke badly at the first turn and fell to the rear.

Third heat—The word "go" was given on the third score. Lady Rosell slightly won, following by Minnie B, and Prospector in the order named.

Fourth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Fifth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Sixth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Seventh heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Eighth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Ninth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Tenth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Eleventh heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twelfth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Thirteenth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Fourteenth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Fifteenth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Sixteenth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Seventeenth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Eighteenth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Nineteenth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twentieth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twenty-first heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twenty-second heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twenty-third heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twenty-fourth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twenty-fifth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twenty-sixth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twenty-seventh heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.

Twenty-eighth heat—The horses were sent away on the first score, though Blanche was at a disadvantage at the start.
