REV. R. OSGOOD MOORE DIES AT MIDDLETON

Was Formerly Pastor At Summerside and Bedouque.

MIDDLETON, N. S., April 22—The death in hospital here Monday of Rev. R. Osgood Moore, one of the most widely known Baptist clergymen in the Maritime Provinces, removed a man who for many years was active in furthering the work of his church. As a pastor and as public secretary of the Maritime United Baptist Convention, an arduous work which he carried out faithfully and well for many years, he became known to thousands by his zeal and ability. He died of pneumonia after only a four-day illness.

Mr. Moore was born in Williamson, N. S., on Aug. 10, 1867, and married in 1894, Antoinette Saunders, of Hebron, N. S., who died in 1921. He is survived by three daughters, Edna of the staff of Columbia University, New York; Hazel, Temiskaming, Que., and Iris, Montreal, and one son, Rupert, Hamilton, Ont. Also surviving are three brothers, George, Waltham, Mass.; Alfred, Williamson, N. S., and Rev. C. K. Mafeking, Man.

The funeral will be held from the Baptist Church at Lawrence town, N. S., Thursday, under auspices of the Odd Fellows, of which order Mr. Moore had been a member for many years.

Several Pastorates

Mr. Moore had held pastorates at Lyons, N. Y.; Guysboro, Chester, Summerside and Bedouque, P. E. I.; Fawcett Hill, N. B., and Central Port Mouton, N. S. He was editor and manager of The Maritime Baptist from 1921 to 1926, during the greater part of which time he resided in Saint John.

His entire adult life was devoted to the interests of the Baptist denomination. He also took a keen interest in public matters, particularly in education and in the primary industries of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick—fishing and agriculture. He was also active in journalistic efforts and was prominent in a movement for improved methods of treatment of mental cases. During the last few years, he edited the Year Book for the Baptist denomination and was secretary of the Maritime Baptist Convention.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
NEW YORK, April 22—Thousands of college undergraduates and high school students left their class rooms today to participate in the third annual demonstration against war, sponsored by the American Students' Union.

DEMONSTRATE AGAINST WAR

No accurate figures as to the number taking part were available. Joseph Lash, national secretary of the Union, however, estimated at least 500,000 participated.

For the most part the demonstrations were orderly, with college authorities giving their sanctions in many cases.

Many prominent persons, including Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Joseph W. Studebaker, commissioner of education, participated in the peace activities.

A two-year "emergency peace campaign" was launched in Washington with the release of several thousand homing pigeons from the grounds of the Washington monument. They bore back to their native cities a message from Mrs. Roosevelt calling for individual responsibility in the maintenance of peace.

DARDANELLES OCCUPATION AROUSES ITALY

Consent, However, May Follow Sanction By Other Big Powers.

ROME, April 22—Turkey's move to rearm the Dardanelles has aroused the opposition of Italy, informed sources disclosed tonight. Italy, however, may eventually give her consent in principle, being forced to by similar consents granted by other big powers, but her fundamental opposition will, nevertheless, continue.

Italy's opposition is based on the diplomatic basis that the treaty of Lausanne providing for the disarmament of the Straits was freely negotiated and signed by Turkey in 1923, and therefore cannot be unilaterally abrogated. However, there are these more concrete reasons:

1. Between Italy and Turkey there has been much suspicion for many years. Twenty-five years ago began the Italo-Turkish war which ended in Italian victory and the taking of Libya and the Dodecanese Islands.

2. Turkey, under Ataturk, was a leading spirit in the formation of the Balkan entente, including all the Balkan States but Bulgaria and Albania. The entente was opposed by Italy, who saw in it an effort to wrest away her friends, Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria and Albania.

3. Turkey has agreed with Great Britain to help her in the Mediterranean if Italy attacks Britain in consequence of imposition of League of Nations sanctions. Should such an event come about, a rearmament of the Straits would prevent Italy from reaching the
