Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins and three children, accompanied by Mrs. Lee Crane and daughter, Albion, were visiting relatives in Little Sands on Sunday.

Mr. Raymond MacLean, boat builder and joiner, High Bank is now employed by Mr. Russell Buell, Abney at carpenter work.

Mrs. John Angus Blue of Hopefield who is now staying with her daughter Evelyn, has had another stroke. It is hoped it is not serious and she will soon be well again.

It is regretted that Mr. John Dan MacLennan who is patient of the Montague Hospital is quite ill. On Tuesday of this week when some members of his family visited him he was a little better. It is to be hoped that Mr. MacLennan will soon be much improved in health.

Mr. Neil MacNeill, Little Sands has just had a new flue built in his house by Mr. Montie MacKenzie, bricklayer, Little Sands. Mr. MacKenzie has built several flues in different parts of P.E.I. this summer. He also does mason work and was recently employed by Mr. Ben Sencabaugh, Murray River.

A few farmers in this district and in Hopefield have finished potato digging. But there are still many farmers who haven't started or just begun. The heavy rain digging for a few days. Travelers report few fields all dug between here and Murray River.

Mr. Nestor Beck who was at her home in Little Sands during the summer months was in the city on Thursday. Mr. Beck spends the winter in Massachusetts and returns to her home in Little Sands each spring. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Mary MacNeill of the staff of the Provincial Sanatorium (who had been spending her vacation at her home in Little Sands) to Charlottetown.

Since the last report to this paper the Little Sands cemetery's work has been completed. Many men from these vicinities volunteered and sewed the lime, fertilizer and grass seed in pasturing the lot. The heavy rain has levelled, etc., was borne by many plot owners and others near and far who willingly donated money. This improvement to the Little Sands cemetery adds much to the district.

The many friends of Mrs. John Bruce, High Bank, were glad to welcome her home again after about a month's absence when Mrs. Bruce was visiting in the United States. Mrs. Bruce visited her two sisters and a brother in New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. She spent a number of time visiting her many cousins in Massachusetts and renewing former acquaintances. Mrs. Bruce made the trip by car. She had a grand trip, enjoying every moment of it.

Mr. James Dixon, Little Sands, is having extensive repair work done to his farm buildings. Mr. Archie MacLean, carpenter and painter of Murray River, is doing the work. Mr. MacLean is also a fisherman and owns a large fleet of lobster traps. He sold his lobster boat to party in N. S. and he intends to build a new boat this winter for himself. He fishes from Wood Islands and while there he meets touring lobster fishermen from different parts of the Atlantic seaboard. They compare methods of catching lobsters and Mr. MacLean has interesting stories to tell of the methods some of them use.

The people of Little Sands were saddened on Oct. 1 to hear of the death of Mrs. Peter MacLean of Little Sands, who was hospitalized after a long illness and suffering. Mrs. MacLean lived with her daughter, Margaret, Mrs. Herring of Murray Harbour, for some time before entering the Montague Hospital about two weeks before her death. The funeral was held from the Little Sands United Church on Oct. 3 with a large number of people in attendance. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Goudge in the absence of the regular pastor. The many and beautiful flowers bore silent tribute to the departed.
