TIMMINS, Ont., Feb. 22—(CP)—Something went wrong somewhere.

Albert Chalfoux, Timmins coal dealer, opening a newly-arrived box-car, found it full of loose wood instead of lump coal.

He said jokingly, "I'll sell it to anyone for half price, but whoever buys it will have to bag it himself."

The railway company is trying to find out who owns the wheat and what happened to Chalfoux's coal.

Bank Report Is Optimistic

MONTREAL, Feb. 22—For 1952 as a whole, "export trade should continue in good volume and may run moderately ahead of last year," says the Bank of Montreal in its latest Business Review, devoted this month to an analysis of Canada's trade picture for 1951 and the prospects for the year ahead. While pointing to "elements of uncertainty," the B of M regards it as possible that "Canada's over-all deficit in trade goods and services should this year be measurably smaller than in the year just passed."
